Kindness Appreciated.

We desire to express through the columns of the Daily Democrat, our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who have so generously come forward with help, and assistance in every way since our home and its entire contents were destroyed by fire on May 8th, last.

We also wish to thank all those who have assisted us in caring for Miss Gladys Lee, who was so severely burned at the same time. It is with heartfelt thanks that we accept the kindness and generosity which has been so bountifully extended to us.

Steam and the Home.

Steam shelled industry out of the home as one shells pens, and put it in the factory. The family, father, mother and the children, tagged after, and home survived merely as a place to eat and sleep.

Applied to transportation, though, steam did even more. It dissolved the population which had caked and clogged in one parish for 1,000 years and made it fluid to run uphill about the earth, uphill from low income to a higher. Nobody lives now where he was born if he can get away. We're here only till something better somewhere else turns up. The attic under the ancestral shingles, full of horsehide trunks that hold the broadsheet satins in which our great-grandmothers danced with Lafayette—you just read about them in the story books; they don't exist.—Eugene Wood in Century
