Mrs. Jessie Wallace of Baraboo, Wisconsin and Mrs. Harry Hobbs, of Eugene, were delightfully entertained last Thursday by Mrs. H. B. Cusick at her home on Eleventh street. Yellow was the color scheme throughout the beautiful rooms, with a profusion of Scotch bloom and dornelony used. Those who enjoyed an afternoon at bridge were: Mesdames Francis Arnold, Charles Monson, Willard Marks, Earl Fisher, Alton Coates, Leroy Wood, Charles Stewart, E. D. Cusick, Rocky Mason, J. R. Martin, William Pollack, D. W. Merrill, J. L. White, Guy Lewelling, and Miss Mae Tillman, Flora Mason, Marion Anderson, Lora Taylor, and Mrs. Jessie Wallace and Mrs. Harry Hobbs.

Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Hobbs each received a guest prize of a beautiful bouquet of pink sweet peas. For high score, Miss Lora Taylor won the prize of an easterlilly.

Later in the afternoon the following guests came for tea: Mesdames J. Ralston, Mrs. W. A. Barrett, Dan Johnston, P. A. Young, Owen Beam, Mark Weatherford, Cecil Cathey, H. W. Davis, C. V. Little, Edwin Fortmiller, Ludwig Wilson, and Misses Mann, Brown, Clement, Wagner, Mayme Stevens and Sue Breckenridge.

Later a few of the guests remained and additional guests were entertained at a buffet supper, after which dancing and music were enjoyed for the rest of the evening. Miss Mae Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Miss Flora Mason, Miss Brown, Dr. Bilyen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralston, Mr. Shunterman, Mr. Fred Weatherford, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Johnston, Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Mrs. Jessie Wallace, and Mr. H. B. Cusick.

A very pretty tea was given at the Cameron home on Lyon street by Miss Pearl Cameron and Mrs. Bessie Simpson. On Wednesday afternoon about one hundred guests enjoyed were entertained from three to five o'clock.

The front rooms were attractively decorated in spirilla and palms and green leaves, the dining room looked beautiful with pink carnations used. Assisting with the pouring were Mrs. Leroy Wood, Mrs. Alton Coates, and Mrs. Willard Marks. Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. Clarence Tebault, and Mrs. Greta Fortmiller assisted in the rooms.

The Monday Bridge Club met this week with Mrs. A. Austin. Besides the club members Mrs. Austin's invited guests were: Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mrs. F. C. Pate, Mrs. R. A. B. Veal, Mrs. M. H. Crandall, Mrs. W. T. Panch, and Mrs. Walter Parker. At the close of the afternoon a very delicious repast was served.

A delightful birthday party was given by Mrs. H. A. Leininger, honoring her mother, Mrs. Miller, whose birthday was celebrated last Monday. During the afternoon Mrs. L. E. Tracy gave a birthday greeting to Mrs. Miller and friends, also a poem was given by Mrs. Rahn (Salem). The house was decorated with lilacs. Assisting Mrs. Leininger with the serving were Mrs. Rahn (Salem), and Mrs. Green. The guests included Mesdames King, George Taylor, Pipe, Woodcock, Pollack, Irving, L. E. Tracy, Sterns, J. W. Cusick, Shaw, Hopkins, Small of Salem, Rahn of Salem, Green and Miller.

A delightful "progressive" dinner party was given on Tuesday evening by the members of the Neos Nymph club for the pleasure of their husbands. The guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Canfield, where a delicious first course was served by Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Joe Warner. Bowls of purple lilacs formed the pretty table decorations, novel place cards being used to mark the covers. The house also had a spring-like appearance with the various blossoms used. Then the party "progressed" to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Essex, where a bounteous dinner course was served by Mesdames Essex, Neely, Bryant, Hackleman, Willard, Dowd, Carnegie and Viereck. The long tables were artistic with quantities of varicolored pansies, and dainty place cards. Music and stories were enjoyed, after which the guests sought the home of Mrs. Earl Boyle, for the completion of their dinner, with a delicious desert course served by Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Metzgar, and Mrs. Ohling. Lilacs, pansies and wall flowers harmonizing in color, formed the house decorations. The rest of the evening was spent enjoying music and stories. The dinner guests included: Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Boyle, John Bryant, Alvin Carnegie, Earl Canfield, Homer Dowd, Chas. B. Essex, Rollin Hackleman, Archie Metzgar, John Neely, Chas. Ohling, Edward Viereck, Joe Warner, and Glen Willard.

The Royal Auction Bridge club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. John Simpson and Mrs. Cecil Cathey at their home on Washington street, last Thursday. A very elaborate lunch was served by the hostess at the table prettily decorated with pink sweet peas. The rooms of the house were very attractive with narcissus in brass jars. Mrs. H. H. Hewitt was a substitute for an absent member.

A ball given by the Albany City band for the benefit of Linn county's Rose Festival queen candidate was given last night at the armory. It was largely attended and proved a social success. The Albany band furnished splendid music for the dancing. Every one is anxious to see Miss Marion Anderson elected queen of the Rose Festival.

Pink and green was the color scheme of a luncheon given at the high school Tuesday noon, with Miss Naomi Duncan and Beatrice Sanders as hostesses. Baskets of apple blossoms were used in abundance, a large one centered the table, attractively decorated in pink and green, and a small basket of apple blossoms hung from the chandelier. A dainty luncheon was served to Miss Abbie Anderson, Mrs. H. Duncan, Miss Aurelia Burch, Miss Lillian Thordarson, Mrs. G. E. Sanders, Miss Inez Lemke, and Naomi Duncan and Beatrice Sanders.

An unusually large attendance enjoyed the military club dance of last Tuesday night. Besides Albany people there were a number of out of town people present. Red was the predominating color and the lights were covered which gave the interior of the armory a red glow. Excellent music was furnished by the O. A. C. Cadet Band which gave an entertaining concert preceding the dance.

The girls of the U. of O. Glee club were in Albany this week. After arriving Tuesday they gave a delightful entertainment at the Globe theatre. On Wednesday they left Albany to continue their route of entertaining.

Have You Planted Those Seedlings?
You cannot build a wall without single bricks. You cannot put up a barn without single boards. You cannot raise wheat without single grains. You cannot build up a bank account without single dollars. If you despise the little things, you can never attain to the big things. Bear that in mind for your self. Bear that in mind for your children. Teach them—learn yourself—by beginning a small account for your children and yourself at this bank.

It has been well said that the little things make up the sum total of life—and little habits that of character. They are the seedlings of character—Mosaics.
