The Fifth Annual Reunion of former Albany residents, in Portland, was held in the form of a picnic at the Oaks park, on Tuesday. A large crowd was present, having been estimated at from two to three hundred. Mr. E. L. Thompson acted ably as toastmaster, provoking a great deal of mirth. The following were called upon for short speeches: Mr. Wallace Strubbe, Prof. Lee, Mrs. Westfall, Col. Robt. Miles, Mrs. Emma Sox Newton, Mrs. E. W. Langdon, Rev. Bowersox, Mr. Circle, Mrs. Weber, Mr. Jo Webber, Judge George, Harry Day, Lillian Hackleman, Mrs. Clinton Monroe, Ex-Senator George Piper (Seattle), Mrs. Olive Johnson Stevens, Mr. William Simpson, and Atty. Caldwell. After the toasts, all of which were good, the crowd sang "Auld Lang Syne," led by Prof. Lee. Later a very fine program was enjoyed in the auditorium. Ferrullo and his band gave several selections which were greatly appreciated.

The Jewellers' convention which was held in Albany on Monday and Tuesday of this week, was a decided success, all of the functions which were given for the visitors having been much enjoyed. The committee on entertainment is to be congratulated upon their efforts.

Last Sunday a large party of Salem people spent the day picnicking at this city, at the banks of the Willamette. Before motoring home, they took a tour of Albany.

Miss Helen Hulbert left this week for Chicago, where she will spend several months visiting her uncle. She will spend a week in Poplar, Mont., as a guest of Miss Elsie Bain.

formerly of this city.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent on the lovely porch of the Mason home, when Miss Flora Mason entertained with a bridge party, honoring Mrs. Jessie Wallace, and Mesdames J. O. Wilson, Joseph Smith, Dick Kiger, and Mrs. Robinson, all of Corvallis. Before leaving, the guests were treated to a choice lunch, which was served by the hostess.

Mesdames L. H. Fish, Charles Wieder, G. T. Hockensmith, Elmer C. Gipe, Misses Louise Wieder, Hazel Hockensmith and Josephine Turner and Buster Fish went in cars to the home of Mrs. Cook, at Millersburg, where they spent Tuesday. Fancy work occupied most of the afternoon, and a general good time was had. Mrs. Cook served delightful refreshments in the early evening.

Mrs. Fred B. Newton was hostess to a jolly week end house party at the Oregon Yacht club in Portland. The guests enjoyed many diversions which Mrs. Newton had planned for their pleasure. Those fortunate enough to participate in this delightful party were the Misses Grace Langdon, Erma-Wright, Linta Cable, all of Portland, and Misses Mae Tillman and Christine Pipe of Albany.

Misses Marion Anderson, Carolyn Cannon, Neva Hofflich, Nellie Snyder, Belle Thompson, Vernita Froman, Gladys Davis, Lucille Snyder and Louise Wieder motored over to Corvallis last night to attend a fraternity dance given by the Phi Deltas, at their home. After the pleasant dancing party, they enjoyed a "feed" at Andrews and Kerr's, returning home at a late hour.

Mrs. Russell Wallace opened her lovely home on Wednesday afternoon to the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, with a large attendance. The topic for the afternoon was presented in a very interesting manner by Mrs. W. H. Lee, who is the president of the society, and Mrs. Franklin H. Geselbracht. Following the program, Mrs. A. J. Rain gave a number of her enjoyable readings and vocal solos. A choice lunch which was served by the hostess was a closing feature.

Eight or nine carloads of Albany people will motor out to Independence tomorrow to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fennell, at their hospitable country home. A large dinner has been planned as a feature of the trip.

A number of ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. L. H. Fish, on Wednesday, at her home on Sixth street. Sewing and conversation made the afternoon pass quickly, and before they departed, Mrs. Fish served a dainty collation.

Miss Emily Martin of Corvallis spent the last week in Albany as the guest of Misses Harriet Van Tassel, and Hildegard Spillman.

An especially jolly time was had by a number of girls who were guests at a slumber party given Thursday night by Miss Carolyn Cannon. At a late hour the girls retired to get a little sleep, but arose early the next morning and took a pleasant auto ride in the country, cooking their breakfast over a bon fire which was built at Spring Hill. Participating in this fun were the Misses Hazel Hockensmith, Lee Fortmiller, Josephine Turner, Ruth Livingood, Corintha Hart and Carolyn Cannon.

A wedding of interest to Albany people occurred in Corvallis on Wednesday evening, when Elmer R. Churchill and Miss Jennie Babb were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Babb. Mr. Churchill has spent the greater part of his life in Albany and has many friends here who are glad to know that he will bring his bride here to live.

Miss Georgia Bloomquist was married to Mr. Ralph Phillips on Thursday of this week, County Judge D. B. McKnight performing the ceremony. This marriage was the culmination of a short romance which began after Mr. Phillips arrived in Albany rather recently. They will be at home in Detroit, Oregon, after a short wedding trip. They received the congratulation of their many friends in this city.

