

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 469-R

One of the prominent features of the Masonic Grand Lodge session held in Albany during the past week was the dinner given at his home Wednesday by Past Grand Master David P. Mason, to the Past Grand Masters of the Mason's Grand Lodge of Oregon.

The guests were seated around an elaborately decorated table, the center of which was banked from one end to the other with beautiful pink roses, Caroline Testout and Thousand Schon being used in profusion. At intervals during the elaborate dinner music was enjoyed, groups of vocal solos being rendered by Miss Grace Edith Brown, and Miss Isabel Young. Later, toasts were given and responded to by a number of the guests present. The invitation list included Past Grand Masters W. T. Wright, J. C. Fullerton, Jos. F. Robinson, B. Van Dusen, F. A. Moore, J. C. Moreland, Philip S. Malcolm, Morton D. Clifford, Philip Metcham, W. H. Hobson, John B. Cleland, H. B. Thielson, W. E. Grace, S. M. Yoran, Thos. Flannagan, W. T. Williamson, Lot L. Pearce, David E. Kiddle, Morris B. Cox, C. E. Wetherston, Thomas M. Baldwin, George H. Burnett, S. S. Spencer, W. C. Bristol, Frank J. Miller and President William Kerr of O. A. C., grand orator; Dr. J. R. N. Bell, grand chaplain, and Rev. W. W. Youngston who was recently appointed grand chaplain of the grand commandery, which meets in Los Angeles June nineteenth. A good number of past grand masters were able to be present and enjoyed the warm hospitality extended to them by Mr. David P. Mason and Miss Flora Mason, who so liberally gave her time to supervise this elegant dinner.

Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Howe Lee entertained the seniors of Albany College at a lawn supper on Wednesday evening. The affair took place on Lee's lawn. The invitation list was composed of the seniors: Margaret McDonald, Helen Hulbert, Lora Warmingtoto, Wilhelmina Hemrich, Hope Blair, Anne Eddy, Irvin Custer, and Edward Blair, and Berenice Hackleman.

Mrs. H. M. Palmer and Mrs. S. A. Dawson jointly celebrated their birthdays at the home of Mrs. Palmer on Thursday afternoon. The room was profusely decorated with pink roses and pink was the color scheme carried out thru the entire afternoon. The hostesses were the recipients of many presents including beautiful floral pieces, candy, and fancy work. An enjoyable afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework, until two large birthday cakes were brought in and cut with much ceremony by Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Dawson. An elaborate three course supper followed, which was enjoyed by Mesdames Anderson, Haight, Harkness, Crosby, Leigh, Davis, Tracy, Woodcock, Kelly Hoop, Viereck, Hough, Miller, Ludwig Wilson, Frances Wilson, Sturmer, Hart, Train, Shaw, Sears, Small, Austin, Miss Cavill, Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Palmer.

The Military club gave another dance Tuesday night at the armory. This was very well attended by people of Albany and neighboring towns. The music was furnished by the Albany band, as usual. These dances will continue at intervals during the summer.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. L. E. Blain on Tuesday of this week for the purpose of making bouquets to send to the sick and disabled. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. E. F. Clifford, and about seventy-six bouquets were made.

After a short program on the mission of flowers, thro the kindness of J. L. White of the Albany water works, who himself drove his fine Overland to St. Mary's hospital and the Linn county farm for poor people was visited and flowers enough for all the inmates were left in with the matron.

Mrs. Willard L. Marks and little son let today for Marshfield to visit for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Marks' mother, Mrs. Dindinger, of Marshfield.

The Girls of Tremont Hall gave a dinner party in honor of the birthday of Miss Audrey McMeeken, on Thursday evening. The center of the table was prettily decorated, being banked with pink roses. The girls of Tremont hall were Misses Clara Thompson, Nelson McDonald, Laura Leeds, Georgia Thompson, Helen Phillips, Margaret McDonald, Anne Eddy, Mann, Clement, Waggener, and Audrey McMeeken. Outside guests were Sarah Watson, Helen Lee, Ruth Knowles, Miles McKee, Clifford Fairfax, Kenneth Diven, Bob Stewart, Delmer Gildow, Dyer Botts and Irvin Custer.

The Jolly Acme Bridge club met with Mrs. W. C. Tweedale on Tuesday of this week. The afternoon was spent at bridge. The invited guests were Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. P. R. Kelly.

