"LOGANBERRY JUICE"

(Tune: Susannah) (Written for Democrat) Once on a time a gardener, Engraved with skillful hand, Two luscious fruits, and brought to light The loganberry grand.

The mystic colors dark and gay Combined in rosy hues To tint the glorious beverage The loganberry juice. Chorus: No other juice like thee For young and old. In heat or cold The only drink for me.

CAUSE OF PROSPERITY.

It is admitted frankly by everyone that great prosperity has come to the United States as a whole, regardless of conditions in the Northwest. Even the opposition party, seeking to be restored to power, admit that. The only objections that the republicans raise to the present prosperity are, first, that only republican administrations are supposed to create prosperity; second, that prosperity is not attributed to the democratic administration, anyway; third, that while the country is admittedly prosperous, it will not last.

"It is all based on munitions of war," the republican critics of prosperity say, "and when the war is over it will go floozy."

What are the facts? The official figures of the Department of Commerce show that the country's so-called "war business" does not exceed five per cent of its total industrial and commercial activity. The United States Steel Corporation handles no "war business" and yet it is now doing a record-breaking business.

For the third months in succession the steel corporation has reported a new high record in unfilled orders. The tonnage as of April 30, 1916, was 9,829,551 tons, an increase of 498,550 tons over the business booked at the end of March. The phenomenal showing for recent months indicates not merely the prosperity of the company itself and the steady employment of thousands of men engaged in the steel plants, but also tells the story of new bridges being built, new rails being laid, and new steel buildings being constructed in various parts of the country. In all sections there has been an increase in building operations which is reflected in the report of the steel corporation.

In the period of nine months the trade of the United States with South America has more than doubled. Exports to South America in the nine months period increased from $62,000,000 to $129,000,000. This was due largely to the supplanting of European goods with American goods, but it was made possible solely through the better understanding brought about by the present Democratic administration in Washington.

Bankers throughout the country frankly admitted that the leadership of Secretary McAdoo, of the Treasury Department, saved the financial situation for the United States after the European war began, and it was as a result of that same leadership that the Pan-American Scientific Conference, and later, the Pan-American Financial Congress, were held in Washington, opening the avenues of larger trade and better understanding between the countries of North and South America. Later the permanency of the trade was assured by the visit of an American commission, headed by Secretary McAdoo, to South America.

The trade and financial journals bear testimony to the fact that prosperity has permeated every industry in the United States.

MISFITS

This may be a smart age; but the shell man nearly always gets a victim. Likewise the change maker.

Also oil and mining stock and numerous others.

More German notes; but these are the same as money, to be floated in this country.

A few American jingoists think it is the biz of the U. S. to boss the biz of all the other countries of the world.

One pleasing thing about Villa these days is that he isn't saying anything.

The manner in which the European countries treat the subject of peace suggests that they haven't had enough fighting yet, at least the military bosses.

Frenzied Finance.

N. Y. dispatch: J. P. Morgan & Co. today requested the police to search for William McManus, an 18-year-old office boy on a complaint that he disappeared shortly before noon today, taking with him $10,515, representing the firm's weekly payroll.

A Weak Platform.

Jefferson Review: It has been demonstrated that a gopher platform is no good to run on, and that the people of this country don't care whether they appoint their own road supervisors or not.

A Great Philosopher.

Another one from the Review: Politics is a mighty ungrateful game. Men you have worked hard for in the past go square back on you when you ask their assistance to help a friend, and yet in a few years they will ask you to help them again—and sometimes you are fool enough to do it.

One Prosperous Town.

Baker Herald: A greater building industry is going on in Baker than for many years, notwithstanding the high prices on materials. This indicates the prosperity the people are enjoying.
