Women's Glee Club of the U. O. to appear in concert at the Globe on Tuesday, April 25.

U. O. WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB HAS THREE GOOD SOLISTS

They Will Appear at the Globe Theatre Tuesday Night With Ten-twenty-Thirty.

The U. O. Women's club to be at the Globe next Tuesday night carries three soloists in the persons of Miss Virginia Peterson, soprano; Miss Martha Tinker, soprano, and Miss Leah Perkins, contralto. All three have well-rounded voices and sing difficult numbers with consummate skill. The program is not without a humorous aspect. The skit, "Ten-Twenty-Thirty" is a guaranteed laugh-producer and cure for the blues. A troupe of New York actresses are stranded at a small railroad station. They soon become the objects of curiosity on the part of the "natives" of the village. The conversation which takes place and the humorous situations that arise make the skit funny to the extreme. The club has a membership of 24. While here, the University women will be entertained at private homes. Dean Ralph H. Lyman, of the University school of music, is the director of the organization and has given months in perfecting the quality of the club.

"DAMAGED GOODS" TELLS A STRAIGHT FORCEFUL STORY

The first opportunity in this city to see "Damaged Goods," the widely discussed sociological play by Eugene Brienax, will occur tonight when this drama will open a two days engagement at the Rolfe theatre. It is being presented in pictures by the same cast which originally presented it on the stage in New York. Staged by Richard Bennett, who finally got a hearing after many discouragements. Bennett has made over $400,000 out of his portion of the play and is still collecting royalties.
"Damaged Goods" deals with the old story of youth's sins. George Dupont, an excellent young man of honest intentions is engaged to be married to a fine girl and is spending one of his last bachelor days with his friends, when, that evening under the influence of liquor, the visit a house of ill-fame. In a short time Dupont learns that he has contracted an awful disease. His family doctor tells him he must not marry for two years, but fearing the result of what people will say, and knowing the talk a postponement of his marriage will cause in his fiancée's home, he listens to the talk of a quack who guarantees to cure him in a short time. The awful results are shown, and it is best left to the pictures to tell. The acting is splendid and forceful and the play should be seen by all, especially those over 16 years of age.

"AT BAY" IS AN ELABORATE PRODUCTION

George Fitzmaurice, who is producing George Scarborough's "At Bay" for Pathé, has been making use of some extraordinarily elaborate sets in his picture. The photograph in today's ad illustrated a cabaret scene in which were a large number of persons and where an unusually deep set, was used.
Fitzmaurice's cast, by the way, is one of the highest salaried, if not the highest, which has ever been used in a picture. Florence Reed is his leading woman, and she is supported by Frank Sheridan, Charles Waldron, Lyster Chambers and De Witt Jennings, not one of whom but is a real Broadway favorite. This play is on at the Globe Theatre tonight and Saturday.

"THE NE'ER-DO-WELL" BETTER THAN "THE SPOILERS"

The spectacular photoplay, "The Ne'er Do Well," produced by the Selig company from the story written by Rex Beach, is a worthy successor to "The Spoilers," that other wonder play from the pen of the same author and filmed by the Selig Company. "The Ne'er Do Well" was presented last night at the Hub theatre. The Selig stars who made "The Spoilers" a masterpiece, aid in the realism of "The Ne'er Do Well." It is a story full of unfamiliar fascination of Panama. A special company of Selig players, including Kathlyn Williams, Wheeler Oakman, Frank Clark, Jack McDonald and others were escorted to the Panama Canal Zone by William N. Selig in order that proper atmosphere for scenes necessary in Rex Beach's story might be filmed. There is a wonderful fight that equals the fight in "The Spoilers."
The play will be repeated tonight.
