UNDER TARIFF.

Here is an eastern view of the tariff situation, one worth studying: Senator Warren G. Harding, a standpat delegate to the "regular" Republican national convention...

These were false prophets. The industries of the country—all sorts of legitimate business—were never so prosperous as now. The best barometer of business is the bank clearings...

Such statesmen as "Uncle Joe" Cannon and Dr. Gallinger were doleful in the warnings that the Underwood tariff would force us to buy everything and not allow us to sell anything.

GREAT WORDS.

How can Americans differ about the safety of America? I, for my part, am ambitious that America should do a greater and more difficult thing than the great nations on the other side of the water have done.

MISFITS

Does any Albany girl think she can throw a baseball 227 feet 3 inches. She can get her picture in the papers if she can, for that is the world's record now for girls.

It is always quite a debatable question how far women shall go in athletics. There is no reason why a certain amount of athletics is not a good thing; but there is a limit, and women unquestionably are not built for exercise as men are.

But the right kind of exercise is good medicine for both men and women.

Charlie Chaplain's fame continues. He has been sued for $500,000 by the Essanay Co.

Even the frost hit us more gently than it did other sections.

If Carranza doesn't behave himself he will lose his job.

What fools some women are. Will Orpet the Waukegan murderer, has received scores of love letters.

Cummins and Burton have now come and gone, and both will be gone.

I. B. Green is a correspondent in the Dallas Observer.

The man with sense never calls a barber names while in his chair. A man back east did that and is now an earthly submarine.

The Washington County News Times enthusiastically endorses A. E. Scott for the legislature. Sure, enough, Scott is one of the editors. Coming up from a printer's devil he deserves the boost in to the legislature if he is willing to stand the opprobrium.
