Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dolan, of Corvallis, entertained Mrs. Dolan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Train at a dinner Monday evening, celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. The table was beautifully decorated in daisies with attractive and appropriate favors and place cards. Dean and Mrs. Covell were invited guests. After the sumptuous dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Train were presented with a beautiful corsage bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Dolan and Mr. and Mrs. Train then motored to Albany, where, upon arriving at the Train home on Seventh street, they were greeted by nearly two hundred friends, who had gathered there to surprise them and to help celebrate this happy occasion. Friends had profusely decorated the house with Scotch bloom, the library being a veritable yellow bower of the blossoms. The dining room was gay with marigolds, Judge J. K. Weatherford, Dr. W. H. Davis, Prof. W. H. Lee, Percy Kelly, and Father Lane were called upon to speak and they each eulogized Mr. and Mrs. Train highly and in a fitting manner. Mr. and Mrs. Train both responded, expressing deep gratitude for the kindly expression manifested. Congratulations now being in order, the time was passed pleasantly in conversation and felicitations. Dainty refreshments were served, a unique touch being two candy hearts with mottoes, decorating each plate. Those presiding at the tables were Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, Mrs. H. H. Hewitt, Mrs. A. C. Schmitt and Miss Mason. The Misses Hazel Hockensmith, Corintha Hart, Elizabeth Eagles and Beatrice Sanders, assisted in the serving. Mr. and Mrs. Train have resided in Albany since 1886 and have been closely identified with the business and social life of the community and are held in high esteem.

Mrs. H. A. Leininger was a delightful hostess at a bridge party given at her home on Ferry street last week. The beautiful living room was made even more attractive by large pots of hawthorne blossoms and snow balls. Roses and greenery added attractiveness to the dining room. The invited list was Mesdames Jessie Wallace (Baraboo, Wis.), J. M. Hawkins, H. H. Hewitt, G. E. Riggs, L. H. Fish, W. I. Marks, Thomas Hopkins, W. V. Merrill, Fred Ward, Walter Worrell, M. McAlpin, Grant Pirtle, Glen Junkin, Walter Parker, Mark Weatherford, Wayne Stuart, John French, L. L. Swan, Charles Cusick, E. D. Cusick, R. E. Mason, P. A. Young, W. A. Barrett, George Sanders, M. Montgomery, W. F. Pfeiffer, Chas. Wieder, J. J. Barrett, Adolph Senders, Reed Walworth, B. F. Kirk, William Pollock, Owen Beam and Miss Flora Mason. Delicious refreshments were served, Mrs. J. French and the Misses Louise Wieder, Eleanor Bruce and Linnie Conner assisting the hostess.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Grace Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. B. W. Taylor Friday at 2:30 o'clock. The president, Mrs. Robert Diven, presided. A short business meeting was held, followed by devotional exercises. The foreign topic was Siam; the home topic was work among the Cubans and Portoricans. Articles of interest were read by several ladies, Mrs. Samuel Speer presenting Siam, and the character of its people; Mrs. W. C. Mitchell reviewed the schools of Siam; Mrs. R. Hobart talked on the house keeping problems of Siam; Mrs. Carter told of Cuban people and their characteristics; Mrs. J. D. Bryant, on hospital work in Porto Rico. A pleasing solo by Mrs. Ralph Knotts completed a pleasant and profitable meeting. The hostess served dainty refreshments later in the afternoon.

Mrs. L. O. Coates entertained for the Jolly Twelve club at her home last Thursday. The usual short business meeting was held and roll call was responded to with humorous readings. The rooms were beautifully decorated with lilies and ferns. A pleasant afternoon was spent by the club members present and Mesdames Frank Meister, G. L. St. Mary, J. McChesney, Mrs. Scott and Miss Maud Bryant, as invited guests. Mrs. Alton Coates assisted the hostess.

On Tuesday evening the armory was the scene of one of the dances given regularly every two weeks. A large crowd enjoyed the evening. Good music was furnished by the Albany band.

The Priscilla club was delightfully entertained this week on Thursday by Mrs. Walter Worrell. During the afternoon the ladies enjoyed fancy-work and later choice refreshments were served.

Miss Opal Howard and Miss Ardy's Doughten were hostesses at a very pretty pink luncheon given in the dining room of the high school last Tuesday. The table and room was very attractively decorated with pink roses and ferns added beauty to the prettily decorated table. Assisting with serving were Eva Olmstead and Velma Kizer.

The Domestic Science girls of class IV gave a luncheon Wednesday noon honoring Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Mrs. W. A. Barrett, Mrs. W. B. Young, Miss Thordarson, Mrs. C. W. Boettcher, Mrs. G. E. Finnerty, and Miss Peterson. The dining room was prettily decorated for the occasion, and a delicious luncheon was served. Naomi Duncan and Hazel Gilbert served in the dining room.

Miss Elizabeth Ryan was the inspiration for a most delightful surprise in the form of a miscellaneous shower on Monday night. Miss Willis, Miss Shank and Mrs. Zane Rudd were the charming hostesses and an especially pleasant evening was enjoyed by the Misses Zona Haight, Patton, Minnie McCourt, Braden, Mayne, Wilson, Bell, Colby, Thacker, Jewell, Schultz, Galloway, Edith McCourt, Francis McCourt, Burkhardt, Buehler, Mrs. Flood and Mrs. Boettcher.
