GREAT IS Y. M. C. A.

Minneapolis News: The Y. M. C. A. is a social safety valve. It contradicts the lie that young men to be decent must be sissies. It is proving that young men can be red-blooded and manful without being either rounders or libertines.

The naturally bad young man is rare. Society often is to blame when the bounding life in his veins turns to immorality as the easiest outlet.

Fill his hours full of clean recreation, keep his mind busy with clean thoughts and see what happens. He will respect his body as a gift to be kept strong and wholesome. He will have regard for the great mystery of life in himself. He will hold as sacred the great mystery of life in young womanhood.

The average young man is a healthy animal. If he were only that he would follow his natural instincts. Being endowed, however, with a brain and a soul he can be shown that all of his natural instincts must not be indulged. He can be taught not only that his own health and the health of his unborn children are at stake, but also that if society as a whole is to be clean the individuals composed of society, including himself, must be clean.

The Y. A. C. A. avoids the negative attitude toward the social evil. It does not content itself with telling the young man what he must not do. It takes the positive attitude by showing him what he should do. It holds before him the ideal of physical strength and warns him that indulgence will weaken him. It shows him how the strong body is dependent on the clean mind. The gospel that it preaches is sane, practical and manly. And it gets results. It is helping to starve out the social evil by depriving it of patrons. Isn't it a good thing to push along?

NO OCCASION TO CHANGE. Pendleton E. O.: It is not likely the people will see any occasion for changing presidents. Wilson is making good both with reference to the war situation and in constructive statesmanship with regards to economic subjects. The country has benefited immensely by having him in office and common justice as well as good sense calls for keeping him there another term.

As matters stand Wilson probably cannot be defeated by anyone because he is the country's logical choice. The very fact that Oregon republicans voted for Hughes is in itself a compliment to the president. Not having Wilson upon their ticket republicans voters have done the best thing they could by supporting the man who according to the line the people have upon him measure up most closely to the Wilson standard.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS. The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka, astonishes Albany people. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. MISFITS

All around are the bodies of defeated candidates.

Many of them are to be congratulated on their defeat.

There are two sides to running for office.

These fellows who jump on Henry Ford may hear something drop. Ben Olcott having been renominated by both the democrats and republicans is bound to be reelected. The masses are not easily hoodwinked even by political bosses.

Another Rounder.

He leered at me horribly and then a slim hand slid over my quivering cheek. A jagged blade flashed downward as I cringed.

Once, twice, thrice. And then it cut into my shrinking flesh!

"I'm sorry sir," he said, "But I can't shave you if you don't keep still."

"Lucky Editor."

Ye editor was in luck this court. The grand jury let us down easily, and besides it's the first March term of court that a "little stranger" failed to take up at our house. For both we are truly thankful.—The Baker County (Ga.) News.

Where Was Jeff?

Bill Mutt was arrested last night charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and upon being arraigned entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $5.00.—Roseburg Review.

Some City.

New York is a leviathan. It is "a city with more Jews than ever were in Palestine; more Germans than in any city in Germany except Hamburg and Berlin; more Bohemians than there are in Prague; and more Italians than there are in Rome. A birth every four minutes; a death every seven minutes; a marriage every eleven minutes."—(MacGregor in the National Municipal Review.)

Don't you think for a minute Charlie Chaplin will give up his $600,000 a year for that of the presidency with only $75,000 up.

After all our nervousness it transpires that crops are going to be good.

Would Fix Him.

Should Mr. Roosevelt be nominated by the republicans, every line he has written, every word he has spoken, in the past four years against the party which made him and the men who for a long time served him with thorough loyalty would be quotable, and quoted, by the democratic managers to prove that he should not as the head of the republican party gain be elected.—Washington Star.
