FOX FILMS FAILED FOR ROLFE LAST NIGHT

Will Be Shown Tonight; Good Play in Colors Is Run at the Globe.

There was no show at the Rolfe Theatre last night due to the failure of the films to arrive from Eugene. The Rex Theatre at that place has instructions to ship their Fox films to Albany, but sent them to Seattle instead, leaving the Rolfe without a show. The Eugene theatre will pay for the loss. But the shadow of the play will be given tonight and Albany people will have a chance to see pretty Vivian Martin and handsome Harry Hillard, two excellent young Wm. Fox stars in a modern version of "Thelma" one of the prettiest love stories of other days.

Idaho Editor—E. L. Alford and family, Mrs. Larsen and Miss Beard, of Lewiston, Idaho, and Fred U. The guests present were Mrs. I. G. Knotts, Mrs. Denver Hackleman, Mrs. B. W. Taylor, Mrs. H. Bryant, Mrs. Neptune, and Mrs. Worley. Dainty refreshments completed a pleasant evening.

A TURKEY HEN AT HALSEY HATCHES CHINESE PHEASANTS

Has Six Young Ones, Which She Is Taking Care of Well.

Frank Hadley, of Halsey, a tenant on the farm of J. A. McCullough, of this city, who was in the city today, tells a story full of interest. On his place a turkey hen recently set on a nest of Chinese pheasant eggs, which she finally hatched out six of the birds living. She is now mothering them, about three weeks old, and is taking a great deal of interest in their progress in the world. Almost old enough to fly, Mr. Hadley is wondering if they will stay with their mother or take to the brush. Cases of common hens hatching and mothering Chinese pheasants have been reported but this is the first case on record of a turkey hen doing so.
