REMARKABLE ADMISSION. Lealie M. Shaw, former Republican secretary of the treasury, in the Indianapolis News, makes the following remarkable admissions, striking in these days of rabid partisanship.

WHO WAS SHAKESPEARE? The following story is related, says the Baker City Herald, by one known to be veracious.

GERMAN LOYALTY. A demonstration of loyalty to America is one of the purposes of a great meeting to be held under the auspices of the United German-American societies and the Austro-Hungarian societies at Sheepshead Bay speedway on June 4.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS. Yesterday completed the one hundredth year of the American Bible Society. During that time it has circulated 115,000,000 Bibles, an average of over a million a year.

Dr. Stone's Heave Drops cures heaves. Price $1; for sale by all druggists.

MISFITS

Some of the jingo papers did hate to give up that the U. S. and Germany could remain friends, as they should.

A loyalty to the government which places politics before the general good is as thin as tissue paper.

One paper down the road on the very morning of the day when it was known what the German reply was, which was Friday morning, had a scare head entitled "Kaiser Defies U. S. in Reply."

On the contrary the reply is very friendly, showing a good spirit.

One of the most unpleasant features of the submarine controversy is the spirit shown by certain journals of this country unable to rise above party prejudice at a time like this.

The motto of some reads like this: "War or bust."

John Bull has made Ireland be good. Now let J. B. himself be good.

The cause of yellow journalism has now been learned. There is no blue dye to make the paper white.

The Democrat recently gave a pun on a name, which caused a correspondent to send one about an Iowa girl whose last name was Akin.

President Wilson has been presented with three live eagles. Perhaps getting ready to scream on the 4th of July.

Getting pretty close to June 17 when according to the great London prophet the war is to end.

The defeat of Mr. Bryan as delegate in Neb. is causing a great deal of merriment in the rep. camp.

Also that of Senator Lafolet.

Save your rags is being yelled all over the country, evidently fearing a paper famine. Well, we're wearing them as long as possible.

If it's names you are after here is one from Marshfield. Liljoqvist, and can you pronounce it?

We are startled to read the following from an Astoria paper: "Restaurant men say prohibition is a success."

Since Jan. 1st meal tickets have been paid for in advance. A pleasing admission from an Astoria paper.

In the Spring. "There's sumpin' in the air I've noticed everywhere; For work I've no taste. It seems an awful waste—I guess it's Spring."