Mr. Bernie Longbottom and daughter Reta Longbottom of Seattle, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Worrell.

On Tuesday afternoon the Y. W. C. A. including the girls from Tremont hall gave a picnic in Hazelwood addition. It was attended by a good number of the girls and an enjoyable afternoon was passed. Later a picnic lunch was served.

The Sunday school class of Rev. M. Howard Fagan held their regular monthly meeting this week. The president of the class, Ralph McKechnie, presided over the meeting. After a short business meeting a lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent as a social hour.

Misses Naomi Duncan, Corintha Hart and Beatrice Sanders "hiked" to Corvallis last Wednesday. They were guests for dinner at the Kappa Sigma Nu house, returning in the early evening.

Mrs. Herman Lemke and daughter Inez, were in Eugene for commencement week, as guests of the Delta Gamma Sorority.

Connected with the commencement festivities of Albany College was the graduation recital of Miss Berenice Hackleman, a pupil of Miss Wilma Waggener. The program displayed a great deal of talent on the part of the performer, and Miss Brown also gave several much appreciated selections.

Miss Caroline Cannon is entertaining Miss Janet Dawson at her home in Portland during the Rose Festival.

Miss Anna Haflich entertained for Miss Dorothy Smith (Gold Hill), on Wednesday, with a theatre party. After visiting the various movies the girls returned to the home of Anna Haflich where delicate refreshments were served. The girls that composed this party were Misses Violet Nutting, Lucille Longbottom, Nathiel Donaca, Helen Livengood, Ethel Bussard, Marciel Austin and Dorothy Lee.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Seely, 1064 Forty-seventh street, Oakland, California, on June third, it being their twentieth wedding anniversary. There were present thirty-five of their most intimate friends and a number of relatives to congratulate them on this event. The evening was spent in music and cards and dancing. Miss Alice Seely presided at the punch bowl, while Miss Claribel Seely, Miss Jennie Freerksen, Mrs. O. P. Mishler and Mrs. C. R. Seely served the buffet lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Seely were fortunate enough to have some of their relatives with them, even though they are away from their old home. The following relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Seely and son, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Mishler, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Von Husen and daughter Helen, Miss Jennie Freerksen, and their two daughters Misses Claribel and Alice Seely.

Many beautiful pieces of China were received and Uncle Sam was busy for a week carrying letters of congratulations from those who could not be present.

Mrs. Rocky E. Mason presided at an elaborate luncheon given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Dudley Ainslee Warren of Portland, at the pretty Mason home on Sixth street, Saturday of last week. Blue-corn flowers graced the living room while in the dining room the color scheme was pink and white. On the several tables the lighted candles in dainty crystal candlesticks, the center pieces of pink snap dragons and sweet peas, and beautiful corsage bouquets of dainty pink and white blossoms for each guest, made the dining room very attractive. Besides bon bon baskets there were unique favors. After the delicious luncheon the guests repaired to the living room where they enjoyed a word making contest. Mrs. W. H. Davis received the prize for the largest number of words. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Mason's hospitality were Mesdames Carl Sox, Vard Littler, Charles Cusick, Chas. Stewart, E. D. Cusick, Joseph Ralston, Owen Beam, George Sanders, H. B. Cusick, Leroy Wood, Jessie Wallace, P. A. Young, J. C. Irvine, Dan Johnston, W. H. Davis, Cecil Cathey, John Withycombe and Miss Mabel Withycombe, of Corvallis, Mrs. Dudley A. Warren of Portland and the Misses Elizabeth Irvine, Flora Mason, Wilma Waggener, Edith Browne, Clement, Mann, Mulenbach, Ball.

A large number of friends enjoyed the hospitality extended by Mrs. Charles H. Cusick, when she entertained on Monday in honor of her sister, Miss Ball and Mrs. Jessie Wallace. The spacious rooms of the Cusick home were prettily trimmed with wild flowers, used in profusion, and roses. A pleasant afternoon was passed around tables of bridge and later a number of additional guests came in to enjoy tea. Mrs. Jessie Wallace and Miss Ball each received a guest prize and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins received a prize for highest score in bridge. Mrs. Dan Johnston and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins assisted Mrs. Cusick by pouring.

