

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders
Society Editor
Bell 469-R

The season is here that furnishes the most artistic and charming way of entertaining, when flowers are blooming thickly in the gardens and the weather is warm enough to permit of outdoor entertainment.

Probably the most delightful of the weeks events was the dinner dance with which Mr. and Mrs. Rocky E. Mason entertained on Friday evening. A number of guests from Salem, who had attended the musical given by the Youngs Friday morning, were the inspiration for this elaborate affair, which was given in the beautiful garden at the Mason home. The pretty flowers of all kinds, with old fashioned flowers predominating, were in full bloom. Japanese parasols were artistically arranged in this brilliant tea garden with a large one covering one of the dainty tables. Blue and yellow wild flowers decked the tables, adding to the charm and color of the flowers growing in the garden. Strains of music wafted down from an orchestra placed on the porch, and with the sweet scent of honeysuckle, the only thing lacking to make this fairyland were the real fairies themselves.

Those who were honored on this occasion by receiving invitations were Messrs. and Mesdames Asabel Bush (Salem), Plympton (Salem), Fred Thielson (Salem), John Roberts (Salem), T. A. Lively (Salem), W. H. Burkhardt and Mrs. Langdon and Grace Langdon (Portland), Mrs. C. A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ralston, Mr. L. Shunterman, Mr. Walter Bilyeu, Mrs. Jessie Wallace, Mrs. Eva Simpson, Miss Flora Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wood, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cusick, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Beam, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mason, presiding.

Later, dancing was enjoyed on the porch for several hours. Many Japanese lanterns were hung, lighting and decorating the porch. The additional guests for dancing were Misses Laura Taylor, Anne Dawson, Isabelle Young, Gertrude Taylor and Marion Anderson, Mr. Harold Wieder, and Mr. Rollo Ralston.

One of the most important events of the week was a musical given by Mrs. P. A. Young and Miss Isabelle Young, at their pretty home on Sixth street. Friday morning, at ten o'clock was the time selected for the musicale. A large number of guests were honored on this occasion and enjoyed the program rendered by Miss Isabelle Young as vocalist with Mrs. William Henry Burkhardt, Jr., at the piano. The following numbers composed the program:

- I. One Fine Day.....Puccini
From "Madame Butterfly"
- II. The Sun Dial Cycle.....Branscombe
The Morning Wind
Noon
In Arcady
The Open Road
- III. I Know of Two Bright Eyes
Tales They Tell.....Clutsum
From "Songs from the Turkish Hills"
When Summer Keeps the Vows of
Spring.....Terhune
The Lark Now Leaves His Wat'ry
Nest.....Old English
Down in the Forest.....Ronald
- IV. Sayonara, a Japanese Romance
Cadman

The last selection was made very interesting and effective by the beautiful Japanese costume worn by Miss Young, and during the last part she scattered paper cherry blossoms around making a unique and attractive scene.

Every selection was well rendered and the beautiful voice of Miss Young is well known in Albany.

A pleasant surprise and farewell party was given to Mr. and Mrs. August Schroeder Thursday afternoon, when their many friends came in on them at their home at Fourth and Chicago streets.

They will leave for Ravens, Nebraska next Monday.

The afternoon was passed quickly in pleasant conversation, and later a choice lunch was served, provided by the guests. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Laftch, Mr. and Mrs. Hasenbank, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerkson, Mr. and Mrs. Reihner, Mr. and Mrs. Padke, Mr. and Mrs. Aberhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Femmerling, Mr. and Mrs. Krueger, Mrs. Ruetner, Mrs. Beyerlein, Mrs. MacKaben, Mrs. Chas. Kroschel, Mrs. Warnke, Mrs. Gerdes, and the Mesdames Rena Reihner, Mamma and Frances Freerkson, Meta Emma and Georgia Gerdes, Emma, Minnie and Eleanor Schroeder, Martha Beyerlein, Adela Hasenbank, Marie Warnke, Edwin Hasenbank, and Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. W. G. Hodgkins, of Sunrise, on Monday afternoon by the S. S. S. club where they met to surprise and celebrate the birthdays of three of their members. Mrs. W. G. Hodgkins, Mrs. Church and Mrs. D. S. Stevens, vocal and instrumental music, interspersed with conversation, was enjoyed by all and at the close of the afternoon a very bountiful lunch was served after which the guests departed for their homes after wishing the three many more happy-birthdays. Three immense bouquets of roses were present. Complimented guests on this occasion were Mrs. Thompson of Newport, Mrs. T. J. Davis of Yoncalla and Miss Mary Gray of Newport. There were 24 present.

The S. S. S. club met with Mrs. D. S. Stevens Thursday afternoon. Fancy work and pleasant conversation followed by a very choice lunch served by the hostess, brought a very pleasant afternoon to a close. Complimented guests were Mrs. J. A. Jewell, Mrs. W. E. Baker and Miss Pearl Jewell.

