A PLATFORM.

Someone has prepared the following platform for the coming republican national convention, to meet at Chicago next week.

We favor immediate repeal of the Federal Reserve Act and the substitution of a central bank controlled by Standard Oil.

We demand prompt removal of the income tax from the statute books and the restoration of a system of taxation which relieves the rich of, and places upon the poor, the heavy cost of government.

We insist upon early elimination of the Federal Trade Commission, so that the great trusts may resume the practice of unfair and cut-throat competition without let or hindrance.

We hereby declare for the enactment of a drastic law prohibiting any public mention of the great measures for the development of agriculture, of commerce and industry put in force under Democratic administration, because discussion of these matters tends to make votes for Woodrow Wilson.

We point with sorrow and sinking hearts to the unprecedented prosperity of the United States and we hereby solemnly swear that not one nickel of it is attributable to Democratic administration, but that our good fortune is entirely and whole due to the eclipse of the moon last July, or something like that.

We urge immediate annexation of the Hearst ranch.

We hereby assert that the Wilson administration has failed to assert the American position with adequate vigor in the negotiations with Germany over the submarine issue.

We hereby assure the German vote that the Wilson administration has been entirely too aggressive and persistent in its dealings with the kaiser.

We love ourselves more than our neighbors and propose to do unto the common people just as Mark Hanna did unto them; only more so, etc.

TAXING PERSONALITY.

Chicago is said to have definitely abandoned trying to collect personal taxes amounting to less than $25 a year. It has found that the expenses of collecting the taxes is more than the receipts. Many other cities have had the same experience, although most of them still keep up the pretense of taxing personal property, accepting such money as comes easily and ignoring the rest. New York has drifted into the practice of assessing the personal property of citizens known to be wealthy, and ignoring the rest—which means that the vast majority of citizens in New York are not even asked to pay personal taxes.

The tendency all over the country is in the same direction. It is felt more and more that at least the goods a family gathers for the making of a home should be exempt.—Ex.

SHOULD BE ELECTED.

Jefferson Review: Mark V. Weatherford, one of the ablest young attorneys of the state, is the democratic candidate for representative in this district. There is a heavy majority against him, but if the voters will consider the ability of the two candidates, Weatherford will be elected.

Weather Report—

Yesterday's temperature ranged between 65 and 47 degrees. The rainfall was .01 inches and the river fell to 4.2 feet.

MISFITS

Swallowing this man Webster, whoever he is, for vice president, ought to be a matter of humiliation to the republicans of the state. It transpires that he is what the world knows as a clump, one of these fellows like the Portland man always running for something, evidently having bugs in the head somewhere.

Suddenly a man emerged from the crowd, drew back his hand and hurled an open pocket knife at Col. Roosevelt. The lion hunter was undisturbed at the trivial matter and rode on.

There is a big opportunity these days for the moody person to be everlastingly depressed. Wars, murders, accidents, catastrophes, border troubles are enough to make the brain flop sideways, if permitted to run loose.

Without a dissenting expression people generally have a good word for Jas. J. Hill, the empire builder.

The world likes the man who does things without tearing others to pieces.

Albany Best.

Some folks leave home for money. And some leave home for fame. Some seek skies always sunny. And some depart in shame. I care not what the reason. Men travel east or west. Or what the month or season. The home town is the best.

The home town is the glad town. Where somebody real abides. 'Tis not the money-mad town That all its spirits hides. Though strangers scoff and flout it. And even jeer its name. It has a charm about it. No other town can claim.

The home town skies seem bluer Than skies that stretch away. The home town friends seem truer And kinder through the day. And when glum or cheery. Light hearted or depressed. Or struggle-fit or weary I like the home town best.

Let him who will go wander To distant towns to live. Of some things I am fonder Than all they have to give. The gold of distant places Could not repay me quite For those familiar faces That keep the home town bright. —Selected.

National Delegate— Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson, of Halsey, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Jackson is getting ready to go to St. Louis to attend the national democratic convention as a delegate from this district. He appreciated the splendid vote he received for the position. While east he will also visit relatives and see the country. He will start next Monday and be in St. Louis before the 14th with his ballot all ready for Woodrow Wilson for president.
