MISS VELMA DAVIS.

A recent nomination that has met with great favor is that of Miss Velma Davis, of this city, for county recorder. The office is one peculiarly suitable for a woman, and especially for a woman, and especially for a woman, and especially for a woman...

THE LINN COUNTY WAY.

Portland Journal: The people of Dixie school district up in Linn county had a good roads picnic last Friday. Fifty men were there with their wives and children.

The school teacher, Miss Edna Leech, prepared the feast, or at any rate it was prepared under her competent direction. Such pies, such fried chicken were never eaten before in Dixie district.

At Albany the county board maintains a gravel pit from which it sends gravel to all parts of the county. Under the policy of the board, the gravel is sent free to road districts that will use volunteer labor in putting it on the roads.

HURTING HUGHES' CHANCES

Eugene Guard: The German-American endorsement of the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes for president, coming before the Republican nominee had a chance to make his position on certain great issues clear is unfortunate.

The Republican leaders realize that the action of the German-American association threatens to raise a serious issue, placing their candidate at a disadvantage.

"My attitude is one of undiluted Americanism, and anybody that supports me is supporting an out-and-out American, and an out-and-out American policy, absolutely nothing else."

Bids Wanted. Bids will be received by Ray J. Fox, clerk of school district No. 57, Lyons, Linn County, Oregon, for the erection and completion of a new school building...

By order of the school board, MARTHA HIATT, Chairman.

Plans may be had by applying to the clerk or the architect.

MISFITS

A big thing in education is to be right and know it.

There is a story of a peculiar test made by a certain professor, given in a commencement address here. Students were doing a problem on the board. After doing a certain amount of the work the professor said "stop."

"Be sure you are right and keep a going."

The swimming hole is getting busy and has been for some time.

It would be a difficult thing to tell when swimming begins. Always somebody went in a little before all the others.

In a funny column was this: "George Washington was never licked until they put his picture on a postage stamp," and he wasn't then, for no one has yet been found so foolish as to lick the face side.

Cooperation with the newspapers is the way to secure success, said a speaker. Sure, Mike.

Some business men never would get their names in the papers if they didn't get elected to some kind of an office.

"Now what will Willie Hearst do?" Sure, he'll jump and land on the feminist side.

And the chances will be fernist whatever side he lands on.

An exchange remarks that it is interesting to see Bryan in the press box, where he must listen and can't talk. Don't be so sure. He'll talk too, betcha a jitney and say something worth hearing.

Keep as far away from danger as possible, likewist war.

Lacking one misfit for the day the Congressional Record was opened in desperation and the following speech of Congressman Hawley, of this district run upon. He said: "Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Hughes says that any one supporting him is supporting an out and out American. In view of the fact that a man can't run for president under the constitution unless he is an out and out American this statement is certainly a brilliant one that will ring down thru the ages.