Miss Thelma Burnett, entertained the Anti Nons club of girls at her home on Wednesday night, with one of the popular "slumber parties." Enjoying Miss Burnett's hospitality were Rita Dowlin, Grace McCauley, Viola Kroschell, and Lois Nebergall.

Mrs. C. R. Lamb and daughter, Miss Vesta Lamb, left this week for California where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

The Lady Maccabees varied the regular routine by giving a box social on Thursday evening at their hall in the Schmitt building. Five hundred was played at several tables, but dancing was also enjoyed by many present. Each member had brought delicious refreshments in a box and a great deal of fun was had in eating the lunch of their right hand neighbor.

The Rural Ladies' Club held their meeting this week at the home of Mrs. U. G. Smith. The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon with their sewing and fancy work. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The members present were Mesdames Allen, Virgil Looney, Pike, Barber, Ed. School, Ashton, Conn, Irvin, Shrode, Ralston, and the Misses Mildred Allen, Nancy and Florence Ralston, and Hazel and Lucy Ralston. The guests were Mrs. Charles Looney (Portland), Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Thacker, and the Misses Lucy and May Morris (Acme, Oregon), Miss Eva Thacker and Agnes Millard (North Albany).

The Syp orchestra club met Thursday at the home of Miss Velma Anthony on E. First street. Games and music was the pastime after which dainty refreshments were served.

A surprise birthday dinner party was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Morris Senders, in honor of his daughter, Miss Vests. The evening was spent in dancing. The out of town guests present for dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Murray Marshall and daughter, Miss Virginia, of San Francisco; Mrs. Sig Cohen of Portland, and Mr. Max Cohen, of Van Couver, Washington.

Pineville school district No. 3 opened their school on Thursday P. M. July 27, with sixteen pupils in attendance, at the home of Freeshow Fisher, 527 West Fifth street. Miss Snipe (Mrs. Braden), being the school ma'am, the poor discipline of the previous school teachers was apparent, but with a serious look and a few threats, Miss Snipe soon brought them to order. Eddie Nanney, tho so small, proved to be a very apt pupil; tho rather mischievous, playing hooky at recess with Ollie Nutting, Freeshow and Ima Reeves. Ima wore her hat to school, which was greatly envied by Ditto White, and caused so much trouble that Miss Snipe had to let Ditto wear it awhile. Alfee May Myrtle Maude Ross Monteith, whose father was a member of the board, was teacher's pet, and was frail and fussy, having to eat in school, making all the other pupils envious; she was also allowed to sit in the pet's chair; but was finally driven out by Ollie, whose sweet, little chubby face beamed with smiles, for being allowed to draw a bucket of water. Merilla Todd Dawson had a time remembering her age, as she was born on the 29th of Feb, so she finally explained leap year to the rest in the old familiar "30 days has Sept.," Florence Little Hodgkins helped wonderfully with the singing, "America" being the opening number and "Home Sweet Home" the last. Miss Snipe's bean called during the last song and Florence Little kept flirting with him, which greatly annoyed the teacher, who was so busy primping, that she forgot to eat her lunch, which was served to the school by Ima and Freeshow. This school is reported as doing the best work in the state.

Mrs. Edward Viereck delightfully entertained the members of the Neous Numphe club on Friday afternoon of this week, fancy work and a social time was the diversion of the afternoon. A short business meeting occupied the latter part of the afternoon, after which dainty refreshments were served. The honored guests were Miss Bernice Hall, Hazel Montgomery, and Freda Koch, (Halsey).

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. M. F. Dawson was at home to a number of her most intimate friends. The rooms were prettily decorated with sweet peas and roses, the dining room looking lovely with yellow nasturtiums and helianthus. After a pleasant time with fancy work, conversation and Victrola music, choice refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames J. W. Swank of Portland, David Froman, Clark, Frank Froman, J. J. Barrett, Grant Froman, and Misses Mae Hughes and Vernita Froman.

Mrs. Jennie B. Gaff entertained a group of her friends on Friday night at her home. The evening was spent with music and conversation and several interesting games, after which the hostess served a delightful lunch.

Mrs. Clara Clark left this week for Seaside where she will spend the latter part of the summer.

The weekly band concert took place last night, with a large and appreciative crowd out.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Grace Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. L. R. Coates, Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Diven, presided. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. D. L. McClain, the program for the afternoon was "Home Missions." The work among the Alaskans and the Jewish people was taken up. Mrs. E. H. Edgar sang in her usual pleasing manner. Pink and white sweet peas were effectively used as decorations, also as favors, the young ladies assisting the hostess with the serving. They were Miss Lucille Diven, Miss Laura Nickerson and Miss Helen Grigaby. They carried out
