Ancient Football.

Phillip Stubbs wrote in 1583 in his book on "The Anatomie of Abuses:"
"For as concerning football I protest unto you it may rather be called a friendly kinde of fight than a play of recreation; a bloody and murthering practice than a felowly sporte of pastime. For dooth not every one lye in waight for his Adverserie, seeking to overthrow him and to picke him on his nose, though it be on hard stones, so that by this means sometimes their backs, sometimes their legs, sometimes their arms, sometimes one part thrust out of joynt, sometimes another; sometimes the noses gush out with blood, sometimes their eyes start out—fighting, bawling, contention, quarrell picking, murther, homicide and great effusion of blood, as experience dayly teacheth."

Beethoven's Fits of Rage.

Beethoven's behavior was often atrocious. In giving lessons to young ladies he would sometimes tear the music to pieces and scatter it about the floor or even smash the furniture.
Once when playing in company there was some interruption. "I play no longer for such bores," he cried and left the piano. He once called Prince Lobkowitz an ass because a bassoon player happened to be absent—Dole's "Famous Composers."

Horns of a Dilemma.

We apply the term "horns of a dilemma" to a situation in which a person is confronted by two opposite and conflicting lines of conduct, the advantages or disadvantages of which appear to balance; hence the analogy to the "horns" of an animal.

Humility Not All.

Humility is the part of wisdom and is most becoming in men. But let no one discourage self reliance. It is of all the greatest quality of true manliness.—Louis Rossuth

Evidently She Did.

"Does your wife like pets?"
"She must. I rarely go home without finding her in one."—Boston Transcript.

As small letters hurt the sight, so do small matters him that is too much intent upon them.—Plutarch.

BOY SCOUTS ON WAY HOME FROM CASCADIA

Are Reported to Have Had a Fine Time, With Some Interesting Experiences.

The Boy Scouts are on their way home from Cascadia, and are expected on the 6:45 train from Lebanon this evening.

The boys have had a great time on their trip, one full of enjoyment, as well of experiences that go to help build up character. In the camp life the discipline has to be strict, under organization.

The tents are arranged in groups, by the boys from different towns, Albany, Salem and Eugene. In eating the youngsters had preference like this: Breakfast, Albany first; dinner, Salem, first; supper, Eugene first, moving up in order from the dinner assignment. There was a junior council, with Wyndham Buren, of Salem, as chairman, and Jack Newhall, Eugene, and Albert Senders, Albany.

An interesting feature was the kangaroo court, where all offenses were tried with the following penalties: neck, water cure; mouth, soap cure; meditation log; parading in front of quarters carrying designated things and hot hand.

Phillip Elliott, of Salem, was judge, by appointment. One evening those tried were Albert Senders and Charles Tapper of Albany for four offenses, and Frank Bennett, of Eugene, one.
The defendants always could choose their own attorney.

Different delegations had different stunts at different times.

The Albany boys arrived by jitney at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The others will come tonight.

Decree is Given.

Judge Wm. Galloway has handed down a decree in the case of Jane Miller, et al, vs. Henrietta Friend, et al, suit to partition property. The court decreed that Jane Miller be paid the sum of $44.28, that the costs of the suit and reasonable attorneys fees be paid, and that the balance left after the sale of property be paid in proportion to the recision of F. T. Blount, referee.

The Secret of Motor Car Economy lies in the use of a perfect lubricating oil,—an oil that eliminates friction and allows all the power of the engine to be utilized.

ZEROLENE

The Standard Oil for Motor Cars accomplishes exactly these results. Hundreds of owners of motor trucks tell us that ZEROLENE is one of the main factors in the reduction of their maintenance charges.

CITY NEWS

Will Lie in State—

The body of Mrs. Teetje Ohling, who died yesterday morning, will lie in state Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:00 o'clock. The funeral services will be held at 2 at the United Presbyterian church.

Should Keep Street Open—

F. M. Redfield, whose residence is on Eighth street between Vine and Calapooia, is not in favor of constructing the contemplated bathing pool at that place. He states that Eighth street in this block has been open since the town was laid out, and to construct a bathing pool there would be an infringement on the property owners along the street. He is heartily in favor of the swimming pool, however, and thinks it should be built further up the stream where the street is not opened. Mr. Redfield is also in favor of having the pool enclosed in the name of modesty, since the bathing suits of the present day are an attraction in themselves and curious spectators, especially male, should not have the privilege of gathering around for the sake of merely "observing" the swimming.

Smith of Gates—

Don Smith, of Gates, has been in the city today, here on a short business trip. Mr. Smith has been a resident of Gates for 43 years, prominent in the affairs of the community. His son, Carl Smith years ago was deputy county recorder for several years.

The Albany Market—

Perry Parker, one of the leaders in the Albany market movement, was in the city today. He reported that it is expected that the market will start about the middle of August. It is the purpose to set it to going at a time when there are plenty of fruits and vegetables to make a good showing, and then to keep it going.

Here from Halsey—

George Warmouth, of Halsey, was among the visitors in Albany yesterday.

Married—

The house of Mrs. Frank R. Dooley on the Corvallis road was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon when her sister Mary Ann Clark was united in marriage to Frederick Munro Kendrick of Walla Walla, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick left for a motor trip and will be at home 611 Newell street, Walla Walla after September 1.
