CITY NEWS

Residence Changed Hands—

G. T. Hollister has bought the Tweedale residence on Washington street, trading Portland property for it, with W. G. Baker, of Newport, who was the last owner. Mr. Baker recently traded country property for it with Mrs. Rexford, who owned it for several years, buying the property of Geo. Taylor, who bought it of W. C. Tweedale, who owned it for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Hollister will make their home here. They resided fifteen years in Forest Grove, and eighteen in Portland, before going to the bay three years ago. Mr. Hollister is an old soldier, a member of the G. A. R.

Returned from California—

Mrs. George Willis, of Portland, passed through the city Saturday evening on her way home from Southern California, where she spent some time. She is the mother of R. W. Williams, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. French.

Returned to Portland—

Mrs. Carroll, of Portland, prominent in the musical world of the city, returned to Portland yesterday after a visit at the home of H. A. Nelson.

Dr. Beers Here—

Dr. Olive K. Beers, who has been spending the winter at Pendleton, is in the city the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Bryant. She will remain here several weeks, and in June expects to return to Chicago, where she spent a good many years with the Eleanor Club work.

Returned to O. A. C.—

Doug Ritchie and Kenneth Stevens, prominent members of the O. A. C. band, returned to Corvallis after spending several days in Albany.

Bought a Dodge—

Mrs. Maggie Sullivan purchased a Dodge car Saturday.

Unloading More Cars—

The Ralston Motor Car Co. is today unloading another car load of Dodge cars, making a total of 40 which they have sold for the season. This shipment came through from the factory in Detroit in 11 days. Another car load is expected in the last of the week.

Zwahlen Funeral Today—

The funeral of the late Fred Zwahlen was held today at 2 o'clock. Mr. Zwahlen was born in Switzerland May 15, 1854, and came to America in 1883. He has lived in Linn County for 20 years. He is survived by a wife and two children, and by one brother, Ralph Zwahlen, who lives near Jefferson.

Will Go to Eugene—

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Compton, who have been connected with the Hotel Albany, left this noon for Eugene, where Mr. Compton has accepted a position as night clerk. They had expected to go to California today, but changed their plans when an offer came Saturday evening from the Ho-

Motored to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Eastburn drove to Portland yesterday in their car. Mrs. Eastburn remained in the metropolis to visit with relatives for a few days and Mr. Eastburn returned alone. He reports the roads in splendid condition except the stretch between Turner and Marion, which is in terrible condition.

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 72 and 42 degrees. The river fell to 5.9 feet.

Postponed—

The monthly banquet of the Albany Merchants' Association has been postponed until next month.

School Entertainment—

The school entertainment at the Globe tomorrow night ought to draw a big crowd. It is one full of school pep, and will prove a very entertaining affair for the people of the city. Go and see how school children can make you forget the troubles of life.

May Basket Day—

It will be proper tonight to hang May baskets on the doors of your friends and then hike away. It is a neat custom that has prevailed in the east for ages, and is getting a good foothold here. It will be observed tonight by quite a number of young people of the city.

Buicks and Overlands—

Five cars were sold by the Irvin Grange Saturday. Three Overlands and one Buick went to Lebanon, the Buick going to Dr. J. H. Booth. Frank Skipton, of this city also bought his second 1916 Buick. His first was a 32 inch wheel car, but he sold this and bought one with 34 inch wheels.

Hupmobile Man Here—

F. G. Delano, of the Delmage-Manley Auto Co., of Portland, is in the city today with a 1916 Hupmobile. A number of business men were given the pleasure of a ride in this sprightly car, which for a four cylinder machine has the action of a "six." A speed of 62 miles an hour is developed as easily as 12, and the car rides like a cradle. Mr. Delano was formerly with the J. W. Levitt Co., Overland distributors, having joined the Hupmobile forces the first of this year. An agency for this car will no doubt be placed in the near future.

Judge Horgan Here—

Judge E. S. Horgan, of Corvallis, is in the city today looking up some records at the Linn county court house.

Twenty-Six File—

Saturday 26 people filed on home-steads in Linn county. They had previous filings, but their filings were pronounced irregular and had to be done over again. They paid a total of $534.46 in fees, which will be transmitted to the Roseburg land office.

Teeth Lecture—

Tonight J. Brown Rogers, chief of the research department of the Pyorrhoeic clinic, New York, will give an illustrated lecture on "The Joy of Living, or Mouth Health," in the Methodist Episcopal church at 8:30. The lecture is free.

Rev. Fagan—

Yesterday Rev. Fagan announced that he had decided to engage in evangelistic services, retiring from the pastorate of the church in September, denying the petition for him to remain.

Steamer Santiam—

H. L. Walden, with the Hammond Lumber Co., at Eureka, Calif., a former Albany man, writes telling of the building of a new vessel there for coast trade, to cost $140,000, and to be named after Linn county's popular stream, the Santiam. The Santiam will be 220 feet long, beam 42 feet, depth 15 feet. Mr. Walden says: When the Santiam blows up the Santiam to Jefferson have Tip Humphrey out as a reception committee with a brass band."