Mrs. J. J. Barrett entertained the Twentieth Century club at her home yesterday afternoon. Roses profusely decorated the house in artistic arrangement. Besides the club members a number of invited guests were present to enjoy the afternoon spent in fancy work and social intercourse, later delicious refreshments being served.

The Monday Bridge club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. Percy R. Kelly at her lovely home on Sixth street. Pink roses prettily decorated the dining room and the other rooms were attractive, with red roses. Delicious refreshments were served around a prettily decorated table. Mrs. Kelly's invited guests were Mesdames A. J. Hodges, B. F. Kirk, G. E. Riggs, W. A. Barrett, O. D. Austin, L. H. Fish, Chas. H. Wiedner, McAlpin, and Jess Anderson.

Tuesday of this week the Kensington sewing club met with Mrs. Jack Minton at her home on East Fourth street. The study of Samuel L. Clemens was conducted by Mrs. Orrin Anderson. Later in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Gilbert, served dainty refreshments. Members present were Mesdames Beauchamp, Clifford, Lau, Orrin Anderson, McDowell, Jones, Wilson, Byers, Jack Minton.

The Jolly Twelve club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Conn on East Fourth street, Thursday of this week. The rooms were artistically decorated in white carnations and pink roses. During the afternoon Mrs. Elmer Conn rendered a piano selection. Choice refreshments were served covered dish style.

Mrs. Hubert Birchett was a delightful hostess when she entertained for the members of the Needlecraft club on Thursday afternoon of this week at her home on the Santiam road. Much fun ensued from the trip, which was made in an auto truck. After the arrival sewing was the diversion of the afternoon and later several games were enjoyed out on the lawn. One game especially was the cause of much merriment, this was the following of a "cobweb" made of strings which crossed everywhere over the farm. Mrs. Walter Stewart and Mrs. Harry Nebergall found lovely prizes at the end of the strings they followed. Mrs. Ramsey was also the lucky winner of another beautiful prize. Later in the afternoon a delicious lunch was served. The honored guests were Mrs. Clyde Bryant, Mrs. L. O. Carter, and Mrs. I. G. Knotts.

A covered dish supper was enjoyed Friday evening at the home of Miss Lee Fortmiller, by the A. M. A. Girls. The table was well appointed, with a large center piece of pink LaFrance roses, pink bon bon favors, and place cards. After the "feed" a pleasant evening was spent.

The Albany band gave a concert Wednesday evening at the band stand on the old Central School ground.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Winnifred Worrell presented Miss Hazel Hockensmith in an organ recital. The Methodist church was artistically decorated and Miss Hockensmith's talent was enjoyed by the large crowd present. The program consisted of many of our most difficult pieces, all of which were beautifully rendered. Misses Lucille Longbottom, Nathiel Don-aca, Dorothy Lee, Marciel Austin, and Violet Nutting, were ushers.

The "Midsummer Night's Dream," which is to be played on the college campus Monday evening at seven o'clock promises to be a delightful entertainment. Only the small price of ten cents will be charged for the privilege of seeing this beautiful spectacular comedy from the heights of raised seats, which will form a temporary stadium. During the performance an orchestra will render parts of Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream." The Overture, the the Nocturne and the Wedding March will be played at appropriate intervals. The cast is as follows: Theseus, Duke of Athens, Hope Blair; Egeus, father of Hermia, Edward Blair; Lysander and Demetrius in love with Hermia, Anne Eddy and Irvin Custer; Hermia, daughter of Egeus, and in love with Lysander, Helen Hulbert; Helena, in love with Demetrius, Wilhelmina Hemrich; Hypsolia, queen of Amazons, betrothed to Theseus Philostrate, master of revels to Theseus, Helen Lee, Quince, a carpenter, Hope Blair; Sung, joiner, Kenneth Divens; Bottom, a weaver, Edward Blair; Flute, a bellows mender, Helen Lee; Snout, a tinker, Thomas Kirkwood; Starveling, a tailor, Audrey McMeeken; Oberron, king of the fairies, Henry Fish; Titania, queen, queen of the fairies, Laura Warmingtoto; Puck or Robin Goodfellow, Margaret McDonald; Peasblossom, Minerva Speer; Cobweb, Berenice Hackleman; Moth, Robert Fry; mustard seed, Daisy Crocker, and a number of little fairies attending the king and queen.

