SPIRIT OF COMPROMISE.

Some of the great things of the world have been accomplished through compromise. This is in keeping with the little things of life as they come up in the home and on the street, in business and in society.

AN OLD TIME MINISTER.

An eastern paper says: There was once a minister of the gospel who never built a church; Who never preached in one; Who never proposed a church fair to pay for the debts with which the church was burdened;

MISFITS

When the Central School building is changed into a city hall it should be done so entirely by Albany men. They are entitled to the work.

A Benton county tax man showed a Corvallis newspaper man three tax receipts on the same property, a small farm. In 1907 he paid $35.84, in 1910 $56.83, and in 1916 $105.70. Isn't it about time tax payers got in and did some colossal kicking.

While they are at it they should kick themselves, for they have sent the men to Salem who made big state taxes and have done the voting generally.

Some Liar.

Crescent City Courier: In one of the items in last week's Triuplicate the Webb-McMaster editor told five deliberate falsehoods in less than five lines. That is going some in the line of prevarication.

Ditto Here.

Marsfield Record: The province of a newspaper is not to preach and this page is not long on pulpit suggestions but it strikes the Record that it would not be a bad thing for a whole lot of fellows to get busy on Sunday and go to church.

Watch Today.

Sure this world is full of trouble. I ain't said it ain't. Lord I've had enough an' double Reason for complaint. Rain an' storm have come to fret me. Skies were often gray; Thorns an' brambles have beset me. One the road; but say. Ain't it fine today! What's the use of always weepin', Makin' trouble last? What's the use of always keepin' 'Thinkin' of the past? Each must have his tribulation. Water with his wine. Life, it ain't no celebration. Troubles? I've had mine-- But today is fine! It's today that I am livin'. Not a month ago. Havin', losin', takin', givin'. As time wills it so. Yesterday a cloud of sorrow Fell across the way;

It may rain again tomorrow-- It may rain--but say, Ain't it fine today! --By Douglas Mallock in Ex.
