German Comedies Tonight

People like novelties. There will be on tonight at the college chapel, when the two German comedies are presented by the students of the German department, under Miss Mullenbach. They will be appreciated as much as if heard in English. Miss Mullenbach before their presentation will tell the story, and the acting will tell the rest. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, to secure funds for more German books.

To M. W. A.

All members of the M. W. A. who will go to Corvallis Saturday evening to assist in the initiation of a large class of about forty new members, are requested to meet at the hall tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, to leave in autos, or as soon afterwards as possible. It is expected that thirty or forty will go.

Installed Officers

The Elks last night installed the new officers of the lodge for the ensuing term, with a large number present. Past Exalted Ruler L. M. Curl conducted the installation. W. M. Parker, who has filled the position in a very acceptable manner retired and turned over the chair to J. J. Collins, who has steadily advanced to the place.

This talented negro, who is a half-breed, was in Beloit (Wisconsin) College at the time Judge Van Tassel attended about 25 years ago. The identity of Prof. Woods was not discovered until he had left town this morning and too late to renew their acquaintance. He is said to be a very bright negro.

HOBART BOSWORTH HERE IN "COLORADO" TONIGHT

Augustus Thomas' most famous play, "Colorado," a story of the mountain country, has been produced in five reels, and will be shown at the Hub tonight, Hobart Bosworth plays the principal role, supported by Anna Lehr and a sterling cast of players.

"Colorado" contains not one but a dozen exciting scenes, any one of which might be the "big scene" of some so-called features. Perhaps the most exciting situation in the play is the flood scene, in which thousands of gallons of water are let loose in one great torrent.

Albert MacQuerre, who enacts the role of Staples in the play, takes his life in his own hands when this flood bears down upon him and carries him with terrific speed down a gully in the midst of rolling logs and bushes torn from the hillsides.

Among some of the most familiar of Mr. Thomas' plays are: "In Mizoura," "The Hoosier Doctor," "The Man Up Stairs," "Arizona," "On the Quiet," "Soldiers of Fortune," "The Earl of Pawtucket," "The Education of Mr. Pipp," "Mrs. Leflingwell's Boots," "The Witching Hour," and "As a Man Thinks."

Pathe Gold Rooster Players

Featuring the popular Fania Marinoff, George Probert, and Margaret Greene

ADDED ATTRACTION, VAUDEVILLE, EDWIN J. PORTER SINGING POPULAR and CHARACTER SONGS

The Novel Nedra HAS THRILLED MILLIONS and was a "best seller in the height of its popularity. The picture play is better than the written story.

"NEDRA" Tells the story of how two love sick people—Grace Varmon and Hugh Ridgeway—elope amid the confusion of pursuing servants and policemen, are wrecked by a typhoon, and Hugh finds himself in the company of Lady Tenny surrounded by cannibals. What follows makes the best story, the prettiest romance put in pictures in a long time.

In "NEDRA" you have a thrilling elopement, a terrible typhoon, a realistic wreck in the tropics, a couple cast ashore on a cannibal isle, their exciting life and growing love, final escape and happiness for the future.