MISS LORA TAYLOR TAKES PART OF BETTY GRAHAM

In the Fortune Hunter She Will Be Seen in a Very Popular Role.

It would be hard to pick out a more representative crowd of Albanians than the twenty local people who compose the splendid cast of "The Fortune Hunter," Winchell Smith's famous comedy-drama which the commercial club is to present at the evening of this week, for the benefit of Albany's candidate for queen of the Rose Festival.

Miss Lora Taylor.

One of the most popular of the "Fortune Hunter" players is Miss Lora Taylor, who will be seen in the leading role of Betty Graham. Miss Taylor, herself of course, needs no introduction to the Albany public, but her scores of friends will be interested in knowing what kind of a part she is to play in the big benefit production. Well, here is an outline of the part:

Betty is the daughter of old Sam Graham (Ralph Thom), the village druggist-inventor. She is 18 years old, and a regular little spit-fire. If you have never seen the play, you won't recognize Miss Taylor at all when she makes her first entrance in "The Fortune Hunter." She comes into the old drug store wearing a faded calico dress and a worn-out apron. Her face is dirty, and she carries a bucket of water and a scrub brush. The first thing she does is to "call down" the two village gossips. She then proceeds to scrub out the store—which certainly needs it. During the act everybody in the cast comes in for a vehement dressing down at the hands of Betty.

Finally the young fortune hunter appears, and Betty, who in the meantime has worked herself up into a state of hysterical rage, jumps on him with both feet. Betty is not only tamed down, but straightway falls in love with the good-natured young scapegoat, who has come to the village with the premeditated idea of marrying Josie Lockwood, the banker's daughter (Miss Marion Anderson.) This is the end of Betty in rags.

Nance O'Neil, who will be seen in Sardou's "The Witch" Friday.

MISS DENA FROMM WON ORANGE PEAL CONTEST

Had a Lead of Over 600,000 When Final Vote Was Counted Today.

With the final account of the Orange Peel contest, in which over six million votes were received, it was found that Miss Dena Fromm has received nearly two million votes, winning first prize, the trip to the Portland Rose Festival. Miss Fromm has received splendid support from her many friends and is to be congratulated on her good fortune. Miss Stella Hoover received second place, while Miss Laura Chambers took third. A large portion of the votes of one candidate were eliminated on account of illegal voting during the past few days.

This contest, which was managed by the Albany College Orange Peel, has created a large amount of interest during the two months in which it ran, and has served to give the coming college annual considerable publicity.

The vote for the principal candidates is as follows:

Dena Fromm	1,983,792
Stella Hoover	1,339,729
Laura Chambers	1,324,743
Vesta Hulbert	810,837
Mrs. L. Compton	106,940
Hazel Hockensmith	48,996

G. E. Price to Leslie L. Haskin, Sept. 21, 1915. Lands in Tp. 13, S. R. 2 west, 40 acres, $10.

In the next act she comes back from boarding school, and, wonder of wonders, she has become the most beautiful and the sweetest little girl in the village. A whole lot happens after that. The remaining half of the play is full of surprises, and in the unfolding of the famous plot Betty plays a most important part.

Seats for both Thursday and Friday's performances of "The Fortune Hunter" will go on sale at Woodworth's drug store Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. All indication point to a packed house both nights, and those who want the best seats should be in line when the sale opens.

Miss Belle Thompson came down from Mill City this morning.

Rev. G. W. Rohrbaugh returned to the city this morning from Scio.

D. Cormier, of Lebanon, is an Albany visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Molver returned home this morning from Mill City after an over Sunday visit.

Marguerite Clayton is featured at Globe Theatre.

One of the most lovable personalities on the movie stage today is Marguerite Clayton, who will be seen in the sensational three act production, "I Will Repay," which is featured at the Globe tonight. Miss Clayton is not only lovely and pretty, but she can act. "I Will Repay" is a tense story and is full of interesting situations.

Rose Melville, beloved for her characterization of the homely "Sis" Hopkins, appears again tonight in another of that funny series. Her vehicle tonight is "Romance and Riot." The Selig Tribune, a film newspaper is full of interesting events, and the news shows a portion of the battle of Verdun, showing the big guns in action.

GARNIVAL QUEEN CANDIDATE RACE IS A LIVELY ONE

Albany is After More Votes For Miss Marion Anderson For Queen.

The race for the queen of the Portland Rose Carnival is growing hot. While the voting in actual ballots cast is light there is nevertheless a great deal of work going on and there will be some great surprises in a short time.

While every section from where there is entered a candidate for queen is active, Corvallis seems to be about as lively as any of them. Led by Tom Graham, chief of the Corvallis Fire Department, that city is doing things. Yesterday their excursion down the river on the steamer Grahams, which passed through this city, netted them a good sum, for there were over 250 people on board. They have also made good sums out of their local talent plays, etc.

A movement was started yesterday to arrange for an excursion here, but nothing definite has been done to date. The rehearsals on "The Fortune Hunter" are progressing nicely, and a fine performance will be given which will net Miss Anderson many votes. Other matters of raising votes are being worked out.
