The Young Married Man

Every time you waste a dollar you are doing something more than spending a dollar. You are spending your future home. Every time you place a dollar in your Bank Account here you bring your own home that much nearer to you. Just as that home will be built brick by brick or board by board, just so must you build your Bank Account dollar by dollar.

Finest at Newport—
E. E. Clem has returned from Newport, where he has been for several months, building a residence for Mrs. Rich, having completed the work. It is declared to be the finest home at Newport. Mr. Clem has also been at Woodburn, called there by the dangerous illness of his father, Nathan Clem, a former resident of Linn county.

Married—
On Saturday night, at 10 o'clock, at the parsonage, by Rev. H. M. Fagan, Mr. W. T. Christy and Miss Florence W. Kirk were united in marriage. They are two well-known young people of the city, with many friends whose best wishes they will have.

Accepts Pastorate—
Rev. D. L. Morgan, of Paiouse, Wash., has formally accepted the pastorate of the Christian church of this city, and will begin work here the first Sunday in September, when Rev. Fagan will retire to take up evangelistic work. Rev. Morgan is highly recommended as a preacher and pastor.

Left for Mitchell—
I. R. Schultz and son Buster, went to Portland yesterday morning. There Buster joined his aunt, Miss Mabel Schultz, and Miss Beulah Hinckley, and this morning they left for Mitchell, where Miss Schultz and Buster will spend the summer on the Schultz farm and Miss Hinckley about two weeks. I. R. Schultz returned home today.

O. A. C. Graduates—
Theo. Weller, of Portland, was in the city yesterday on his way to Brownsville, where he formerly resided. He is one of the graduates of the O. A. C. this year, and was also catcher for the college team, making a splendid record in his position. Phillips, an old time O. A. C. catcher, was also in the city yesterday, going to Portland.

Mrs. Fisher Ill—
Consul General Fred Fisher returned from Salem Saturday evening. Mrs. Fisher, upon whom an operation was performed recently, is seriously ill.

Cultured Breakbeams—
The night policeman at the depot reports several U. O. students last week traveling through the city northward, beating their way on the passenger trains, some by the breakbeam and some on top. On one occasion five of them were ditched here. They wear overalls and are easily distinguished from the common hobo. Probably ending the season about strapping they take this method of getting home at a small expense. Of course the body of students go in the regular way.

The Round Up—
The Philomath round up will be June 22-23-24, when a big crowd will no doubt be there to see them let'er loose and let'em ramble.

Unreachable Neighbors

TWO neighbors on the same street who are not connected with the same telephone system are practically far apart.

The telephone users in the community who can be reached by one are inaccessible to the other.

To reach them all means the inconvenience and added expense of two telephones.

A community gets the best service from one good telephone system which is linked up by toll and long distance lines with the rest of the country.
