"The Soul's Cycle"

REINCARNATION DEPICTED IN BEAUTIFUL PHOTO PLAY

"The Soul's Cycle," a drama of yesterday and today, which comes to the Rolfe Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, is one of the most beautiful put on the stage by the motion picture craft. In the role of Nadia, the beautiful Grecian girl, and later Agnes, the daughter of a rich American, Margaret Gibson presents one of the best portrayals of her career. This alluring little star dances the Greek dances with the primitive grace of her ancestors, and carries her dual role to perfection. The entire cast is splendid.

The story of the play is founded on the theme of reincarnation or the transmigration of the soul.

The beautiful young Madia scorns the advances of the powerful senator, Theron, for the poet Lucian, and out of revenge the two young lovers are thrown into a burning crater. For this sin the soul of Theron is condemned to enter the body of a lion and roam the earth until he saves Youth and Love. Centuries later the daughter of a Wall Street broker marries a young millionaire. On a hunting expedition the husband had brought home a fine African lion, over which the wife has unusual influence. At this period the husband passes a critical period in his finances, a villain enters, and the lion comes into play, Youth and Love being avenged for the crime committed by the same soul three hundreds of years ago.

"The Soul's Cycle" is a beautiful play, and is educational as well as interesting.

DALLAS, TEXAS, HAS A REAL LEAP YEAR CLUB

Twenty Girls Who Really Mean Business Belong and Are Looking For Husbands.

(By United Press)
Dallas, Tex., Feb. 29.—Miss Genis Jones, prominent society girl, and president of the Dallas Society Girls' Leap Year club, in explaining the object and purposes of the organization to a reporter today said: "The leap year club is simply the result of the growing sentiment that girls should have the right to choose the faces that they must look at over the coffee cups every morning for the balance of their lives. This is Leap Year, and the only chance we will have to exercise that privilege for the next four years. We don't believe in the barbarous custom of having to go to a dance, or to the theatre, or to the marriage license bureau with a man simply because he happens to ask us—when we should rather go with someone else." The other officers of the club are Miss Lucy Foy, vice-president; Miss Marie Fleming, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Ruth Shelburne, sergeant-at-arms. It is said that since the organization of the club, eligible young men have become extremely wary of secluded corners and tete-a-tetes. Organization the keynote of success in any enterprise, has been utilized by these Dallas society girls in their effort to exploit properly and with the greatest advantage to themselves the possibilities of Leap Year. The Leap Year club is composed of about twenty more or less pretty girls. The club made its debut by giving a leap year dance. The girls sent out invitations, made the dates, sent flowers to the young men, called for them in automobiles, escorted them to one of the country clubs, filled the programs, and then took them home again.

ST. LOUIS AND THE NEGROES

Voting Today on Whether Negro Shall Be Compelled to Live in Restricted District.

(By United Press)
St. Louis, Feb. 29.—After a stiff legal fight against the holding of an election on the subject, St. Louis voters today are deciding by ballot whether negroes here shall be compelled to live within residential districts selected for them. The Segregation Bill, as the plan is called, would prevent whites and negroes from living in the same blocks and would compel white persons to move from their homes in blocks the majority of whose residents are negroes. Negroes would be prohibited from living in blocks in which the majority of the residents are white. Stilted segregation win, negroes and white interests opposed to the proposed law, will attack it as unconstitutional, they said today, on the ground that it is discriminatory.
