SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

Perhaps nothing this week has excited more general interest than the sailing of the Deutschland on its way back to Germany...

While the undersea business has been going on there has been much doing in the air, several big raids occurring...

The war itself continues its molasses in the water system. Whatever gains are made are so small that it takes discernment to observe them.

The hanging of Lord Casement on the charge of treason has been a matter of great interest because of its connection with the strife of Ireland...

In this country there has been much interest in the letter of acceptance of a candidate for president. A great opportunity was offered for a man of constructive ability to express himself...

MISFITS

Come again, Cap. Koenig. We all like you.

The government has been spending $142,000 probing the beef trust. Whenever the government probes anything the money flows.

England never has known how to treat Ireland right.

The execution of Lord Casement was throwing oil on a fire.

A Woodburn laundry seeks business by advertising that it weighs clothes after they are washed, charging at the same rate as other laundries that weight before, and charge for the dirt, under the rough dry system.

Manufacturers in raising the price of white paper are simply playing a robber game besides which the hold-up is a saint.

Here's bad news for the housewife. Just when the canning season is at its height the price of sugar takes a sudden shoot upwards. Already at the high figure of $8.45 per hundred, it advanced suddenly fifteen points Monday.—Ex.

Real Outing Fun. Twenty-six of the Woodburn campers enjoyed a fine lunch at Agate Beach, near the light house, five miles north of Nye Beach. It was a fine day and we had a fine time. Some went in swimming, some pitched quots, but the most fun was when Mrs. J. A. Austin, Mrs. B. F. Hall, Mrs. D. C. Bevan and Mrs. Thos. Sims held up their clothes and tried to see which one could wade out the furthest.—Woodburn Independent.

SOCIETY

Miss Beatrice Sanders Society Editor Bell 469-R

Among the season's gala events one of great prominence was the reception Friday afternoon at which the announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Laura Taylor, one of Albany's most popular girls, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, to Mr. Harry Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins.

Nearly one hundred friends called during the afternoon and were received at the door by Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, Miss Laura Taylor and Miss Chris Taylor, where they received the surprising news. In the pretty rooms a profusion of sweet peas mixed with lavender composed the decorations with a color scheme of pink and lavender. Miss Anne Dawson and Miss Isabelle Young presided at the punch bowl.

Among decorations consisting of goldenrod and shasta daisies, refreshments were served on the porch. Miss Zona Haight, Miss Marion Anderson and Miss Winnie Austin assisted with serving.

The charming and popular Miss Gertrude Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stevens, became the bride of Mr. Frank Plinsky, a prominent young man of Eugene, on Monday morning. Father Arthur Lane officiated at the ceremony. The Stevens home, attractively decorated in sweet peas, was the scene of a pretty wedding breakfast before the marriage ceremony, which was held in the Catholic church. At breakfast were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens, Mr. John Stevens (best man), Miss Margaret Shea (bridesmaid), Miss Vera Tracy, Ed. Plinsky and Miss Gertrude Stevens and Frank Plinsky. After the ceremony the bride and groom left on the morning train for Seattle, from where they will proceed to Chicago, a trip of over a month. They will be at home after their trip on September first.

The charm of a vacation at the beach has lured many Albany people to leave their homes and spend an enjoyable week or two at Newport, and other summer resorts. Among the younger set who will enjoy a vacation at the beach are Carolyn Cannon and Corintha Hart, who left Tuesday, and Violet Nutting and Gladys Gilbert, who left this morning for Newport.

During the evening the crowd enjoyed an auto ride given them by a number of gentlemen friends from Corvallis, and upon a late return visited the Pullman Cafe, enjoying a delicious "feed." From there they repaired to the home of Miss Anderson where later the girls indulged in a few hours' sleep.

Bryant's island was the scene of a very enjoyable picnic Sunday evening. Around a large bonfire a bounteous feed was amply done justice to. After a merry evening, the crowd dispersed and returned home in their cars.
