CITY NEWS

Our Wants—

Albany is now talking of having a round-up. Better wait till she gets the Linn county fair moved over there and combine the whole outfit with her industrial fair. Albany is ideally located for a big exposition such as this would make. The old fair grounds south of town afford a lot of room, and when in condition has the fastest mile race track in the state. Better have one big time than a half-dozen dinky little ones.—Jefferson Review.
