loaded with provisions and blankets, for sleeping, took a hike to the woods where some of the boys were camping. All day the woods resounded with merriment. The boys took a swim in the afternoon, cooked over the camp fire, and rolled up in their blankets in true camper fashion.

The Baptist Rural Ladies held a ten cent tea in the basement of the church on Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of California poppies, broom, and sword fern. There was a short program, recitation each by the little Misses Green and Ralston and Master Ralston, a reading by Mrs. Williams, a solo by Velma Laurensen; talks by Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Way, and a reading by Mrs. Alan H. Banks. Mrs. U. G. Smith, in behalf of the Rural Ladies, thanked the Albany ladies for their attendance and interest. After an hour spent in fancy work the guests were invited to the tables where they were served with choice refreshments. Eighty ladies enjoyed the afternoon together and before departing most of them signified their desire to go to Benton county in two weeks to enjoy a similar ten cent tea at the home of Mrs. T. J. Risley.

Mrs. C. B. Essex, who has been entertained in Brownsville and Lebanon, has returned to Albany after about a week's absence.

Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller entertained at a luncheon yesterday given in honor of Miss Wilma Waggener. The color scheme of pink was carried throughout. Pink roses in profusion graced the table. Mrs. Fortmiller's guests were Miss Waggener, Miss

Ignorance et Preparedness

Ignorance of civic laws do not exempt the offender from public disgrace and punishment.

BUT ignorance or disregard of HEALTH LAWS does.

It will however not always be so, for people are fast recognizing the elementary principles of right and wrong in HEALTH MATTERS; and will soon compel their professional and judicial and legislative and executive "servants" to toe the mark.

People fill up hospitals and sanitariums BECAUSE they are not posted on themselves as they are on their business, finances, politics, etc.

Have Dr. Kenagy renovate your system and PREPARE YOU for future HEALTH and HAPPINESS.

His way is the NATURE WAY.