Mrs. Wren Crews gave a most delightful entertainment at her home near Shedd last Monday, the occasion being the fourth anniversary of her wedding. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink carnations, arranged in artistic effect. A delicious luncheon was served. The invited guests were: Mrs. Crawford, Albany; Mrs. Belvin Forbes, Newport; Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. Clarence Brown, Miss Meda Brown, Mrs. Nevin McCormick, Mrs. James McConnell, Mrs. John Williamson, Miss Willet Barton, Mrs. J. M. Dickson, Mrs. C. C. Dickson, Mrs. J. Cavender, Mrs. E. G. Davis, and Mrs. Crewes, all of Shedd.

The Sunday school class of Gladys Gilbert of the Methodist church was entertained Wednesday evening at a picnic. The class met and walked to the home of Francis Willard where they held a lawn picnic. Games were played and refreshments were served to the guests present.

Wednesday evening the Amomas and Agogas (the young ladies and young men's classes of the Baptist Sunday School) were charmingly entertained at the home of Miss Naomi Duncan. After a short business session of both classes, the evening was spent in games. At a late hour a dainty collation was served and after other games and jollity, the guests departed, having spent a delightful evening together.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin delightfully entertained the Lafalot club on Thursday evening. The rooms were profusely decorated with roses and canterbury bells. "500" was played during the evening and at a late hour refreshments were enjoyed by the guests present. Assisting Mrs. Austin with serving were Miss Annette Weatherford and Miss Marciel Austin. The complimented guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brandeberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Tweedale, and Mrs. Samuel Luse, of Luseland, Canada.

One of the most unique and enjoyable affairs of the week was the Matinee Dance given by the A. M. A. girls on Tuesday at the home of Miss Eula Hand. At two o'clock the guests gathered and the hand painted programs were soon filled out by the "boys" of the crowd. Music was served to the dancers thruout the afternoon. Those present on this occasion were the Mesdames Josephine Turner (Paris, Illinois), Annette Weatherford (Harrisburg), Lee Fortmiller, Ruth Livengood, Carolyn Wright, Naomi Duncan, Inez Lemke, and Messrs. Jim Dawson, Tom Hockensmith, Bob Cannon, Jack Hart, Ted Bruce, Bill Sanders and Eula Hand.

Mrs. H. A. Leininger entertained for the Priscillas this week on Wednesday afternoon. This will be the last meeting of the summer season. A pleasant afternoon was passed, at the close of which a dainty collation was served by Miss Louise Wieder and Eleanor Bruce assisting the hostess. Mrs. Leininger's guests were Mesdames Robert Green, H. H. Hewitt, Bilyeu, John French and A. C. Schmitt.

The local chapter of P. E. O. met Monday evening with the president, Mrs. H. S. Logan, with nearly every member in attendance. After the regular business meeting, initiation was held. Mrs. Matilda Flood, Mrs. Loretta Davis and Mrs. Anna Fortmiller becoming the new members. Mrs. Mary Beam was initiated into the club several weeks ago. An interesting report was given by Mrs. A. S. Hart, recording secretary, on the annual convention which was held in Portland, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. W. O. Skeen was hostess to the New Idea club. Each member responded to the roll call by giving their favorite recipe for canning. Fancy work and conversation occupied the remainder of the afternoon, until Mrs. Skeen, assisted by Mrs. Charles Peebler, served a delicious lunch to those present, who were Mesdames J. Beal, Jos. Bevins, Darwin Carnegie, John Carnegie, Harvey Dunn, Wm. Faley, C. M. Kendall, E. J. Knapp, Dick Landon, S. A. Laselle, Byron Peebler, Elmer Peebler, R. B. Tower, and Mrs. W. O. Skeen, Mrs. Chas. Peebler and Miss Muriel Beal were complimented guests.

The covered dish club met with Mrs. Glen Jenkins on Saturday of last week. All of the members of the club were present and a few invited guests enjoyed the evening.

In honor of the birthday of Mr. H. A. Nelson, Mrs. Nelson entertained a number of his gentlemen friends at dinner Saturday evening of last week. Those who enjoyed the elaborate dinner at the Nelson home were: Messrs. W. A. Barrett, J. M. Hawkins, Ed. Bailey, C. E. Sox, P. A. Young, F. P. Nutting, Dr. W. H. Davis, D. O. Woodworth, Dr. B. R. Wallace, Dr. H. A. Leininger and Mr. H. A. Nelson.

On Tuesday, Miss Grace Edith Brown entertained a few friends at an informal tea given at the home of Miss Flora Mason. Miss Brown has now left for her home in Wisconsin.

