Some Talker—

Peter Collins, who told what is wrong with the world at the Globe, is some talker, both in quality and speed. His words flow like a rushing cataract, at least two hundred a minute. Mr. Collins said he didn't have to hurry here, the acoustics of the theatre were so good, but he talked 12,000 words in an hour at one place.

And the Gossip of the Local Picture Shows and Theatres

"Damaged Goods" was a play with a point and, while it received some severe criticism, most broad minded people were hearty in endorsing it.
Such plays do more than many other reform agents.

"The Salamander," Owen Johnson's story which created such a sensation in magazine and book form a few months ago will be the attraction at the Hub Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Madame X," Alexander Bisson's novel, one of the most widely read and acted pieces of literature of recent years, will be seen at the Globe Friday with Dorothy Donnelly in the leading role.

The Rolfe Theatre announces another new film service to begin here in the near future—the Triangle Fine Arts plays. The first one will be the special feature, "Peggy," featuring Billy Burke, but the regular service will start after that.

Billy Burke, who will be seen at the Rolfe May 8-9 in "Peggy," the delightful comedy drama that the whole country is busy talking about just now, is at work on another feature play, "Gloria's Romance." This story was written by Mr. and Mrs.
Rupert Hughes, and the play is being staged by George Kleine for re-

Charlie Chaplin has begun suit against the General Film Co. to forbid the showing of "Burlesque on Carmen," in four acts. Chaplin claims that he did not make any four reel comedies for Essanay, and that to show this piece in that many reels would weaken it and injure his reputation. He claims that Ben Turpin was employed to finish the four reels after he left the Essanay employ.

"God's Country and the Women" is the title of a new Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature that gives promise to make a name as one of the great pieces in motion pictures.

Welcome back Bill Farnum, the husky, scrappy actor with the $100,- 000 face. Farnum has never made the hit here he has in other places and it remains to be seen what will be done at the Rolfe this week. "Fighting Blood" is said to be one of his best efforts, and those who saw him in "The Spoilers" several years ago know what that statement means. Wm. Far-num is one of the greatest actors on the screen today.

Alice Brady, who plays the title role in "The Ballet Girl" at the Hub tonight, is a daughter of Wm. A. Brady, the great theatrical magnate and producer. She entered the stage against her father's will and has been recognized as one of the greatest actresses in the country.

Nance O'Neil's first picture with Lubin is "The Flames of Johannis," which will be released soon.

Francis K. Bushman and Beverly Bayne will soon be seen in a picture version of "Romeo and Juliet." Bushman should make a great Romeo and Miss Bayne a dashing Juliet.

"The Secret of the Submarine" is the title of a new feature serial by Mutual. Said to be a thriller.

In response to inquiries sent out by Superintendent of Schools Elliott, of Salem, it was found that 542 students of Salem high school attended moving picture shows and 30 do not. Regarding the kinds of plays liked best it was found that 101 liked dramatized novels, 82 liked the historical drama, 48 liked dramas of most any kind, 20 like love stories best and 21 prefer travel pictures. Marguerite Clarke led Mary Pickford 2 to 1 as the favorite actress.

The next Metro picture at the Rolfe will present a new star to Albany patrons, Emily Stevens, a noted Broadway favorite, in "The House of Tears."

Motion Is Filed—

bus, Ohio, where he is attending the meeting of the national boards of industrial accident associations. From there he will go to take post graduate work in eye, ear, nose and throat, in the principal cities of the East.
