Complimenting Miss Karlene Warner, a bride elect, Misses Eva and May Hughes entertained a few friends at a surprise miscellaneous shower on Wednesday. The rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion with shamrocks and daffodils, a shower of shamrocks being suspended from the chandeliers. Little Margaret Morrison dressed in a chick white frock, with green sash and ribbon entered the room with a little wheelbarrow, decorated in green, filled with many dainty and pretty gifts, for the bride-to-be. Games and music made up the latter part of the evening's pleasure, after which a dainty repast was served in which the green color scheme was carried out. The invited guests included Mrs. Howard Jenks (Tangent), Mrs. Elmer Venable, Mrs. Edward Viereck, Misses Nellie Keeton (Salem), Zoe Trask, Mable Trask, Bessie Morris, Edna Gentry, Hattie Jenks, Mary Lee Jenks (Tangent), Marie Wessel, Karlene Warner, Mae Hughes and Eva Hughes. Miss Warner will leave Albany soon for Ellensburg, Washington, where she will be united in marriage to Mr. Hugh S. Hayes and make her home.

Mrs. A. F. Luther was a delightful hostess of the week, when she entertained for the members of the North Albany Thursday club. Needlework and music made up the afternoon's pleasure, at the close of which a dainty collation was served. The members present included Mesdames N. Gilbert, Wind, Hiram Parker, G. Wigle, Buchanan, V. N. Westbrook, Al Cooper, R. Smith, J. G. Gibson, A. Miller, George Olson, J. H. Saffley, Jeff Saffley, Frank Saffley, John Green, C. E. Phillips, Will Phillips, G. W. Goff, King, Rainwater, McClain, Walton, George Small, Donovan, Charles Schuel, A. G. Gregory and A. F. Luther. Misses Claribelle McClain, Fern Donovan, Wind, Georgia Deamis, Lydia Luther and Carolyn Luther. The invited guests were Mesdames Charles Berry, Ed. Pearce, Elbert Small, W. Pearce, D. Holloway and F. E. Beauchamp.

Mesdames John Bryant, N. D. Conn, Misses Maud Bryant and Pearl Cameron were hostesses for the Pythian Sisters on Tuesday. After the regular business session, the ladies passed a few hours together in fancy-work, followed by dainty refreshments. Those present were Mesdames Dora Wilkins, Louise Jones, Charles Burggraf, Helen Berry, W. B. Chance, J. K. Haight, Margaretta Whinnery, W. A. McClain, J. E. Moe, Charles Carter, Orin Anderson, D. D. Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Hofflich entertained the members of the Thursday Tatting club and their husbands last night at a St. Patrick's party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with a shower of shamrocks, flowers and green shaded lights. Games and music were very much enjoyed and dainty refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Jack Minton, I. M. Doughton, C. E. Williamson, Melvin Baltimore, Hendricks, H. J. Reiter, Max Hofflich, Richard Thom, Virgil Hackleman, Alexander, Frank Baltimore and Fred Hofflich.

Mrs. Andrew Skarr entertained the members of the Jolly Twelve club this week. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with violets and greenery, suggestive of the St. Patrick season. Humorous readings were given which were very much enjoyed, followed by a contest, in which Miss Claude Bryant won the first prize and Mrs. Cady the second. All members of the club were present and Mrs. Farlow was elected a new member. Dainty refreshments were served at the close. Mrs. John Bryant and Miss Claude Bryant were honored guests.

A delightful affair of the week was the Shakespeare club meeting which was held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mark Weatherford. Mrs. J. K. Weatherford was the leader of the afternoon and Mrs. O. D. Austin had charge of a special St. Patrick's program and refreshments. Mrs. F. P. Nutting sang two Irish songs; Mesdames M. Weatherford and H. S. Logan rendered a piano duet; Miss Marcel Austin gave two readings, followed by a couple of songs by Mrs. W. H. Davis. A choice collation was served at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. George Fish (Portland), and Mrs. Neeland were honored guests.

The Modern Travelers met with Mrs. A. H. Martin today. The roll call was responded to with current events. Mrs. E. W. Cooper read an interesting paper on "The Mighty Amazon" followed by a splendid paper on "Leading Industries of South America," by Mrs. C. V. Littler. The old officers were re-elected for the coming year. At the close of the afternoon, choice refreshments were served.

Mrs. O. D. Byers entertained the Priscilla club members on Thursday. Needlework, followed by a social hour, made up the afternoon's pleasure, at the close of which a collation was served. The hostess complimented on this occasion, Mesdames John Byers, Orin Anderson, Waldo Anderson, C. W. Boettcher, J. C. Kremer, and Miss Della Byers (Tangent).

In compliment to her sister, Mrs. Dellis (Texas), Mrs. L. G. Gray of Lebanon entertained the H. D. W. club members of Albany on Friday. The ladies passed the afternoon together in sewing and music followed by a dainty repast. Those going over on the noon train were Mesdames F. C. Pate, A. Austin, Charles Carter, Warner, M. McAlpin, Walters, Churchill, Thom, Voss, J. S. Van Winkle, Kroschell and Miss Elva Weaver.

Mrs. J. R. Martin was a charming hostess on Wednesday, when she entertained for the Tuesday club ladies. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in fancy-work and a social hour, followed by a dainty repast. The complimented guests on this occasion included Mesdames E. F. Fortmiller, Earl Fisher, D. W. Merrill, E. M. Pugh, W. L. Marks, Francis Arnold, Charles Monson, Biddle, A. Stark, and Miss Helen Hilbert.

The Thursday Study club met with Mrs. J. A. W. Gardiner this week. Mrs. McIntosh read a splendid paper on "Reclamation of the Desert Land," and Mrs. Ralph Knotts read an interesting paper on "The Five Lakes." The latter part of the afternoon was passed in fancy-work and a social hour, followed by choice refreshments. Mesdames Rufus Russell, Bigham and W. L. Marks, were honored guests.

The Monday Bridge club ladies were delightfully entertained this week. Fancy-work made up the afternoon's pleasure, followed by choice refreshments.
