Our

New York buyer has been making splendid purchases for this store. He is in New York City, visiting the big garment concerns, and watching the styles as adopted by the women in the great metropolis. The models selected and forwarded to us by him prove that his judgment is fine. Some time ago we wrote to him, told him how this event was being planned, and gave instructions to make a special effort to get unusually good values in suits. When the packages began to arrive the contents were gratifying. We feel that the efforts were successful and as a result will give one of the best suit offerings that we have ever made.
