CITY NEWS

Violated Plumbing Ordinance—

Judge L. G. Lewelling this morning fined Martin Ludwig, a local plumber, $10 and then remitted the fine, for violating city ordinance number 590, which requires that a permit must be secured from the city plumbing into move than a suit case and a kit of glasses when their ways are found out. The jeweler has a valuable stock, he says, and must do a square business in order to continue to prosper. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Stevens bill and the Roberts bill, both before congress. The latter proposes to tax mail order houses in each community of the United States in accordance with the amount of business done in that place.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the national jewelers' association for sending G. A. Brock, of Los Angeles, first vice-president of that body, to the Oregon convention. Also thanking F. M. French and the other officers of the association for their efforts in successfully staking the convention, the Albany Retail Merchants' association for their fine entertainment of Monday night, and B. R. Westbrook, proprietor of the Hotel Albany, for his hospitality and efforts to make the convention pleasant.

The banquet in the evening given by the local jewelers was a repetition of the success of the first evening, only more so. The members of the local committee, composed of F. M. French, F. G. Will, Miss Ella Meade, J. C. Kremer and S. R. Wood, are to be complimented on the success of the banquet. They were ably assisted by Mrs. F. M. French, Mr. and Mrs. John M. French, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Biddle, Miss Claire Tillman and Seth French. I. E. Staples was toastmaster and made a good one. The banquet was a delicious affair and ample justice was done to it by the 100 or more who filled the beautiful dining room of the Hotel Albany.

The following menu was served: Fruit cocktail, sweet pickles, ripe olives, Consomme a la Royal, Fillet of Sole Jaunville, Pommes Victoria, Pineapple Fritters Lemon Sauce, Fried Chicken a la Bechamel, Snow Potatoes, Garden Peas en Timble, Asparagus with Brown Buttr, Hot Rolls, Tomatoes, Ciboulets, "Albany" Apple Pie a la Mode, Neuchatel Cheese, Bents Toasted Crackers, Demi Tasse, After Dinner Mints.

Mrs. S. C. Worrell played several instrumental selections during the course of the dinner. Again Mrs. A. J. Rahn pleased her hearers with two vocal selections, which received hearty applause and scored a demand for encores. Mrs. P. R. Kelly delighted the audience with a German characterization and a Chinese sketch, both of which were greatly enjoyed. One of the hits of the evening was a song written for the occasion by J. P. Jaeger, of Portland, and sung by the Albany quartet, composed of A. M. Hammer, J. G. Minton, Dr. C. V. Littler, and J. C. Irvine. Several of those present were touched up, much to the amusement of the crowd. The Staples trio, composed of Mrs. I. E. Staples and her son, Carpenter, and daughter Pearl, made a repetition of their first evening's success, the violin solos of little Miss Pearl being especially pleasing. This little girl has wonderful technique and gets beautiful tones from her instrument with her frail little arms, to the wonder and pleasure of her hearers.

On the program of toasts interesting talks were made by Mr. Staples, F. M. French, W. F. Woodard, G. A. Brock, and Col. J. L. Shepherd. W. F. Woodard and J. P. Jaeger got the applause on their jokes. The banquet and the ninth annual convention of the O. R. J. association came to a close with the singing of America by the entire assemblage.

Great praise was heard on all sides for the success of the convention, F. M. French being given credit for the number of details attended to to make the affair a big success. It was one of the best ever held by the Oregon association.

spector before plumbing work can be done on a house. The complaint was made by City Plumbing Inspector John R. Penland.
