TANGENT NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Last Tuesday evening, April 11, the young girls of Tangent gave a successful surprise on the Misses Evelyn Bennett and Agnes Mehring. The girls met at the home of Miss Letha Shrader and first surprised Miss Bennett, then went over and surprised Miss Mehring. The main feature of the evening was a baby party and a covered dish supper. The following girls were present. Misses Ruth Knowles, Belle Slate, Eva Barnes, Letha and Marion Shrader, Bessie Giller, Alberta Goulder, Florence Jenks, Mrs. Goulder, Marie and Agnes Mehring. All dispersed to their homes at ten-thirty o'clock, reporting a very delightful evening.

Miss Florence Jenks has been chosen as May Queen by the people of Tangent. She is a member of the senior class in high school. Miss Jenks has chosen for her attendants the Misses Daisy Slate, Alberta Goulder, Jessie Jenks, and Agnes Mehring. Come and see them on April 29, when the queen will be crowned on the school grounds.

For April 29 has been planned a great rally to be held on the school grounds. An interesting program will be rendered, including the selections, May pole dances, folk dances, baseball and basketball games, auto race, root races, crowning of the queen, songs by high school, intermediate and primary rooms, chorus by the Girls' Glee club, lectures by prominent men from the O. A. C. Music will be furnished by the band and orchestra. Bring your dinners and spend all day with us. We assure you a good time.

The junior class of the Tangent high is going to give a drama on the 28th day of April entitled, Brother Josiah. You will miss a treat if you do not attend. The band will furnish the music between acts. Only 15 and 25 cent charged for admission. Those who will act are: John Mehring, David Anderson, Tressa Case, Evelyn Bennett, Letha Shrader, Agnes Meh-

CITY NEWS

Old Albany Resident—
H. McArthur and wife, of Portland, stopped off in the city over night on their way from San Diego, Cal., where they have been spending the winter. Mr. McArthur is a former resident of Albany, having come here in 1862, and lived here a number of years. He recalled many old residents of the city.

Senior Class to Corvallis—
The senior class of the high school went to Corvallis in a special car this morning as the guests of O. A. C. The day will be spent at the college and the high school students entertained by the college people.

Weather Report—
Yesterday's temperature ranged between 72 and 42 degrees. The river fell to 6 feet.

Many Go to Salem—
A crowd of Albany people will motor to Salem this evening to attend a dinner dance at the Hotel Marion this evening. This form of diversion is becoming popular at Salem and Albany, society folks of both cities reciprocating in entertaining each other. Another of these popular dances will probably be given at the Hotel Albany in the near future.

Buying Oaklands—
Jack Hammel reports the Oaklands starting well for the spring campaign. He returned last night from Portland with an Oakland six for Meyer Brothers, of Shedd. While in Portland Oaklands were bought by Mayor Albee and the fire chief, because of the merits of the car. Jack Hammel is the Albany agent.

Prof. Walker Here—
Prof. Walker of the Bochnke-Walker commercial college, Portland, a former instructor in Albany College, has been in the city today, the guest of Prof. Schmitt. He delivered an address at the O. A. C. yesterday.

Indian Missionary—
Mrs. Wm. E. Hopkins, of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary society, who has been attending the convention at the Baptist church, went to Portland this morning to visit her mother. Mrs. Hopkins has served in India and is prominent in missionary work in her church.

Funeral Today—
The body of the late Ida Stiers Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stiers, former residents of this county, and wife of R. B. Haines, arrived in the city at 4:20 this morning and was taken to the Fort Miller Undertaking establishment. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock this morning at the Providence cemetery, near Linnhaven. Funeral services were held yesterday at Portland.

BAPTIST CONVENTION CLOSES FINE SESSION THIS EVENING

Dr. G. H. Young Elected Moderator For Next Year and Mrs. Neptune Re-elected Clerk.

Rev. G. H. Young, of this city was elected moderator of the Central Willamette valley district of the Baptist church today at the convention being held in this city. Mrs. O. B. Neptune, of Albany was elected clerk, and Virgil Carter, of North Palestine, was chosen as representative on the state convention board.

The convention will meet at North Palestine church next year. The present convention, which has been in session since Wednesday, is the largest and best ever held by the Central Willamette district. The amount of work accomplished. Some very fine addresses and numbers have been heard.

One of the splendid features of last evening's program was the debate between Mrs. Allan Banks and Mr. Ferguson, of O. A. C. on the subject, "Resolved that an efficient Sunday School is more vital to the welfare of a church than an efficient Young People's Society. The debate was spirited and brought out good arguments on both sides.

The session will close this evening with the business meeting of the Young People's Society. Rev. W. H. Davis will deliver the address.

Miss Fannie Bremer went to Portland this morning to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Dell Scully. C. M. Small, agent of the Great Northern Express Co., is in Seattle in conference with the superintendent of the northwestern division.
