JUDGE ELLIOT AND CROWD ARE GREATLY PLEASED

Boy Scouts Want to Go Again Up to Cascadia Next Year For Outing.

Judge Phillip Elliott and his fellow Boy Scouts, of Salem, passed thru the city last night for home after a visit in the mountains around Cascadia, fellows of the Albany and Eugene Boy Scouts. Mr. Ostrander accompanied them. They were delighted with their experiences, and had many good stories to tell.
The Albany boys were so greatly pleased with their experiences that they propose going again next year, as do the boys from the other towns.

There were 36 in all, under strict organization.
One of the rules was that sweets should not be allowed in camp. It was discovered that Elmer Robnett had a box. These he hid. They were found, and while afterwards it was decided to bury the camp ghost which was done with due ceremony, in a box. It having rained hard during the night, young Robnett was ordered to dig the ghost up, did so, and was surprised to find his candy in the box.
He was a good sport and all were permitted to have a bite. Every night there were camp talks, with Bible study at the proper time.
