Mrs. Jessie Wallace of Baraboo, Wis., was the inspiration of a very delightful party given by Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mrs. Owen Beam at the Beam residence on Washington street Monday afternoon. The beautiful bridal wreath was used in profusion on the mantle and about the room; and purple lilacs were draped artistically over the windows. Bridge was played at six tables. A guest prize was given to Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Willard Marks received the prize for high score. The following ladies passed a very pleasant afternoon: Mrs. Harry Cusick, Mrs. Charles Cusick, Mrs. P. A. Young, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Willard Marks, Mrs. John Ralston, Mrs. Joseph Ralston, Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, Mrs. Mark Weatherford, Miss Flora Mason, Mrs. Rocky Mason, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Tweedale, Mrs. Alton Coates, Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. Cecil Cathey, Mrs. Bowersox, Mrs. T. Winn, Mrs. Clem Irvine, Mrs. Carl Sox came in to partake of the delicious refreshments.

The Wednesday Bridge club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. Alton Coates, when she extended her warm hospitality to the club members and a large number of in-visited guests. Many large bowls of apple blossoms were to be seen decorating the rooms. Bridge was played around six tables during the afternoon. The invited guests who were present during the afternoon were: Mesdames Jessie Wallace, Dan Johnston, William Barrett, Earl Brandeberry, Albert Sanders, Harry Cusick, J. A. W. Gardiner, Charles Stewart, Rocky Mason, J. L. White, William Pollack, Lee Bennett George Sanders, Owen Beam, Guy Lewelling, and Miss Flora Mason. Those who came later in the afternoon and enjoyed refreshments with the others were Mesdames Mark Weatherford, Joseph Ralston, W. H. Davis, Bessie Simpson. Mrs. Coates was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Leroy Wood, Mrs. Charles Monson and Margaret and Katherine Coates.

The ladies of the Shakespeare Study Club celebrated Tercentenary anniversary of the birth and death of Shakespeare. April twenty-third was the date of death, also born April twenty-third. This celebration was held at the Albany Hotel Thursday afternoon, Mrs. J. K. Weatherford introduced the subject and eulogized Shakespeare in a fitting manner. A very interesting and instructive feature of the afternoon was a paper by Mrs. H. S. Logan. "The Music of Shakespeare's Plays" illustrated by proper songs interspersed through the talk. The first selection on the program was "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Greensleeves—"Ancient Melody"—from Ballet's "Lute Book (1500, or earlier)". "Heigh Ho! For a Husband. Ancient love Light O' Love"—Ancient melody from Gables "Common Place

Book." "When Daisies Pied and Violets Blue"—Ame. 1710. "The Willow Song"—1792. "Hark, Hark, the Lark"—(1805)—Churchman. Dawn as White as Driven Snow."—James Greenhill, 1840. "Sing no More, Ladies,"—Arthur Seymour Sullivan, 1842. "It Was a Lover and His Lass"—H. Clough-Leigher, 1874. Overture. Midsummer Night Dream. Mrs. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. W. H. Burkhardt, H. A. Nelson, B. R. Wallace, and J. Penland.

Amid a profusion of yellow and blue butterflies, a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room of the high school by Miss Ruth Rawlings and Miss Hazel Gilbert, assisted by the D. S. Girls of class IV and Miss Thorndarson. In the center of the table was a large bouquet of lamb tongues, on which the paper butterflies were scattered. Besides lighting on the tablecloth, butterflies were floating in the air, hung from the chandelier, and on each yellow favor a pretty little butterfly place card marked covers for Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings, Miss Madeline Rawlings, Charles Rawlings, Mr. Herman Abraham, Miss Roberta Veal, Mrs. Griff King, Miss Fay King, Mrs. Harry Walker, Miss Lulu Heist.

Celebrating the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sox and the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ralston, a pretty little party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston on Tuesday evening. The guests presented them with many beautiful flowers. The guests were relatives and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sox and Ralston.

The rooms were made attractive with snap dragons and carnations. Assisting with the serving were Misses Louise Wieder, Kate Stewart, Claire and Mae Tillman, and Pera Wilkins.

At the United Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, a piano recital was given by the pupils of Mrs. S. C. Worrell. The church was effectively decorated with dogwood and apple blossoms. There was an excellent attendance, the lower floor and galleries being nearly filled. Especially good was a song "Honey Child," given by Linnwood and Harry Austin, who appeared in "darkey" costume. Miss Lena Tobey's whistling deserves special mention, as did the duet El Trovatore given by Mrs. Worrell at the pipe organ and Florence Ryder at the piano, which was given by request. Dorothy Lee, Kamilla Kroschel and Gertrude Braden were ushers.

