The Truth in Advertising

You've heard about the nation-wide movement against misrepresenting goods for sale.

Here's our viewpoint: we're in business to increase sales from year to year.

To do this requires the confidence of the people. And to get this confidence, truth is essential.

We believe that every article we sell, whether it be a collar button or a suit of clothes, is worth every cent we ask for it—sometimes more. We want you to feel the same way after you buy a thing.

If you should not feel that way, the greatest favor you can do yourself and us is to bring it back and give us your reasons. We're open to argument and want you to be, too.

Will you come in and pass judgment on our Spring stock of men's wear?

PETER W. COLLINS, OF BOSTON GAVE ADDRESS AT GLOBE

The Matter With the World is a Lack of Harmony and too Much Infidelity.

Before a large audience, at the Globe last night, Peter W. Collins, electrician, of Boston, speaking under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, told what is wrong with the world. An eloquent speaker, forceful in his delivery, he made a strong impression on his audience.

The matter, he said, is a lack of harmony, and too much irreverence and infidelity. It is an age of strife, conflict and bitterness. He treated the lack of harmony under several heads: First, in the home, where the cancer divorce is at work. One in twelve marriages results in divorce. Second, among religious organizations. There can be no brotherhood of man apart from the fatherhood of God. The world needs more religious tolerance. There is no conflict between religion and science, he said, and showed how religions men have been at the bottom of the world's greatest discoveries. The application of the ten commandments he declared, is the cure for the ills of the world. The evil of the world is the breaking of the commandments. The ten commandments and the gospels are the beacon lights of the world.

Third, between capital and labor, with the problems of insufficient wages and unemployment. Eight to 12 per cent of the laboring men of the country are out of employment, among them, some for a season, some because of weather, some continually, and yet, he said, in the country there are more jobs than workers. A big field is the free employment bureau. The need for the settlement of disputes is for those concerned to get together. The social conscience needs to be aroused. Love of God and love of country are the foundation of loyalty, and there is no morality apart from the love of God.

He said, speaking of the war, that if the rulers concerned would get together in a room, and lock the door, they could stop the war in a short time. There is only one country, he declared, to which we owe our allegiance, the United States, with its stars and stripes.

The announcements in the newspapers yesterday that the Albany Commercial club is to put on Winchell Smith's famous comedy, "The Fortune Hunter," with an all-star cast of local players, has created more comment than the announcement of any theatrical event this season. Already people are inquiring when they can get seats for the play, and the management received advanced notices of several box parties for the opening season.
For the benefit of those who missed the opening announcement yesterday, here is the gist of it. The Albany commercial club is about to launch a big amateur theatrical event. The play is "The Fortune Hunter," a famous comedy, the cast is beyond doubt the most notable aggregation of local actors that has ever been brought together at one time in this city, the production will be elaborate, and the proceeds from the play will be used to elect Miss Marion Anderson queen of the Rose Festival.
If you miss "The Fortune Hunter" you will be playing an awful joke on yourself. But there is no good reason why you should miss it. The prices have been placed so low that everybody can afford it. The tickets will be from 25c to 75c, according to where you want to sit—and no more. You will get more than twice that amount in entertainment alone, and besides that you will have the satisfaction of knowing that the price of your ticket will mean a thousand or more votes for your candidate.
Remember the dates for "The Fortune Hunter." They are Thursday and Friday, May 4 and 5. The reserved seat sale for both performances will open at Woodworth's drug store Wednesday morning, May 3, at 9 o'clock.
