dinner party given in honor of Mr. Torbet, Mr. David H. Patterson and Mr. Joseph E. Warner. All three of the boys celebrated their birthdays on this occasion. After dinner the evening was pleasantly spent playing "Rook." If the boys are fortunate enough to celebrate their birthdays together again next year the combined ages will be 100 years. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Torbet, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Warner, Miss Elizabeth Torbet and Mr. Hiram W. Torbet.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood entertained the B. I. L. S. on Monday at the home of Mrs. I. A. McDowell. A very enjoyable evening was passed in contests, games and music after which an elaborate collation rounded out the evening's pleasure. This was the first meeting of the year, as an organization and all the members but one were present.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church met in the church parlors on Wednesday. A short business session was held, in which the annual reports were given, which showed that the past year was the most flourishing year of the society. The subject of the afternoon was "Missions." Mrs. C. B. Winn read a splendid paper on "Immigration," followed by an interesting paper on "China" by Mrs. Geselbracht.

The Rural Ladies' Club met with Mrs. Enrich on Thursday. Sewing, interspersed with music and a social hour, was the pastime of the afternoon, followed by a dainty collation. Those present were Mrs. Ralston and two children, Mrs. P. A. Altermatt, Mrs. Nelson Altermatt and two children, Mesdames Vincent, Shirley, Ashton, Fisher, Virgil Looney, Allen, Misses Nancy Ralston, Eva May and Lucy Ashton. The honored guests were Misses Lizzie and Mary Albers.

The Python Sisters entertained twenty members from the Corvallis chapter on Tuesday, in the lodge rooms. An elaborate banquet was served at three tables, which were prettily adorned with daffodils, covers being laid for eighty-four guests. The latter part of the evening was passed in initiation and a social hour.

Mrs. Walters entertained the H. D. W. club members on Thursday at her home on East Fourth street. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in sewing, after which a choice collation was served. Mesdames Gray (Lebanon), Dellis (Texas), and Hoevet were honored guests.

Mrs. Bonnie Smith was hostess on Thursday for the members of the Killcare club. The ladies passed the afternoon in sewing, followed by a contest, in which Mrs. James Thompson was awarded the prize. Mrs. Will Patterson was an honored guest. Mrs. Underwood was taken into the club as a new member. The next meeting will be held in two weeks, at the home of Mrs. McFerran, in the country. At the close of the afternoon, the hostess, assisted by Douglas Smith and Helen Thompson served a dainty lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Walworth were hosts for the "covered dish club" on Monday. After a delightful supper, the guests played five hundred. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Summers, and Mr. and Mrs. William Panck, were complimented guests on this occasion.

A social and embroidery club was organized on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Anderson of Plainview. Mrs. Amy Parker was elected president; Mrs. Louise Millenberger, vice president and Mrs. Pearl Frank, secretary and treasurer. Needle-work was the pastime of the afternoon, at the close of which choice refreshments were served.

The Elks Ladies will meet next Monday afternoon at two-thirty in the lodge rooms, with Mrs. I. M. Seers as hostess.

Mrs. Charles Cusick and Mrs. Dan Johnston were hostesses at a o'clock luncheon on Thursday for the members of the Royal Auction Bridge club at the Cusick home. The latter part of the afternoon was passed in playing cards. Mrs. I. A. McDowell was an honored guest.

The Artcraft club members were entertained on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. D. Summers on Ferry street. Needle-work made up the afternoon's pleasure, after which a dainty collation was served. Miss Conger of Iowa was an honored guest.

Miss Le Velle Wood (Corvallis) was the guest of Miss Gladys Sharp last Sunday.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church gave a social, in the church parlors on Monday. Games and music were the diversions of the evening, at the close of which choice refreshments were served.
