ORGANIZATION THE THING.

That the big thing in the fruit business is going to be organization for profitable sale of the fruit is more evident every day, a fact demonstrated wherever thoroughly investigated.

Billie Burke, actress, is to receive the coming year as much as Abe Lincoln received in four years as president of the U. S. She is to do the movie act.

Franklin K. Lane used to be a printer's devil or something like that. He didn't care, he just kept climbing; but he will never be president, for he was born in Canada.

Golden mean in this preparedness. Between two extremes there is a place worth studying.

An Albany minister in making a comparison referred to President Wilson, and from him down through the common city officials, down, down, down to Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Goodsell declared that marketing conditions of this state are but a repetition of those of other fruit districts. A few years ago California growers were selling their oranges through selling agencies.

The chaotic conditions of the Puerto Rico market for bananas was remedied a few years ago by the organization of growers who have greatly extended production and increased profits.

The Florida "crackers," by coming together have increased their business and profits enormously. They marketed last year 1,700,000 packs in New York alone.

The United Fruit company increased business 10 percent and made it profitable by organization. Last year it sold 3,300,000 bunches of bananas by auction in New York.

New York state growers organized and last year sold their fruit by auction in orchard lots. Apples brought $2.70 to $3.40 per barrel as against $1.50 to $1.75 per barrel by unorganized methods.

According to Mr. Goodsell, organization will be the exact difference between success and failure in the Oregon fruit industry.

MISFITS

Automobile men are squirming under the increase of the price of gasoline. The item that follows should convince them that an increased price is a necessity to save the company from bankruptcy:

The standard Oil Co. of Indiana in 1915 earned 53.32 per cent on its outstanding $30,000,000 stock, as compared with 21.96 per cent in 1914.

The company paid $3,600,000 dividends besides which the surplus was increased $12,398,376, making the total $26,793,040.

The Democrat recently said that in justice to Albany, Ore., it should be stated that Boss Barnes is a resident of Albany, N. Y. Here is the way the funny man of the Medford Mail doctors it:

The editor of the Albany Democrat rejoices that Albany, Ore., is not Albany, N. Y. Albany, N. Y., probably feels the same way about it, with reverse English.

Billie Burke, actress, is to receive the coming year as much as Abe Lincoln received in four years as president of the U. S. She is to do the movie act.

Franklin K. Lane used to be a printer's devil or something like that. He didn't care, he just kept climbing; but he will never be president, for he was born in Canada.
