Blanche Sweet Here Today.

Blanche Sweet, the beautiful and popular star of the Lasky Company, will be seen at the Globe today in the Jesse L. Lasky production of the thrilling drama "The Black-List," by Marian Fairfax and William C. De Mille, the two noted dramatists who wrote this production especially for Miss Sweet. j24-26

The thoughts of "The Black-List" struck terror to every miner's heart, for once his name was placed in its columns, it meant no more employment with a mining company. How Blanche Sweet, as a school teacher in a small mining town, forced the big corporation to abandon this procedure is presented in the story which is as thrilling as it is unusual.

I am a boy of 11. I raked hay all through last season. When it

I am keeping my money in the bank, because I know where it is.

TWO FIRES THREATEN TO DO SOME DAMAGE

The fire department responded to two calls Saturday evening and Sunday morning. About 4 o'clock Saturday fire broke out in the roof of the home of Mrs. A. E. Bloom at Front and Sherman Streets. The firemen responded in good time and put the fire out by carrying water to the roof in buckets and throwing it onto the blaze.
Very little damage was done.

About noon Sunday a similar fire occurred at 527 West Second Street, and the department likewise got to the scene in good time and succeeded in putting the fire out without the use of water. The fire caught in the roof,
