The Cottage Sewer—Work on the Cottage street sewer is being pushed, the recent weather being good for the work. Besides the trunk line there are ten deep laterals. Most of the people are preparing to connect up at once.

Planting Peppermint—Sunday the Albany Sand and Gravel company took a scow load of peppermint roots down the river to the mouth of the Santiam for W. J. Tardige and associates to be planted on their 640 acre tract near Talbot, which is being turned into a peppermint farm. This shipment consisted of about 2 car loads and is the first to be sent. Six or seven car loads are yet to follow. The peppermint industry is taking rapid strides in the central Willamette Valley and a tryout is being given the plant in several places.

To Assist in Revival—Rev. E. Radebaugh left this morning for Everett, Wash., where he will assist in a series of revival meetings.

Went to Montana—John Dorgan left this morning for Poplar, Mont., to join the Albany colony of homesteaders near that section. His family will follow in about a month.

Weather Report—Rain is predicted tonight and fair weather Tuesday. The river fell to 5.8 feet. Yesterday's temperature ranged between 33 and 62 degrees.

Prominent Women to Speak—Mrs. Edith Tozier Weatherford, of the State Fair Board and Mrs. Hattie L. Vail, a leading grange woman of Portland, and Mrs. McMatth, president of Mothers Congress of Oregon, will deliver addresses in the interest of the grange and the coming Willamette Valley Fair, at the Commercial club rooms, Saturday, March 4, at 1:30 p. m. They will make talks in the interest of the state and county and other affairs to be held this fall, urging the women to take more active interest in this work.

Elks to Dance—The ladies of the Elks lodge will give another informal dancing party at the Elks hall this evening. All Elks are invited.

Albany Folks in Portland—A Portland paper makes note of the fact that the following people were in Portland over Sunday, guests at the Seward Hotel: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stevens, F. G. Will, Tom Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton and Mr. and Mrs. Al Senders.

From Drewsey—W. H. Howard, of Drewsey, is in Albany on a business trip. He is a neighbor of Miss Willetta Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilbur.

Here from Portland—Miss Hamilton, one of Portland's school teachers, a former resident of Albany, is here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Dutcher, an old friend.

ORIOLE TRIO MADE A HIT AT ORANGE, CALIFORNIA

The Oriole Trio, of which Miss Ora Harkness is a member, have finished their lyceum course, and are now at Los Angeles, making arrangements for the coming year's work, perhaps an extra trip. A paper at Oregon, Calif., speaks this way of a recent concert there:

"Advance compliments to the ability of the Oriole Trio were fully justified at Campbell's hall when three fair young musicians completely captured the high school lecture course patrons, who had used up everything but standing room. At its finale the audience was ready to admit that the Orioles had been underrated. The celebrated Baltimore Aviary never turned out anything better. Collectively and individually the Trio were a success. Miss Boyd's solos, Miss Harkness readings and Miss Beckers' whistling being delightful features and shared about equally in dividing the spoils of applause. The program will stand out as a bright spot in the season's round of events.

which he received a county warrant for $4.

Curtains Caught Fire—The residence of Frank Horsky had a narrow escape from destruction by fire Saturday evening when his little daughter in some manner set fire to some curtains. For a time the house was threatened, but the quick work and presence of mind of Mrs. Horsky soon put an end to the danger. Both Mrs. Horsky and the little girl were badly frightened, but aside from the loss of the curtain there was little damage.

Odd Fellows to Meet—The Oddfellows and Rebekahs will hold a joint meeting tonight and indulge in a social session. Music, talks, etc., and a general good time will be enjoyed.

Dairy Barn Burns—The fine big barn and silo on the Walker ranch near Brownsville, burned to the ground Sunday morning.

FARM HOUSE BURNED. The Farmer Had His Muttachs Singed in Getting Out Sewing Machine and Other Things.

Lebanon, E. A.: The dwelling on the old Newquist farm, six miles southeast of Lebanon, occupied by P. F. Thomas, burned down yesterday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, with nearly all the contents. The fire started from some unknown cause in the kitchen, and was under good headway when Mr. Thomas was awakened by the noise of the blaze. Mr. Thomas fifteen-year-old son Millard was the only one stopping with him, and they were able to get out only the sewing machine, some clothing and a few other things. Mr. Thomas got his mustache singed by the flames in getting out the things. There was no insurance on the house or contents.

BIGBEE BOYS AS BEAVERS.

Will Join McCredie's Team on March 12 at Eugene and Go South for Training.

Eugene Register: Lyle and Carson Bigbee, former students and star athletes, who are signed with Walter McCredie's Beavers for the coming season, will join the Portland squad in this city on March 12, according to a letter received by the boys' mother, Mrs. Callie M. Bigbee.

The boys are expected to arrive home today or tomorrow from the Bigbee farm near Lebanon, where they have been rustating for several weeks.

The latter also said that recent word says they have been having a fine time gomboling over the hills and trying their hands at farming. The Bigbees formerly lived on the farm.

The letter also said that recent word from McCredie said that "Mac" and his crowd of ball tossers will pass through Eugene March 12, bound for Sacramento, their spring training camp. The Bigbees are being carried in preference to a number of others picked up from the "bushes" this year.

Lyle has signed for a pitching position and "Skeeter" is expected to work as utility man.

"Peg O' My Heart"

The quaint Irish brogue, the incorrigible red hair, the tempestuous humors and the warm sympathies of "Peg O' My Heart" will be at the opera house on Thursday, March 2.

Large houses greeted this delightful little play when it was last presented here and the announcement of its forth-coming engagement, will be welcome news to many patrons of the theatre. The piece was written by J. Hartley Manners for Laurette Taylor, who promised to marry him if it was a success. It was a big success, and altho the central character, that of the hoydenish "Peg" was broadened and built up to fit the cleverness and adaptability of Miss Taylor, the author also wrote a play that fits Florence Martin admirably, for it is the opinion of many theatregoers she is ideal in the role and could not be improved on.