Mr. Hiram Torbet's Sunday school class of boys from the Methodist church entertained Mr. Elmer Williamson's class of girls with a picnic Friday evening, as a result of a contest won by the girls' class. Cars were used to take the picnicers to the picnic grounds. An elaborate feed was furnished by the boys' class and an enjoyable evening was spent until a late hour. The chaperones were Mrs. Mary Parker, Mrs. H. C. Clifford, Mr. Elmer Williamson and Mr. Hiram Torbet.

The S. S. S. club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. Christianson on Thursday afternoon. After a pleasant afternoon, refreshments were served. The invited guests outside of the club were Mrs. O. A. Hassman, Mrs. C. B. Price and Mrs. B. Hoggvall.

Members of the Sunshine Club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. I. Applegate on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The time was pleasantly spent with needlework and visiting. A short musical and literary program was much enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served the following members present: Mrs. Georgia Blevins and daughter, Mrs. Alden Hulbert, Mrs. Ola Newport and son, Mrs. Rollo Hulbert and children, Mrs. Cleve Riley, Mrs. Fay Applegate, Mrs. Roy Applegate and son, Mrs. Acea Lewelling, Mrs. V. C. Jones and children. Honored guests were: Mrs. Alex Hamilton of Goldendale, Wash.; Mrs. A. Blevins, of Tangent; Mrs. Chas. Buel, of Orleans; Mrs. A. A. Jones and daughter of Corvallis.

Saturday afternoon the Junior Endeavor of the Grace Presbyterian church accompanied by their superin-

The Acid Test

A suit of clothes may look well, fit well, feel good, and the price may be just what you want to pay. But after all, doesn't the average man judge clothes by the wear he gets out of them? One of the strongest selling arguments for Clothcraft Clothes is their wearing qualities. Ask somebody who has worn them, if you're in doubt. Try to find better value at $12.50 to $20.00. If you succeed, let us know, and we'll look into the make you name. But until we find better clothes at the price, we'll continue to boost Clothcraft. Come in and see the new models.

The Blain Clothing Co.

The Clothcraft Store

GO TO NEWPORT

Oregon's Old reliable outing resort

SPECIAL TRAINS

Every Sunday from Albany to Newport and return as follows:

Lv. Albany	7:30 a. m.
Ar. Newport	12:15 p. m.
Lv. Newport	6:10 p. m.
Ar. Albany	10:45 p. m.

Low Round Trip Fares

are on sale daily to Newport from all Southern Pacific stations in Oregon. Return limit Oct. 31st.

For complete information regarding hotels at Newport, rates, train service, consult our agent or write for copy of illustrated folder "Newport Beaches."

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent
Portland, Oregon

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

Cool Easy Ironing

can be yours this summer. Ironing away from an open fire—in the coolest shadiest room in the house—without walking back and forth, without delays, sootmarks or scorched clothes, or any of the discomforts of ironing as it used to be.

AN ELECTRIC IRON IS THE SECRET

Ironing holds no terrors for the woman who owns an Electric Iron. She knows it will be an easy task, comfortably performed, quickly completed. Best of all, she knows it is an actual economy to use the Electric Iron. Insure cool ironings this summer—secure your Electric Iron today.

See your electrical dealer.

Oregon Power Co.

"Reliable Service"

Telephones 15 306 West Second St.

Ford Seat Covers $8.00
Ford Lap Covers $3.75
Ford Oil Gauges $1.50

White Star Oil for Fords
Veedol Oils and Greases

Ralston Electric Supply Co.
310 West Second St.

Get Our Service

At this place you not only get the best milk, cream, butter and eggs, but you get service.

MILK and CREAM that is thoroughly pasteurized.

BUTTER that is delicious and fresh from our factory.

EGGS that are fresh from the country.

BREAD. The best to be had. Also COOKIES, CAKES, ETC.

ALL GOODS GUARANTEED. A MONEY-BACK STORE. TWO DELIVERIES DAILY.

BOTH PHONES 17

Albany Pasteurized Milk
& Cheese Co.

F. C. PATE, Mgr.
FIFTH and JACKSON STS.

The Young Married Man

Every time you waste a dollar you are doing something more than spending a dollar. You are spending your future home. Every time you place a dollar in your Bank Account here you bring your own home that much nearer to you. Just as that home will be built brick by brick or board by board, just so must you build your Bank Account dollar by dollar.

ALBANY STATE BANK

4 PER CENT PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS—4 PER CENT