IN

"THE UPSTART"

A delightful satirical Comedy-Drama in five sparkling acts, based upon the successful stage production of the same name by Thomas Barry and produced in Motion Pictures by Rolfe Photoplays, Inc.—BIG LAUGHS, STARTLING SITUATIONS, NOVEL PLOT

Announcing a New Policy

Beginning with "The Upstart," Wednesday, the price of admission to this theatre will be advanced to 15 cents for evening performances of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week. Admission Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will remain 10 cents.

It is the desire of the management of this theatre to give the people of Albany the best there is in the moving picture line, and to this end we have booked the Metro Wonderplays and the Famous Wm. Fox Features for the last four days of each week. Together with the Rolfe Peerless Orchestra, which is unexcelled in a motion picture house in Oregon, we will guarantee the best show to be seen any place, and you will find the advance in price fully justified by the quality of entertainment provided.

The Rolfe Peerless Orchestra, under the direction of an experienced theatre musician, Vincent C. Knowles, plays the latest and most noted overtures, classical selections, popular ragtime and novelty pieces, and the scenes in every picture are accompanied with appropriate music which adds to the charm of the production featured.

SCENE FROM THE UPSTART

"The Upstart"

How Coventry Petmore, whose fanatical opposition to divorce as a menace to society has estranged him from his own family, finds a fertile field for the exploitation of his theories in the home of Judge Mitchell, whose pretty daughter-in-law, Beatrice, tired of her husband's coldness, has become deeply interested in Larry Price, the judge's chauffeur. How Coventry prevents their elopement and at the same time demonstrates the truth of his wild theories at the expense of the judge's ministerial son, makes a story which has a laugh in every scene.

Here they are---back again---The Famous Fox Features---Beginning Friday, March 30, this superb service will be seen at the Rolfe every week
