Probably two of the most important events taking place next week and the main features of the Ninth Annual convention of the Oregon Retail Jewelers' association will be the reception Monday evening and the banquet Tuesday evening, both given at the hotel Albany. Those on the entertainment committee who have been arranging for these are Miss Ella Meade, chairman; F. G. Will, J. C. Kreamer, S. R. Wood and F. M. French.

The Retail Merchants Assn. Monday evening will give a reception to the jewelers and their wives, at the Hotel Albany. An entertaining program will be presented during the evening and an informal dance will follow.

On Tuesday evening an elaborate banquet will be held at the Hotel Albany. This also entertaining the visiting jewelers and ladies. Music will be furnished Monday evening by the Albany Concert Band and Tuesday evening by the Albany Orchestra. About 75 jewelers and their wives will visit Albany during the convention of Monday and Tuesday.

A notable affair of the week was the recital at the home of Mrs. Homer A. Nelson, in which Mrs. Emma B. Cargill presented three of her younger pupils. A large number enjoyed the program, which displayed exceptional talent on the part of the pupils and the careful training of Mrs. Carroll. The program was the following:

Etudes No. 1 op. 299
No. 2 op. 299
No. 4 op. 200
Marion Bauer Village Gossamer
MacDowell To a Wild Rose
Miss Lucile Spangler
Chopin, 67-20 Prelude
Mendelssohn Consolation
Chaminade Scarf Dance
Miss Bertha Goodman
MacDowell To a Wild Rose

Campbell-Tipton Memory
Grieg Buterfly
Rubenstein Melody in F
Chaminade Air de Ballet
De Bussy Arabesque

Miss Marion Bonney
After the program refreshments were served on the commodious porch which, like the rooms, was beautifully decorated with a profusion of assorted wild flowers. Assisting the hostess with serving were Misses Beatrice Holbrook, Violet Nutting and Dorothy Lee.

Miss Marion Anderson and Miss Nellie Snyder delightfully entertained a number of guests Friday evening. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, at the home of Miss Anderson. Music was furnished by a Victrola. An elaborate after-the-dance supper was served at the home of Miss Snyder. The guests invited for this occasion were the Misses Lucile Snyder, Gladys Davis, Abbie Anderson, Mary Hall, Beatrice Sanders and Nellie Snyder, Marion Anderson and Messrs. George Vilas, Victor Nolan, Ray Price, Walker (all students of the O. A. C.), John Enders (Ashland), Harold Wieder and Rollo Ralston.

Coming as a surprise to their many acquaintances in Albany was the announcement of the wedding of Mervyn Looney and Miss Hazel Thompson, which was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Warner in Sunrise at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Rev. D. H. Leech of Corvallis officiated. A few intimate friends and the immediate family attended the wedding and the wedding supper afterward. The young couple will be at home on the farm south of Albany after a brief wedding trip.

A new social organization puts in an appearance this week. A party of young people of the city have organized an orchestra hereafter to be known as the S. Y. P. A. Orchestra, meeting at least once a week for practice and a social hour or two, generally on Monday evening. Those who have been practicing with this organization for the past two months are Robert Boettcher, violin; Velma Anthony, cello; Harold Irvin, piccolo; Elda Pettibone, Velma Lawrenson, pianist; Clarence Bruchman, cornet; Maurice Hayes, trombone; Jas. Grigsby, drums. A meeting was held Friday at Miss Frances Pettibone's. All members with one exception were present with their friends. A pleasant evening of music and games was enjoyed by all.

Miss Carolyn Cannon entertained a few friends at a slumber party Tuesday night. The girls enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Flora Mason.

A very pretty affair of the week was the informal tea given this afternoon by Mrs. Charles Monson, honoring her house guest, Miss Marjorie McGuire, a cousin of Mr. Monson, who has been attending Wellesley College where she will be senior next year.

A musical program was enjoyed during the afternoon and later the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. M. Pugh, Mrs. Alton Coates and Mrs. A. C. Stellmacher, served dainty refreshments. The guests invited for this tea were Misses Mae Tillman, Louise Wieder, Zona Haight, Winnie Austin, Laura Taylor, Mae Ballack, Helen Hulbert, Gertrude Taylor, Marion Anderson, Claire Tillman, Greta Fortmiller, Helen Lee, Stella Dorgan, Kate Stewart, Velma Davis, Gertrude Swank, Pera Wilkins, Josephine Turner, Hazel Hockensmith, Beatrice Senders, Lee Fortmiller, Edna Hand, Christine Pipe, and Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller and Mrs. D. W. Merrill.

Miss Zona Haight and Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller charmingly entertained for the Alpha Omega Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Haight. Pink sweet peas decked the well appointed tables which were placed on the attractive porch lighted with Japanese lanterns and decorated with baskets of pink sweet peas. Miss Isabelle Garland of Lebanon was honored guest. Members present were Misses Marion Anderson, Laura Taylor, Mae Ballack, Stella Dorgan, Helen Hulbert, Winnie Austin, Kate Stewart, and Mrs. D. W. Merrill, Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller and Miss Zona Haight.

