TRIANGLE BILL AT GLOBE.

"Acquitted" Is Strong Play of Love and Intrigue; Comedy Also Good.

The bill for tonight contains two corking good Triangle Fine Arts and Keystone pictures. Wilfred Lucas, Bessie Love and Mary Alden, who was seen here as the mulatto housekeeper in "The Birth of a Nation," are presented in a Griffith picture, "Acquitted." This is a strong drama of love and intrigue and is of a high standard for acting and effects. On the comedy bill are Charles Murray, the well known comedian, with Louise Fazenda, in the rip roaring picture "His Hereafter." This offers 200 feet of laughs. There is also a Pathe News Weekly showing the latest interesting events, making an 8-reel bill in all.

BIG GATHERING OF COUNTRY SUNDAY SCHOOLS AGAIN

The American Sunday School Union will next Sunday hold its sixth "All day service and S. S. rally." This gathering will be in Connor's grove—a five minute walk east from Dever station on the Oregon Electric, ten miles north of Albany.

Connor's grove has been selected as the place where the following five country Sunday schools will unite for the day. Connor, Home, Jones and Millersburg Unions and Talbot M. E.

The morning session will begin at 10:30 a. m. The usual social and basket dinner period will be had at noon, and the afternoon services will begin at 2 and close at 4 o'clock.

The people will do a good deal of the singing themselves, but a male quartet from Albany will add to the musical program of the day. Special rural Sunday school features in the morning and addresses in the afternoon. Prof. O. V. White of Scio, will repeat his valuable address given elsewhere in these meetings, on the subject of "Man's Need of a Day of rest. Why?" This address is of extraordinary interest and importance. It also is worth the day's attendance. Another speaker of the day will be Mr. E. R. Martin of Portland, Dist. superintendent A. S. S. U.

Many Albany people have been following up these rallies from week to week and are greatly contributing to their success. Last Sunday eight Albany cars were present, fully loaded with people. About 300 people in all were at the meeting.

If you own an auto, are interested in this sort of work and can attend the meeting next Sunday you may materially aid by advising missionary G. W. Rohrbach at 834 Walnut St. or by Bell phone as to what hour you can start and how many other people you can carry with you. Many of the most helpful Albany people have no other way of reaching the meeting and some of them are on the program.

Trains on the Oregon Electric reaching the place will leave here at 8:52 a. m. and 1:50 p. m. and return at 5:40 and 7:50 p. m. Fare 20c each way.

Everybody is cordially invited.

Surveyor General.

(By United Press)
Washington, Aug. 11.—President Wilson nominated Edward Heddon, of Caldwell, Idaho, state surveyor general.

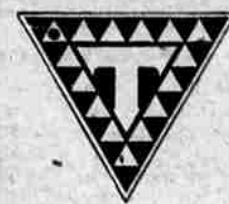

Oscar Farnset, a young Portland attorney, arrived in the city this morning.

Mary Pickford in Marvelous Role.

Mary Pickford as an Italian boy! The delightful little Japanese Cho-Cho-San, in "Madame Butterfly," has shed her sandals and her kimono for the rough boots and corduroy of the Italian peasant, and she laughs, fights and smokes her way into the heart, just as the little Niponese sobbed her way into the affections of the public. And just as the Famous Players star so cleverly concealed her own mannerisms in the interpretation of the Jap girl, so in this original photoplay by Kate Jordan, which will be the Paramount attraction at the Globe for the coming week, Miss Pickford buries the Pickfordian character beneath an avalanche of Italian mannerisms and of boyish conceptions that once more prove her wonderful broad versatility.

SOCIETY SLAMMED IN STIRRING SCREEN SCENES

Society comes in for its share of "muck raking" in the William Fox photodrama, "Hypocrisy," starring Virginia Pearson, that noted stage screen southern beauty, at the Rolfe tonight. Her part is that of a young society woman, through whose fondness for gambling falls in the pitfalls of so-called high society.

She has two lovers, parts taken by Alfred Swenson and John Webb Dillon, one of whom she marries, only to continue to receive attentions from the other. The rejected lover naturally develops into a villain, and the society woman's love of bridge lets her fall into his hands through a gambling debt.

But she is saved in good time by her husband and the realization in her own conscience of the shams, bluffs, and hypocrisies of society. The picture play has its many situations, only found in Fox films, and altogether is a drama of sound moral and artistic merit.

Hear the Critics Rave Over the Rare Charm of This Beauty

"Virginia Pearson—A dangerously beautiful but feminine actress."—New York Evening Journal.

"Miss Pearson possesses Southern warmth and charm—is today the loveliest and most perfect physical specimen of womanhood that can be found in North America."—New York American.

"Virginia Pearson is an actress of marvelous beauty. She can sway and control audiences as Joan of Arc ruled the armies of an empire."—San Francisco Bulletin.

"An actress of force, distinction and vast possibilities hitherto undeveloped."—Butte Miner.

"Virginia Pearson scores a big success."—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

"Virginia Pearson is truly an artist, slender, graceful and beautiful."—New York Dramatic Mirror.

"Virginia Pearson—the most wonderfully gowned woman on the American stage. Quite worthy of the wonderful costuming art that Doucet and Poiret have lavished upon her."—The Boston Post.
