"America Before the World"

FREDERICK VINING FISHER, renowned lecturer and traveler, who was chief of staff of the lecture bureau of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, is scheduled to appear at Chautauqua to deliver his wonderful illustrated lecture, "America Before the World." This lecture, which vivifies America, every important aspect of her past, present and future, is a lecture of indescribable power, showing our great republic as the melting pot of racial differences—the educational and spiritual thought molder of the nations.

To appear at Albany Chautauqua or early last Monday morning.

L. C. Miller has started to build his new bungalow.
Henry Freerksen, of Shedd, boarded the Wednesday morning electric for Albany.
Those who attended the Rose show Fayetteville, June 19—J. E. Davis, of Shedd, editor of the Shedd Monitor, was a Fayetteville business visitor.
