NO DEFINITE PROGRAM.

(From the Brooklyn Eagle.) The weakness of the Republican campaign against Mr. Wilson lies in the absence of any definite program of reversal. The interests behind the nomination of Mr. Hughes denounce the course adopted by Mr. Wilson toward Mexico because denunciation of that sort is perfectly safe so long as there is no such element in American politics as a hyphenated Mexican vote.

A REPUBLICAN PAPER SAYS.

(From the Columbus O., State Journal.) Colonel Roosevelt says President Wilson invites war by his timid policy, but there are many, very many people who think that he invites peace by his cautious and considerate policy.

The ordinary issues of politics don't figure these days, and the paramount object is to keep the country out of war if it is possible to do so. Thus far the president has found it possible, and the universal prayer is that he will keep it up.

NOT LIKE HUGHES.

The New York Times says: "It is impossible to imagine Mr. Hughes as president writing a message to congress demanding a great war credit and instant naval and military preparation for a war with Germany because of the invasion of Belgium or the destruction of the Lusitania. The utmost stretch of fancy does not enable us to see him asking congress to declare war on Mexico. The picture would be wholly imaginary, false to the man and the occasion."

"Yet the Republicans have absolutely no other issue upon which with any degree of force and consistency they can demand of the people a withdrawal of their confidence in President Wilson. That issue they dare not raise. They condemn, they denounce, they use freely the adjectives of the language, but their nouns and verbs have no specific meaning."

WILSON WAS FIRST.

Woodrow Wilson's slogan of "America First," enunciated in the address before the Daughters of the American Revolution early in May, was adopted by the Colonel a week later and by Hughes a month later. November is the first date when the American people will have the opportunity to give it a general endorsement.

MISFITS

A new problem of far-reaching effect is: What is aerial trespass?

Does a country own the air above it, and if so can an airman be arrested for trespassing in it?

The Democrat neglected to mention the marriage of H. Hooligan and S. Usanna recently.

His real troubles will now begin.

The Philomath round-up park seats ten thousand people, the Boston baseball park 40,000 people, the old coliseum of Rome seated 87,000; but the greatest of all was the circus Maximus which seated 350,000.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century there was one criminal to 22 people in England. Now it is one to several hundred, if the war is not taken into consideration.

People who are playing according to Hoyle are following rules established in 1742.

The mode of warfare has been changed by the Howitzer, driving soldiers to the trenches.

It is said to be a fact that considerable rubber is not rubber at all.

This does not apply to the twisting of the neck.

How times have changed. The middle west was bought for 4c an acre in 1803.

Great is the U. S. It is the father of the submarine, the aeroplane, the rapid fire gun and barbed wire, the principal weapons used in the European war.

Who knows whether a pig can swim?

Certainly times must be prosperous here or how could Linn county people buy 386 automobiles in a year?

Over the telephone some one asks the names of the president's cabinet. Here they are from memory: Secretary of State—Lansing. Secretary of War—Baker. Secretary of the Treasury—McAdoo. Attorney-General—Gregory. Postmaster General—Burleson. Secretary of the Navy—Daniels. Secretary of the Interior—Lane. Secretary of Agriculture—Huston. Secretary of Commerce—Redfield. Secretary of Labor—Wilson.
