FIVE GOOD REASONS.

(By Ray Stannard Baker.)

I have five good reasons for supporting Wilson for the presidency:

1. I am for Wilson because I trust him.

He is the steadiest, safest, clearest-thinking leader in public life today. In the world crisis he has not been stampeded by extremists of either type, neither by Roosevelt nor by Bryan. He has acted with that imperturbability and wisdom in the midst of unparalleled events, which are the true marks of the highest leadership.

2. I am for Wilson because he is a genuine progressive.

Progressivism with Wilson is a faith, not a policy. The nation to him is a living force, not bound by prejudices, partisanship or theories, but moving steadily forward to meet the problems of a new time. There had been years of talk of progressive legislation. Wilson welded his divided party together and actually placed on the statute books during the first half of his administration a remarkable body of real progressive laws.

3. I am for Wilson because he has the new democratic and co-operative view of international relationships.

He has substituted for the evil and greedy policy of "dollar diplomacy" in our relationships with South or Central America a new and friendly spirit. Pan-Americanism under him has ceased to be a mere name and has become a living thing. I believe it to be his supreme ambition to make America an instrument in extending the same spirit throughout the world.

4. I am for Wilson because he has been tested and tried in the fire of the greatest events. I know what he is and what he can do. I know that he is master of the situation and has handled the nation's affairs upon whole with great wisdom, patience and courage. More than any other American he is familiar with every crook and turn of our delicate national relationships in this troubled time. Why should I think for a moment of substituting for such a leader an untried man, without experience in these great national affairs, of whose views I am uncertain? We know Wilson and what he has done; all we can know of any other leader is what he says he will do.

5. I am for Wilson because I believe him to possess the clearest understanding of the true American spirit of any man now in public life.

He understands its historical origins and inspirations; his whole life has been devoted to the study of American institutions. No series of books are superior to his as wise commentaries upon American government. He understands also the American spirit in its contemporary expression in public opinion; in each great crisis during the last two years, when he has acted, the great mass of the American people have been soundly with him and behind him. Therefore I trust him beyond any other leader to meet the stormy events which are before us, and to meet them with the true American spirit. We are embarked for the first time in our history upon the unknown and tempestuous seas of world politics, but we know that with Wilson at the helm, the Ship of State will not only go forward on a true course, but will be safely, patiently, courageously navigated.

Mortgage Loans.

Have plenty of local money to loan on farms in amounts from $1000 to $2500; also have Eastern money, and can make loans in amounts ranging from $3500 to $10,000 on good cultivated farms in Linn or Benton counties for long time. No delays in obtaining the loan. See

MISFITS

Seriously the Mexicans need a good licking just to show them how easily the U. S. can do it; but the greatest bravery is in not fighting when one feels like it.

The following from a Mexican paper makes one feel like whipping some one:

"Above all, do not forget that at a time of national need, humanity is a crime and frightfulness a virtue.

"Pull out eyes, snatch out hearts, tear open breasts, drink—if you can—the blood in the skulls of the invaders from the cities of Yankkeeland.

"In defense of liberty be a Nero, a Caligula—that is to be a good patriot. "Peace between Mexico and the United States will be closed in throes of terror and barbarism."

That shows the kind of neighbors we have just south of us. The Filipinos are in a high state of civilization compared with them, and even Europe has a few redeeming features.

Some Oakland, Calif., people have sent Bill Hearst a letter inviting him to organize a company of money magnates from the munition, steel, copper, nickel and oil trusts and holders of Mexican acreage to volunteer like men for extra hazardous duty. If there is a Mexican war it will be theirs, for their gain. Why shouldn't they be in the front ranks. "Only towards sit safe at their desks and in luxurious homes and call to other men to go shed your blood to make me richer," says the letter.

One of the worst fool rumors around is that there are some Jap generals in the Mexican army.

Japan and the United States are good friends and will probably continue so regardless of yellow journals.

How It Looked to Brown. Benton County Courier:—The cartoon in the Oregonian Wednesday morning was contemptible and in keeping with the policy of that sheet. For months that paper has urged the president to send troops into Mexico, and now that this action has been taken, the Oregonian prints a cartoon showing a company of soldiers marching to Mexico, a mother sitting in a chair (a chair by the roadside, mind you) weeping, while a hand is writing on the horizon above the soldiers, "He Got Us Into War."

Preachers of Preparedness. "The rain broke up the preparedness parade, didn't it?" "Yes. Nobody thought to bring an umbrella.—Lampoon.
