IF ROOSEVELT'S NOMINATED.

Should Roosevelt be nominated by the Republicans there will arise one of the most interesting political situations in the history of the United States.

CALAPOOIA SONG.

For the classic Calapooia, I've a song; Let me sing hallelujah Where it's waters rush along.

Where the nodding hazels cluster, In sleep, There is sadness in the luster Of the waters still and deep;

Type thou art, O Calapooia, Of our life; Now we shout our hallelujah, Dreaming not of pain or strife;

But the tide is ever gliding, Fast or slow, And the current no abiding In its certain course may know.

And the steady river motion, Day by day, Crystal waters to the ocean Bears unceasingly away.

When the poet's grave is thickly Over-grown, When a hundred ages quickly Speed into the dim unknown;

For all motion is eternal, Sure as fate; Earth speeds on her course diurnal, And life enters life, elate.

Fare-thee-well, O Calapooia, Fare-thee-well; But the spirit's hallelujah Tempers sorrow's sounding knell.

Careful attention given to all jewelry repairing at Kreamer's new store.

MISFITS

Made of lamp black, oil and one or two other cheap things, the price of printer's ink has gone up about 50 per cent.

Everybody is going crazy on the road to wealth avenue.

Arbitrarily manufacturers are raising Cain and prices.

Beh the devil has a grin a mile wide.

Down in Chico, Calif., the people are slaughtering the rep. of Rev. Slaughter. Yesterday he was hung in effigy, while the rev. gentleman was preaching on faith with a pretty flower in his buttonhole.

Whether guilty or not there is a big lesson in the case. Everybody ought to live lives above suspicion.

Theory is often a lame horse when it comes to riding a storm of public opinion.

The papers all know how Villa could have been caught at once.

When a boy someone told Misfits how to catch a swallow. It was to put salt on his tail. Soon after he saw a swallow sticking his tail out of a nest up under the eaves of a building.

Some people spend their lives trying to throw salt on the tails of swallows, and their bank account looks like this: 000000.

Nothing like practical lessons to teach one how to hold a rudder.

Another wail from the Bethlehem Steel Co. is headed: "Should the government destroy private armor making industries?"

The trouble for years is that the gov. has been building up these colossal monopolies, and if destroyed it is not the gov. that does it.

Schwab, Carnegie and a few other steel and otherwise men, owe their enormous wealth mostly to the gov.