The Needlecraft club was most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Clinton Straney Thursday afternoon. Sweet peas and ferns decorated the rooms in artistic effect. During the afternoon games and sewing were indulged in and Mrs. Harry Nebergall carried off first prize. A dainty collation was served by the hostess, Mrs. Earl Canfield was an invited guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. Davis and her two grandchildren, Catherine and Floyd Dorris of Centralia, Washington, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles Pfeiffer. They will spend the summer in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Bennett of Portland, while on their bridal trip, spent a few days in Albany at the home of A. D. Hall. Their trip includes traveling thro Southern California.

The Jolly Twelve Club met this week at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hogan. A pleasant afternoon was passed, completed with dainty refreshments. The invited guests were Mesdames A. Austin, Lamberty, Jenkins, Hogan, and Misses Livingston and Louis Vunk.

Mrs. P. A. Young was a delightful hostess for a breakfast given after the musical on Friday morning. A number of guests after enjoying the musicale enjoyed the hospitality extended at this time by Mrs. Young.

Mrs. W. C. Tweedale was hostess Monday afternoon for a Bridge Tea, given at her home on Fourth street. During the afternoon bridge was played around six tables. Later in the afternoon several additional guests came in to enjoy the lunch which was served by Mrs. A. W. Bowersox, Mrs. J. Meyer and Miss Annette Weatherford, assisting Mrs. Tweedale.

The Jolly Twelve Club met this week at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hogan. A pleasant afternoon was passed, completed with dainty refreshments.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Grace Presbyterian Church was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. I. G. Knotts and Mrs. Ralph Knotts at the home of the former. After a business session the ladies took up their sewing. During the afternoon much merriment was caused by a contest participated in. Mrs. Ray Worley (Myrtle Point) pleased the company by singing three beautiful selections. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

In honor of Miss Josephine Turner of Paris, Illinois, the A. M. A. girls gave a dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Carolyn Wright. Other honored guests were Annette Weatherford, of Harrisburg, Carolyn Cannon, of Portland, and Ruth Fisher, of Salem. Upon entering the dining-room each guest found her place marked with a hand-painted place-card. A large centerpiece of pink roses and pink lighted candles were artistic decorations. Seated around the table were Misses Corintha Hart, Hazel Hockensmith, Lee Fortmiller, Eula Hand, Inez Lemke, Ruth Livengood, Janet Dawson, Ruth Fisher, Carolyn Cannon, Annette Weatherford, Josephine Turner, Beatrice Sanders, and Carolyn Wright. After dinner the girls visited the movies and later invaded the hospitable home of Miss Flora Mason and spent an enjoyable hour in dancing.

Miss Edna Arnett, a popular girl

When A Man's In Love

He's pretty fussy about his clothes.
Lovers are our best customers.

But—how about you old married men?

Sort of forgotten lately to spruce up a bit and please the wife—reminding her of the courting days?

How about you business and professional men?

Forgetting that looking the part is half way to living the part.

How about all you fellows who "look the other way" when you pass a mirror?

Spend a few minutes and a few dollars with us and we'll make you glad to look your wife, your business associates, and the mirror in the face!

The Blain Clothing Co.

The Clothcraft Store

On the Wings of the Morning

Prosperity is coming to this country on the wings of the morning. You will want to take advantage of it. Prosperity comes to the man, woman, or child who has money in the Bank. It passes by the house of the spendthrift—the shiftless—the ne'er-do-well. Start your account here. Be ready for Prosperity and Prosperity will be ready for you.

The man who has an account here has a grubstake in Prosperity.

ALBANY STATE BANK

4 PER CENT PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS—4 PER CENT

GO TO NEWPORT

Oregon's Old reliable outing resort

SPECIAL TRAINS

Every Sunday from Albany to Newport and return as follows:

Lv. Albany	7:30 a. m.
Ar. Newport	12:15 p. m.
Lv. Newport	6:10 p. m.
Ar. Albany	10:45 p. m.

Low Round Trip Fares

are on sale daily to Newport from all Southern Pacific stations in Oregon. Return limit Oct. 31st.

For complete information regarding hotels at Newport, rates, train service, consult our agent or write for copy of illustrated folder "Newport Beaches."

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent
Portland, Oregon

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

of Tangent became the bride of William S. Hoefer Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents in Tangent. Miss Arnett has a large number of friends in that town and Mr. Hoefer is a prominent farmer of Linn county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ballack and daughters Mae and Mourine, motored to Portland this week.

Wednesday afternoon a hundred Baptist ladies, young people, and guests, under the auspices of the Baptist Ladies' Aid, traveled in a hayrack and automobiles to North Albany to the home of Mrs. T. J. Risley where she and seven other Baptist ladies of the community entertained at a

Ten Cent Tea. An afternoon of unequalled pleasure was spent in their beautiful new home on the lawn, and the hills nearby. The following program was listened to with great pleasure: Recitation, Gertrude Stratton; song, three little girls; recitation, May Smith; violin solo, Lena Toby; recitation, Beatrice Morse; reading, (Continued on Page 4)