A. C. Schmitt Addresses K. of C.

At the meeting of the Albany Council of the Knights of Columbus, Alfred C. Schmitt, vice-president of the First National Bank, addressed the members of the Council on the subject "The Federal Reserve Banking Law." There was a large attendance present who thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Schmitt's address.

Missionary Society

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlors. Mr. M. A. Kees, a returned missionary from China, will be present and make a talk on that country. Reports from the delegates who attended the Willamette Presbytery, at Salem, will be heard.

Prominent Masons Here

Fred A. Van Kierke, of Janesville, Wis., and Louis G. Clark, Commander of the Knights Templar of Oregon, left this morning for Portland. They attended a meeting at Corvallis last night.

Went to Kansas

Mrs. P. G. Kopplin left yesterday over the S. P. lines for Menlo, Kansas, where she will visit relatives.

Knowles Leaves Albany

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Knowles left today for Butte, where Mr. Knowles has accepted a position in a theatre in one of the larger theatres in Montana. Mr. Knowles will be remembered for his fine work here at the head of the Rolfe orchestra, for he is certainly the best orchestra director who has made his home in this city for a long time. The larger fields, however, offered better inducements than a city the size of Albany can afford and theatre patrons will miss his splendid work in the future.

Mistake Corrected

In yesterday's ad. for the Hub Theatre an error slipped through stating that the admission to last night's show would be 10 cents, where it should have read 15 cents. This statement is made in justice to Manager Searles who had to face many patrons who read the ad. and went to the show with the impression that this splendid feature would be shown for a dime. Tonight Lew Wallace will be seen in a Sir A. Conan Doyle play, "Brigadier Gerard," and the price of admission will be but a dime for this Red Feather Feature.

Bentz Funeral Today

The funeral of the late Jacob Valentine Bentz, of Lyons, who died Sunday at St. Mary's Hospital, was held this morning. The remains were taken from the Fortmiller chapel to the Catholic church, where the funeral services were held, and burial took place in Riverside cemetery.

Another Car of Dodges

Another car load of Dodge motor cars was unloaded yesterday by the Ralston Motor Car Co., and all five of the shipment were delivered to the following purchasers: Byron Mil-sap, Lebanon; E. G. Cox, Knox Butte; Chauncey Trapp, Albany; Emma Dyer, and Will Hoefer, both of Albany. Another car load will arrive later in the week.

Sold Another Oakland

Jack Hammel drove another Oakland up from Portland today and has already contracted for the sale of his car, a six cylinder. Mr. Hammel will have another car here in a few days. The Oakland is becoming popular in Albany, three having been sold this month to date. Paid adv.

Demurrers Filed

The defendants in the case of H. C. Atwell vs. O. C. Schmitt and J. M. Hawkins vs. A. C. Schmitt have filed demurrers to the complaints.

Left Sheriff's Office

Miss Zona Haight and Miss Hazel Earl, who have been working in the tax collection department of Sheriff Bodine's office, have completed their work for the first half of the year. Both have proven popular with the large number of tax payers who called to pay their assessments on account of their patience and courtesy in handling the many details of the business.

Charge Dismissed

G. M. Kyle, who was arrested for forging a name on a meal check, was released today. His brother, E. A. Kyle, a brakeman on the O. E. at Corvallis, came to the city and straightened the matter up. It seems that the offense was more technical than criminal, no harm having been intended, but King's proceedings were not regular.

Went to Lyons

Sheriff D. H. Bodine went to Lyons this morning to serve a subpoena in the case of state of Oregon vs. Hyde, et al.

AGED MAN SENT TO STATE HOSPITAL AT SALEM

David Rice, an aged resident of Seio, was brought before County Judge D. B. McKnight today on a charge of insanity, and upon recommendation of Dr. J. H. Robnett, the examining physician, he was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Salem. C. C. Cameron, of that institution, arrived this afternoon and took the unfortunate man back with him.

Mr. Rice is 83 years old. He has been a resident of Oregon for 60 years. Senile dementia is the technical cause given.

Rev. Wm. MacLeod came down from Mill City on the morning train.

J. W. Reeder, local manager of the Hammond Lumber Co., returned this morning from Mill City, after a business trip that place.

Mrs. Chas. McDermott, returned last night from a trip to Portland.

Miss Hazel Travers went to Lyons this morning for a short visit.

Jos. Teuscher, Jr., of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, of Portland, went to Mill City this morning on business connected with that institution.

Mrs. David Torbet left this morning for a visit at the home of her son, Joseph Torbet, who lives west of Eugene.

ANOTHER TALK ON MUSIC.

Doctor Landsbury to Lecture Again at the Albany Public Library This Week.

At the request of those who attended the lecture at the Library last week, Doctor Landsbury has been asked to return and give another lecture this coming Thursday. Those who heard him were very much delighted with his lecture, and his expression of music, and it is by special request that he has consented to return this week and give a second lecture on the same subject.

Students as well as teachers of music will find this lecture of special interest. The lecture will be held on Thursday evening in the main room upstairs of the Albany Public Library at the usual hour.

COLLINS' LECTURE.

A great deal of interest is being shown in the free public lecture to be given at the Globe Theatre tomorrow night by Peter W. Collins, of Massachusetts, on the subject of "What's Wrong with the World?"

Mr. Collins' Lecture is one of a series of lectures in the nation-wide educational program of the order of Knights of Columbus, and the message of the lecturer is one in the cause of God and Country, of civic righteousness and the general welfare. It will be a clear and logical treatment of great problems confronting not only the people of America but vital to civilization and its advancement.

It makes for a better understanding and a kinder feeling between every element in a community. The work that Mr. Collins is doing for the common good by his lectures throughout the country is receiving the pronounced approval from persons in all walks of life, giving to it the idea of the broad-gauge of Mr. Collins' mission and its service for justice, good will among men, civic progress and social welfare.
