ASHES FROM PIPE SET FIRE TO BUGGY SUNDAY

Sometimes it costs even more than the price of a pipe and the tobacco to smoke. Sunday morning an old gentleman was on his way to services and as he jogged along in his buggy behind the trusted old horse he smoked peacefully. He entered the city from the east and turned into Fourth street. About that time he knocked the ashes from his pipe and placed it in his pocket. The ashes were hot, and those catching in the excelsior in the back of the seat soon smoldered into a blaze. At Fourth and Jefferson two girls saw smoke coming from the rear of the buggy and tried to tell the gentleman, but he was hard of hearing. As the smoke broke into flames they ran after him, but no heed would he pay. In front of the residence of Frank Powell the fire had assumed great proportions, and by that time the occupant of the buggy came to realize his peril. Mr. Powell and other neighbors rushed to the assistance with garden hose, lifted the lone driver out and unhitched the horse, turned the hose on his blazing duster, and then on the buggy, which was pretty nearly burn up by that time. The old gentleman was badly frightened.

Suffrage Ahead in Iowa.

(By United Press)
Des Moines, June 6.—It will probably take the official count to settle the question of whether suffrage was carried in Monday's election in Iowa. The complete vote of one third of the precincts throughout the state give suffrage 62,448, against 60,227.

Brooklyn Boy Held.

(By United Press)
Washington, June 6.—John Kilgallen, a Brooklyn boy, held in connection with the Sinn Fein revolt, has been interned under the sense of the realm act, the state department advised.

Fruit Conditions—

W. A. Bodine estimated the apple crop and prune at about 75 per cent of normal. F. M. Mitchell, the orchardist, telephones that his observations speak for about 50 per cent of normal. Instead of orchards being in a good condition he says most of them are in poor condition, and he doubts if more than one in twenty has been sprayed this year.

Rev. F. W. Emerson went to Station this morning where he will speak tonight. Wednesday evening he will speak at Mill City.
