SAMPLE STRAW VOTE.

At the University of Maine, which is the largest college in that State, a straw vote of the faculty and students was taken recently which is considered significant. There were 689 votes polled. Of these, 298, or practically three-sevenths of the entire vote, were for President Wilson. Colonel Roosevelt received 189, Justice Hughes received 101, and the rest was scattered among the various candidates.

No effort was made on the part of anybody interested in Democratic politics to influence this vote. It is said, in fact, that none of the Democratic leaders knew that it was to be taken. It was spontaneous on the part of Mr. Wilson's friends at the State University.

"I doubt if there ever was a time before in the history of this country when three-sevenths of the students and faculty of a New England college have expressed their preference for a Democratic candidate for president," said a friend in a letter to the Democratic national committee.

RESTORES U. S. FLAG TO SEAS.

During fifty years of Democratic freedom of the seas and of commerce following Thomas Jefferson, 80 per cent of American commerce on the high seas was carried in American ships. During fifty years of Republican high tariffs and hide-bound sea traffic, our merchant marine dwindled until only 8 per cent of American commerce was carried in American bottoms. Under the Democratic ship registry act of 1914, both the number of merchantmen carrying the American flag and the percentage of commerce carried in American bottoms have more than doubled. Under Democratic tariff and shipping laws, the United States in 1916 has become both the leading commercial nation and the leading ship building country of the earth.

OPINIONLESS CANDIDATE.

(From the New York Times)
The Burlington Free Press, a, or the, "leading Republican organ" of Vermont, has a basaltic courage of conviction.
"If you are a Republican, are you really ready to say just what your stand on the various issues of the day is to be?"

This must be the genuine "rock-ribbed" Republicanism of 1916. It amounts to this: "We don't know what we believe in. Therefore give us a candidate whose beliefs we do not know." Sublime courage! By such boldness are elections won!

FREE FROM BIG INTERESTS.

There are undoubtedly some ten million voters in this country, Republicans, Progressives, Independents, and Democrats, who believe heart and soul in the constructive reforms agitated during the past decade and carried, to a large extent, into effect by President Wilson through the agency of the Democratic party. This was possible because the Democratic party was the only political agency not dominated by the selfish interests opposed to these reforms. And under Woodrow Wilson the Democratic party has been kept free of special-interest control.

WILSON'S CRIME.

Shelled to the kernel, the only real complaint against Wilson is that he has not plunged the country into the European war. But, in adapting this to political uses, the Republicans are careful to avoid any intimation as to what side we should now be fighting upon. Of course, the idea is to get votes from the sympathizers with both sides in that carnival of blood and destruction.

GREAT TALKER.

(From the Philadelphia Record)
When Congressman Gardner says that "the United States has talked so much and done so little" he must be making a sly dig at his old friend, the Colonel. It is a safe guess that Mr. Roosevelt talks at least ten times as much as any other man in the country. Where the president of the United States, his official representative, says one word the Rough Rider pours forth at least twenty in speeches, interviews, magazine articles, books and other form of communication open to him. Never was there such a human geyser of verbosity.

Woodrow Wilson has accomplished more in the last three years in the line of important legislation and diplomatic victories than the Colonel could do in thirty. And still the latter loves to pose as a man of action, not of words!

MISFITS

President Wilson used the word adulterated in reference to Americanism. Not to be outdone Judge Hughes uses the word undiluted. They mean practically the same thing.

Adulterated is generally used for harder substances, diluted for liquids.

Hyphenated Americanism is certainly a hard subject to tackle properly.

President Wilson has a wonderful aptitude for using the right word in the right place without waiting for precedent.

A First street man took the following from a Portland class paper and handed it to Misfits:

Mary had a ruffie,
I discovered it by chance,
A dainty decoration
On the bottom of her—skirt.

"The world is wide,
In time and tide,
And God is guide—
So do not hurry.

That man is blest,
Who does his best,
And leaves the rest,
So do not worry."

"That first verse hits you," said some one to Misfits.
And the second verse touches you up, responded Misfits.

Most of us should be meek in taking the lessons of the day, and applying them.

If Albany people will send their children to Albany college, a thorough institution so far as its equipment permits, instead of away to the big universities for the name of it, it will make a decided difference in the success of the institution.

Except in cases where a specialty is wanted, such as engineering, forestry and a few things like that, it fills the bill as well as the big colleges, and it takes more than a college name to bring success to a young man afterwards.

As a rule the successful men are those who have graduated from smaller colleges, getting character with their knowledge.

Fifty years of splendid service, against awful financial odds, entitles Albany college to keep its name for another fifty years.
