STATE SECRETARY FOR BOYS LOOKS OVER CAMP

J. H. Rudd Comes Up From Portland and Sees Activity in Camp Preparation.

John H. Rudd, state Y. M. C. A. boys' secretary, while in the city, said of the coming encampment at Cascadia:

"Mr. McDonald has matters well-organized here, and has had much to look after in regard to the camp. With Albany already pledged to go to the camp and reports from other cities we can count on nearly thirty already. With Pickett at Eugene and men in other places continually securing new campers, with the live-wire camp boosters here in Albany continually bringing in new campers, it is hardly possible to make an up-to-date estimate of the number we will finally have. It will probably run to fifty or seventy-five. While the camp will be well-organized and supervised, and full of fun, I believe that one of the best things that can be said for it is that H. C. McDonald, general secretary of the local association, is to be one of the leaders."

At noon on the fifth of July all campers will assemble at Albany and advance by train to Lebanon, thence hike to Cascadia.
