SOCIAL

noon the future work was planned and later an enjoyable social hour was spent and choice refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stewart and family are guests of Mrs. W. E. Stewart in Portland. They plan to spend about two weeks in the metropolis.

On Thursday evening the Pythian Sisters were royally entertained by the Pythian Sisters of the Eletha temple, Corvallis. A banquet and social hour were enjoyed during the evening. About twenty-eight members motored over from Albany.

The Pythian Sisters held their regular meeting in the hall Tuesday afternoon. The members wishing to attend Chautauqua held the meeting in Bryant's Island. A picnic lunch was enjoyed by a large number present.

A merry picnicking crowd enjoyed Friday along the Willamette river. A bonfire was built and a "feed" served to the Misses Marion Anderson, Nellie Snyder, Carolyn Cannon, Ruth Livengood, Lucile Snyder, Corintha Hart and Beatrice Sanders.

On Wednesday the members of I. O. O. F. enjoyed a banquet. Installation of officers took place and the grand master and grand secretary were present at the meeting.

Miss Harker, of Miss Harker's school, Palo Alto, California, was visiting in this city during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Gilbert Hackleman presided at a farewell dinner last week, given in honor of their cousin, Miss Ann Eddy, of Owosso, Michigan, who left on Tuesday for her home in the east. The attractive table was centered with a cut-glass bowl of red rambler roses, combined with red sweet peas. Artistic place cards with red blossoms marked covers for seven guests. Miss Eddy graduated from Albany College in June, after residing the past two years in Albany, where she made many friends, who hope to see her return again to this city.

Mrs. W. G. Stanford and daughter, Miss Marion, left for Portland on Monday and sailed Tuesday via "S. S. Great Northern" for San Francisco. From there they sailed for Los Angeles, and will spend a month visiting

BOY SCOUTS HAVING BIG TIME AT CASCADIA

In Fishing Match Ross Kreamer
Carried Off Honors With Seventeen.

Letters from Albany boys in the Boy Scout camp near Cascadia, indicate that they are having a great time. One of their trips was to the top of Hurricane Deck. Recently they divided into three parties and fished Moose creek, the canyon and the Saniam. Ross Kreamer, of this city, had the distinction of being high angler, with a record of 17 trout.

The boys will leave for home Monday, due to reach Albany Tuesday noon. From all reports the outing has been a good one, long to be remembered.