Rolland Reed with his mother, Mrs. Alva B. Reed, from Spirit Lake, Idaho, are visiting in this city at the Baltimore home. Rolland Reed is an exceptionally talented violinist and his music is appreciated by his many friends in Albany.

Thursday evening Miss Violet Nutting entertained a few of her friends at her home, giving them an opportunity of hearing Rolland Reed perform on the violin. Refreshments were served later to the guests who were Nathiel Donaca, Dorothy Lee, Marciel Austin, Royce Altermatt and Seth French.

Last night a jolly party of girls enjoyed a slumber party at the home of Dorothy Lee. A merry evening quickly passed and the sand man did not visit until the early hours of the morning. This party was given in honor of Beatrice Holbrook. Other guests were Violet Nutting, Marciel Austin and Nathiel Donaca.

A number of friends enjoyed Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John M. Ralston. Fancy work took up most of the afternoon's time and afterwards refreshments were enjoyed. Mesdames J. H. Ralston, Jessie Wallace, LeRoy Wood, E. D. Cusick, Dan Johnston, Owen Beam, C. V. Litter and Miss Flora Mason, were guests.

The Needlecraft club was pleasantly entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Stuart at the Burnett home in East Albany. Mrs. Walter Long was taken into the club as a new member. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

In the evening the members of the club and their husbands were entertained at a delightful picnic, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stuart as hosts. A beautiful feed was spread out in the yard of the Burnett home and a bonfire was built. Japanese lanterns were strung in profusion over the lawn. A jolly evening ensued with games and campfire. Mrs. H. D. Ross of Salem and Mrs. C. E. Starr were honored guests.

On Wednesday Dorothy Lee entertained a few guests at a picnic along the Willamette river, honoring her cousin, Royce Altermatt and Beatrice Holbrook.

On Monday the members of the P. E. A. met at the home of Mrs. Mark Weatherford. A pleasant afternoon was passed and an interesting contest was the chief diversion.

The New Idea club was entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Divens. Fancy work was enjoyed after a business meeting and the main feature of the afternoon was an interesting discussion on Anne Hutchinson. Choice refreshments completed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Farlow was hostess for the jolly twelve club Thursday afternoon at her home on Fourth street. An enjoyable afternoon was passed in needlework and later choice refreshments were served. Mrs. Clinton Conn, Mrs. Clara Buchner, and Mrs. Farlow were honored guests.

Misses Nellie and Lucile Snyder, Marion Anderson, Carolyn Cannon, Gladys Davis and Mary Hall and John Enders of Ashland, who is visiting with the Snyder family, motored to Corvallis Thursday where they were entertained at a dance given for them by the Kappa Sigma Nu's attending summer school at O. A. C.

After being suspended during Chautauqua the weekly band concerts are now being held. The one on last Wednesday evening was well attended and appreciated by the people of this city.

The Lookout club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Anna Davis. The afternoon was enjoyed with fancy work and later dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Louise Miltonberger won first prize in the work bag contest, Miss Vesta Caldwell winning the consolation prize. Members present were Mesdames Anderson, Cate, Caldwell, Crosson, Swank, Parker, Davis, Mrs. Louise Miltonberger, Mrs. Marie Miltonberger, the Misses Helen and Jessie Parker, Vesta Caldwell, Altha Kester, Elizabeth Glasser, and Gertrude Swank. Guests of honor were Mrs. Dick Miller, Misses McKinney, Miss Cora Kester and Mrs. Peterson (Hepener).

Miss Eva Simpson and her mother, Mrs. George Simpson, have returned to Albany, where they will remain the rest of the summer, after spending a vacation at Newport.

Wednesday afternoon a large number of the Baptist ladies met with Mrs. Worrell, at her home on East Fifth street for an afternoon of fancy work, after which a ten cent tea was served. A short informal program, consisting of solos by Mrs. Flood and Mrs. Rawlings and a selection by Mrs. Flood and the Misses Worrell and Rawlings, was much enjoyed. Several dollars were received from the tea for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid. And a most enjoyable afternoon was spent with Mrs. Worrell who is confined to her home.

Miss Elepha Cummings was hostess to a very pretty dinner party given at her home on Friday evening. The pretty table was artistically decorated with red and white as color scheme. Those to enjoy this occasion were Fay King, Ruth Rawlings, Kamilla Kroschel, Laverne Hofflich, Velma Anthony, Hazel Hall, Nina Bending and Elda Pettibone.

A little dancing party was given Thursday evening by the Misses Senders, at the home of their father in honor of their sister, Mrs. Murray Marshall (nee Lena Senders) of San Francisco. During the evening a telegram was received announcing the engagement of Miss Fannie Fromm to Mr. Clarence Stevens, also the engagement of Miss Martha Sexauer to Mr. Herbert Bomen, of North Bend. A very pleasant evening was spent and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Gilmore Torrance and Miss Rose Cassidy, both of Portland, and who are visiting their sister, Mrs. I. R. Schultz, were the inspiration for a surprise picnic given to them Thursday evening. Miss Marie Wessel su-