On Monday afternoon from four until six o'clock, Mrs. Alan H. Banks entertained her Sunday school class at a covered dish supper in honor of Marie McClain, who left Tuesday for Nebraska to reside. A jolly time was had by the following girls: Esther Tellefson, Adda Ross, Stella Pittman, Opal Marsh, Ora Gilchrist, Gladys McKee, Arilla Ridgeway, Marie McClain, and Glenna McDaniel.

Wednesday night in the basement of the church, the "Golds" entertained the "Blues" (the two parts of the B. Y. P. U.) as a result of a contest in which the Blues were victors. The basement was filled with young people who had a joyous time until a late hour. Refreshments suggestive of Easter were served.

Very pleasant was the meeting of the Thursday afternoon study club which was held at the home of Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith this week. Roll call was answered with current events. An excellent paper written by Mrs. D. H. Brattin, on "Florida" was read by her and enjoyed by the guests present. Miss Hazel Hockensmith added entertainment to the afternoon by giving several delightful vocal solos and a beautiful piano selection.

Mrs. Hockensmith entertained several invited guests, who were: Mrs. Joseph Ralston, Mrs. Vard Litter, Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mrs. Wieder, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Haight, Mrs. Rudd, Mrs. F. H. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, Mrs. M. D. Wiles.

The Neous Nymphs club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. John Bryant on Friday at her home on 2nd street. The rooms were suggestive of spring with baskets of bridal wreath and apple blossoms. An Easter contest for which prizes were awarded was a novel diversion. An entertaining program was given consisting of an instrumental solo by Mrs. Earl Canfield, vocal solo by Mrs. Charles Essex, a reading by Mrs. Rollin Hackleman and a vocal duet by Mrs. J. Bryant and Mrs. Earl Canfield. Following the program fancy work and a social time were enjoyed and a short business meeting was held. A delicious lunch suggestive of Easter was served later in the afternoon. Besides the members 7 guests were present: Mrs. Rufus Russell, Mrs. Chas. Leonard, Mrs. Claud Funk, Mrs. Reed Hoevet, Mrs. Ed. Reed (Jefferson), Miss Lita Bikman, Mrs. Andrew Sknar.

Celebrating the anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hackleman and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Neptune, their neighbors and friends entertained them on Tuesday. An entertaining program ensued which consisted of: Vocal solo by Bernice Hackleman; vocal solo by Mr. Alan Banks; reading by Mrs. Alan Banks. Rev. Diven of the Grace Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. Little Norene Risley, Florence McClain presented Mrs. Hackleman and Mrs. Neptune with white lilies. A response was given in thanks by those honored. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. C. M. Gilbert, Miss Myrtle Worley and Mrs. B. Taylor. Mrs. Hackleman and Mrs. Neptune wore veils and bridal wreath, and white costumes. The house was beautifully decorated with lilacs and forget-me-nots.

Yesterday the Friday Bridge club met with Mrs. W. H. Crandall at her home on Ellsworth street. Decorations and favors suggested Easter. Bridge was played during the afternoon, after which dainty refreshments were served. Besides the club members present, Mrs. A. Austin was the invited guest.

On Monday evening the covered dish club met with Mrs. F. C. Pate. After an elaborate dinner, 500 was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Pate had for her invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, and Mrs. Kelly of Portland.

The Acme Bridge club held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs.

EASTER MEANS 'DRESS-UP'

And the easiest way to obey that impulse is to buy everything you need here.

You'll benefit in two big ways by doing so.

First, our Spring stocks are large—and a wide variety makes buying simple.

Second, you will feel better about new clothes if you don't have to worry about the cost—and our prices have a reputation for being reasonable.

Clothcraft Clothes are here in all their Spring newness. At $15 to $20 the styles, materials and workmanship can't be paralleled.

Don't delay—Spring is here to stay.

Have You Planted Those Seedlings?

You cannot build a wall without single bricks. You cannot put up a barn without single boards. You cannot raise wheat without single grains. You cannot build up a bank account without single dollars. If you despise the little things, you can never attain to the big things. Bear that in mind for your self. Bear that in mind for your children. Teach them—learn yourself—by beginning a small account for your children and yourself at this bank.

It has been well said that the little things make up the sum total of life—and little habits that of character. They are the seedlings of character—Mosaics.
