For Supreme Judge.

(By United Press)

St. Louis, June 14.—Senator Walsh, of Montana, appeared as a strong possibility as supreme court justice by the vacancy created in Hughes' resignation. Many colleges are urging his appointment. The chief objection is his residence in a far western state it is reported.

The Orphet Defense.

(By United Press)

Waukegan, June 14.—The contention in Will Orphet's defense that poison was found beneath the fingernails of Marian Lambert, indicating that she took cyanide herself, is refuted. Coroner Taylor testified that the flaky powder was in her hair, and revivified of her right palm, and not under her fingernails. He declared the autopsy showed that Marian was not in the condition she feared.

McCormick to Be Manager.

(By United Press)

Washington, June 16.—The president decided to name Vance McCormick of Pennsylvania to manage his campaign, it is reliably reported.

Demands Refused.

(By United Press)

New York, June 15.—All demands of the railroad trainmen upon the railroads have been declined. Whether a nation wide railroad strike will follow depends upon the verdict of the trainmen.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF SISTERS' ACADEMY

Fine Program Was Presented and Seven Girls Were Graduated.

The commencement exercises were held at St. Mary's Academy on June 13th, and the program presented was full of interesting features.

Father Lane conferred eight diplomas on the graduates from the high school, commercial and grammar departments.

The following are the names of those who were recipients of diplomas: Miss Bertha Mallon, Miss Vada Butzlaff, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Elizabeth Eagles, Mary Misner, Julia Taucher and Mary Tanzer.

Prizes were awarded by Father Lane for the highest average in Christian doctrine and best attendance at Sunday school. Misses Mary Misner, Mary Tanzer, Arleen Misner and Nellie Madden were honored to receive these prizes and are most grateful to the donor.

Father Lane addressed the graduates in a most touching manner, advising them to preserve always a fond and grateful remembrance of their Alma Mater and faithfully to practice all the lessons they had learned in this sacred spot. The audience seemed to treasure up every word of the eloquent speech on "Christian Education" with which Rev. Arthur Lane concluded the program.

Everybody Invited to Talk.

At the fiftieth anniversary meeting of the college and Presbyterian church tonight, to which all are invited, old timers generally will be welcome to tell all they know about the early days of the college and church, and many will do so besides Prof. Lee and Mr. Redfield. Go.

An Albany Walnut Table.

In the show window at the Fort-miller Furniture store is a piece of work that makes one stop and take notice. It consists of an extension table, made of black walnut, beautifully finished. The interesting part is the fact that the wood is from a tree on this property of R. L. Burkhardt, and the table is for Mr. Burkhardt.

Here from Heppener.

Mrs. Ed. Huston and daughter Elizabeth, of Heppener, are in the city on a visit to the guests of Mrs. Huston's sister, Mrs. W. H. Davis, and mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart.

Bids Wanted.

Bids will be received by Ray J. Fox, clerk of school district No. 57, Lyons, Linn County, Oregon, for the erection and completion of a new school building to be built in accordance with plans and specifications as prepared by Arnold C. Jenkins, architect, Albany, until 11 o'clock a. m. June 24, 1916. The school board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the school board, MARTHA HIATT, Chairman. RAY J. FOX, Clerk.

Plans may be had by applying to the clerk or the architect. j13-23

CONTRASTS IN MEXICO.

A Land Where Extremes Meet Even in Its Weather Conditions.

Mexico is the land of contrasts, of great riches and extreme poverty, a few of its people massing millions, while myriads are starving; a place where the most modern machinery may be found in operation at the very side of the most primitive method of accomplishing the same end, where beautiful architecture is in contrast with adobe huts and where shining automobiles of the latest design whirl past sleepy ox teams hauling carts with solid wooden slabs for wheels identical with the design which was used at the time of the Spanish conquest.

Passing down a prominent street in almost any of the large Mexican cities there may be seen fashionably dressed gentlemen who look very much as though they were just as much at home on Piccadilly, the Champs Elysees or Fifth avenue. Following or preceding them, however, will be a sandaled peon clad in linen trousers and a blouse, with his 'serape' thrown over his shoulder and his head protected by a wide brimmed sombrero and his entire worldly possessions upon his back.

In the next block one may meet an Indian woman, barefoot and with uncovered head, a child slung to the "rebosa" over her shoulder. About her there is a suggestion of garlic, onions and pulque, while passing along the same street, comfortably ensconced in her victoria, dressed in a latest Parisian creation, rolls millady, also of the same nation.

A gorgeously appointed funeral car bearing the remains of one whose family can afford this expense may arrive at the burial place simultaneously with three or four peons, packing on their shoulders the body of a comrade in a plainly painted coffin, the use of which is rented and which will be returned after the body is given interment.

One story and possibly single room adobe houses plastered in colors add large structures of elaborate architecture, and the poor peon passing along to his humble abode may catch a glimpse through a spacious doorway of a beautiful patio adorned with flowers and fountains. Later when he sits down to his tortillas and frijoles his next door neighbor is probably being served with the richest viands and the rarest wines.

Back in the country districts the whirr of a sewing machine may be heard coming from a cane or mud hut, while the head of the house may be seen scratching the ground with a crude plow of essentially the same design as those used in Mesopotamia in the time of Nebuchadnezzar or thrashing his grain by driving animals over it. The climate, too, has its extremes, and in the highlands the nights are cold, while the sunny side of the street at noon is too warm for comfort. The lowlands have days of intense torrid heat, preceding others when a strong "norther" chills to the bone. Months of drought, during which little if any rain falls, are succeeded by intervals when rain may be expected for a part of every day. Of such contrasts in Mexico, once called the "treasure house of the world."—Geographic Society Bulletin.

SCHOOL BOARD OPENS MADISON IMPROVEMENT BIDS

N. E. Hooper Has Lowest Bid For General Work, With Uncertainty on Heating.

The school board met last night and opened bids for the improvement of the Madison school building, more than was estimated, on account of the great increase in price of materials. Following were the bids:

MME. KALICH, FOX STAR, ACTS IN 7 LANGUAGES

The completeness and severity of the training given foreign-born stars—or those who ultimately become stars—is well exemplified in the case of Bertha Kalich, the famous tragedienne who has just acted for William Fox in what he announces is one of the greatest pictures he has ever produced, the photodrama "Slander," which will be seen at the Rolfe Friday and Saturday.

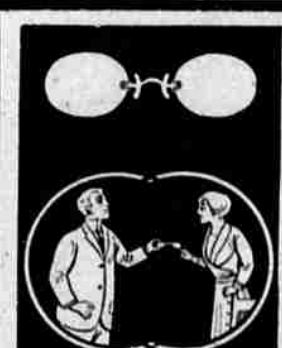

Mme. Kalich has appeared in the spoken drama in seven languages, and one additional dialect which in itself constitutes an eighth tongue. This wonderful Galician woman, born in Lemberg, appeared when a mere slip of a girl in Bucharest and there, in the Rumanian tongue, worked her way to the position of star.

She has appeared as a star in plays in the Hungarian tongue; in Polish, Russian, Italian, German, English and in the Yiddish theatre on the New York East Side, where she made her first American appearances.

Special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 17, A. F. & A. M. tomorrow, Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Work in M. M. degree. Visiting brethren welcome. Refreshments. By order of W. M. EDWARD WASHBURN, Secretary.

ALBANY ASTONISHED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Albany people are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL removes such surprising foul matter it relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble.
