"I RAKED HAY"

I am a boy of 11. I raked hay all through last season. When it was over I had $5.00. I heard about other people putting their money in the bank, so I thought I would put my money in the bank. I am keeping my money in the bank, because I know where it is.

We want the boy who makes hay while the sun shines! Sun won't always shine. Rainy days come. Bring or send $1 here to start your Rainy Day Fund. We want the boy who makes hay while the sun shines!

WONDERFUL BOY PIANIST HAS RARE GENIUS

Ronald Reid, of Spirit Lake, Gives Promise of Becoming a Master.

In the society columns of the Democrat Saturday Ronald Reid, of Spirit Lake, Idaho, who was heard in a recital Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nutting, was referred to as playing on the violin. Instead it should have been the piano. He is not a violinist, simply a pianist, and for a boy of fourteen one of rare genius, perhaps a second Hoffman, playing from memory twenty-five or thirty classical selections, from Beethoven and others of the world's masters. Old musicians who heard him were strong in praise of his wonderful execution. The boy plays with an expression and feeling that holds one. He has the temperament for a great performer, and his technique is striking. Ronald left today for home. His mother will remain for a longer visit with her mother.

CRANK SENT UP.

Bored People Over His Anti-Slaughter Ideas Until They Got Tired.

(By United Press)

New York, July 31.—Sam-U-I-Donniss, who never so much as killed a mosquito because he doesn't believe in the slaughter of animals, but who is said to have bored dozens of civilians to death with his arguments, entered the workhouse here for a two year visit today because he hailed so many strange persons on Broadway to tell them about himself.

Samuel developed a habit of stopping in front of butcher shops to harangue buyers of meat. He scolded small sized strangers for wearing slaughtered shoe leather. He yowled at women with birds on their hats, and when he was sentenced one reporter said he raged and stomped his rubber clad feet so much it was apparent that any hornet wandering into his cell, will take its life in its stinger.
