DEM. CONVENTION BEGINS

ism—Americanism.

"We have witnessed the drab spectacle of two groups of men, trading principles like competitors in a fish market, in the hope that some compromise would win public support. They have not come together—they have fallen out over the 'swag.' For the sake of victory, many of these men, essentially opposite in principle, have been willing to become friends with false masks. The result is inevitable—divided they fall. We are proud in the thought that 'united we stand.' We welcome the pent-up Americanism of the real progressive individually to our ranks, offering them a haven, in principle. Their leader has abandoned them with crass cruelty.

"This is a crucial hour in the history of the world. It is an hour when every man should take stock of himself and his principles. This is an hour when everyone should see whether in his inner consciousness, he squares with the ideals of 1776 and the later periods of dramatic episodes, when this country resolutely maintained peace with honor.

"The Democratic party, in the face of scandalous and vicious attacks, has maintained this great American ideal. While for peace, it has steadily and surely worked for sound and powerful preparedness. It has maintained a solemn, calm dignity in the face of circumstances which might have drawn it into the vortex of a world destruction. Though vilified by self-seekers, it has maintained friendly relations throughout the world; it has been true to the spirit of America; it has been true to the great principles of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Lincoln; it has allowed no self-

Organizer Here—

A. M. Gregg, state organizer of the Oregon Retail Merchants' Association has been in the city in the interest of the proposed Linn county Merchants' Association. He reports 3500 members now, making a splendid organization for protection against deadbeatism, and for mercantile progress.

License To Wed—

Francis John, 32, a miner, of Nauvau, Canada, and Ethel Kwetzky, 24, a saleslady, of Albany, were granted a marriage license today. The bride came here from Illinois to meet her fiancé. They were married by Judge L. L. Swan.

Visited His Son—

Reuben Thom, of Lebanon, stopped off this morning for a visit with his son Ralph. He was on his way to Eugene to attend the G. A. R. encampment.

fish interest to blind it to the fundamentals of its faith and the country has found that its confidence has been well bestowed. The Democratic party has proved itself a party of principles, a party of constructive ability, a party of performance. It has proven that ideals can be realized. United we stand for America.

"Ladies and gentlemen of this great convention, the elephant is dead, the Moose is dead. Long live the American eagle!"

The Wilson demonstration lasted 17 minutes. Glynn resumed his talk when he eloquently pictured the Democratic peace achievements, there was another demonstration burst. He was forced to repeat a paragraph thrice. Mrs. Marion Monroe, of Washington, led the yelling. More demonstration was started when Bryan, his face flushed, rose and waved a flag. After Glynn finished, the crowd cheered, yelled and sang for five minutes. The president's proclamation for flag day was read. The convention then adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow.

Hazel Dawn at Globe Tonight.

"My Lady Incog," which presents Hazel Dawn for the first time in her screen career as a girl detective, is a rare combination of laughs and thrills. "My Lady Incog," privately known as Nell Carroll, is a sympathetic and compelling character, especially appealing because of her self-reliance and courage in facing extreme perils unflinchingly. The story contains a powerful union of intense dramatic situations and amusing episodes. It will open at the Globe tonight.

Misses Bernice Hall and Hazel Dawn, who left this morning for Brownsville to attend the picnic and visit friends.

Mrs. E. M. Betser left on the morning train for Thomas. Mrs. E. R. Croston, of The Needles, Calif., went to Gates this morning to visit with her mother, who is ill.

Mrs. F. Tyler went to Lebanon this morning.
